Economics Of Show Business

A timely and urgent call for the record business to reevaluate its pricing of selected albums was a highlight of the keynote speech of CBS Records' Clive Davis before last week's gathering of NARM, the wholesalers association.

In its bare essentials, Davis' philosophy boils down to the key phrase in economics: supply and demand. His elaboration on this point came well-stocked with pertinent analogies that put the business squarely within the realm of show business (or didn't you know?).

All areas of show business, Davis asserted, recognize the drawing power of certain attractions, whether they be in the form of expensive-to-mount musical shows or motion pictures or a leading artist who is signed, at a price that justifies his status as a "star," to appear "live" at a concert or night club. Consequently, these special attractions command higher admission prices. In Davis' well-thought-out views, why don't business principles that exist in other fields of show business apply to the record industry as well?

Cast and soundtrack albums do not come cheaply, offering, Davis explains, not 2 or 3 hours of entertainment as in their original form, but "literally hundreds of hours of entertainment." In these instances, the record label involved in these ventures needn't rely on old pricing patterns to try and make their investments profitable.

And label "profits," as Davis documented, have not been easy to come by. He pointed to a Harvard Business School study that showed that in 1964 manufacturers' consolidated return on net worth was 3.8%. The report remarked that this profit level was not sufficient to "sustain a healthy industry for any decent period of time." A 10-year growth in record sales of 224% (1955-66), in short, has resulted in what Dave Kapp once referred to as "profitless prosperity."

Thus, price readjustment of selected recorded properties in line with demand and expenditures to produce them, a justified procedure in all other areas of entertainment, is supported by basic economic logic.

"Your Past is Not Your Future" was the title of Davis' address. To relieve the great profit squeeze affliction, the business must weigh Davis' words with great care—and act in the near future.

CONNIE FRANCIS

TIME ALONE WILL TELL

(Non Pensare a Me)

b/w Born Free

K-13718

And time alone will tell if this doesn't prove to be Connie's biggest single ever!
(After all, isn't that just what you'd expect when the First Lady of Song sings the First Song of the San Remo Festival?
And backs it with an Oscar nominee!)

Wholesalers View Tape Cartridges More Realistically At NARM Meet

HOLLYWOOD—The tape cartridge field got a thorough going over at two sessions devoted to "Merchandising the Tape Cartridge" at last week's NARM convention.

The sum total of the barrage of statistics seemed to add up to a year—taking NARM tape discussion at last year's meeting as the starting point—in which a panicky approach was replaced by fairly widespread commitment, and a more realistic, if uncertain attitude. It was also felt that the disk was secure as the major form of pre-recorded entertainment.

The first session was chaired by Amos Heilicher of the J. L. Marsh Co., who offered a general summary of the tape field, including characteristics of the cartridge and the problems of multiple distribution, as an opener. But, it was an open-floor discussion that produced a rash of current evaluations of tape cartridge business. According to varied estimates of the sales ratio between 4 and 8 track product, the 8-track cartridge has gained considerable ground in recent months.

Sasch Rubinstein, tape sales manager of Caletron, San Francisco, one of the leading tape distributors in the north west, said that 4 vs. 8 track sales varied from area to area, but the average was 1 to 1. Representing the Southern Calif. area, Glenn Becker noted that until Aug. of last year 4-track sales outdistanced 8-track movement 8-1, but the ratio was reduced to 2½ to 1 at the beginning of 1967. Larry Finley of ITTC noted that in the quarter ended Dec. 31, 8-track sales were 5-to-1 over 4-track, with a "better than expected" showing of rock 'n roll 8-track product. Norm Godwin said his 4-track sales were 3-to-1 vs. 8-track, dropping from a previous 18-to-1 pace over 8-track.

A third concept in tape cartridges, the cassette, was presented by Irwin Steinberg, vp of Mercury Records. While lack of sufficient promotional efforts have hindered its growth, Steinberg pointed out, a number of

Dealer Group Maps Comeback In April

NEW YORK—The Association of Record Dealers of New York and New Jersey, inactive since Dec., 1965, is being re-vitalized, according to Mickey Gensler, president.

Gensler, who runs Teen Disco-Mat, a retail operation opposite Macy's in Manhattan, said activity would start next month. A new wrinkle in the set-up, Gensler stated, could be a broadening of the association's area to include other surrounding states. ARD's present membership roll is about 80. In the forefront of matters that ARD will take on, Gensler said, will be the problems of excise tax reimbursements to dealers, delivery of merchandise (Gensler terms truck deliveries as "impossible") and movement of major distrib branches out of New York (e.g. Capitol, Decca).

ARD was affiliated with the National Association of Retail Record Dealers (NAARD), also inactive since 1965. Gensler, who is treasurer of NAARD, said attempts have been made to bring NAARD into the National Association of Music Merchants (NAMM), but meetings to spell out conditions under which NAARD would operate within the framework of NAMM have never been held. NAARD claims membership of about 500 dealers across the country.

NARM's Smooth L.A. Convention Educates & Entertains Guests

HOLLYWOOD—The smoothness acquired at eight previous conventions was evident at the 9th annual gathering of NARM, the wholesalers association, at the Century Plaza Hotel in Hollywood last week (6-9).

Comments by tradesters who made up the 800 conventioners indicated that the event proved highly educational in nature and had done much to "uplift the business."

Major Davis Statement

The keynote speech of Clive Davis, vp and general manager of Columbia Records, evolved into a major statement of policy for industry consumption, namely the adjustment of pricing on selected albums in line with demand, costs of production and the general profit squeeze within the music business (see editorial: "Economics of Show Business" and completed text of Davis speech on pg. 12). A 2-part session on the tape cartridge field was also deemed enlightening (see separate story).

Booths Criticized

One aspect of the confab received criticism: the booth set-up, which replaced NARM's familiar person-to-person meetings. Tradesters felt that the booth system tended to reduce the amount of privacy between those

Stanley Jaffee Is NARM's New Prexy

HOLLYWOOD—Stanley Jaffee is the new president of NARM. Jaffee, former NARM vp, is head of Consolidated Distributors of Seattle, Wash. In other election results revealed at last week's NARM confab, Jack Geldbart, former treasurer, is 1st vp and Amos Heilicher, former secretary, is 2nd vp. Don Ayres, director, is treasurer and Jim Schwartz is secretary.

The following board members were also named: Milt Israeloff, Charlie Schlang, Cecil Steen and John Billinis, previous president of NARM.

manning the booths and their visitors. Jules Malamud, NARM exec secretary, indicated that a new system would be devised for the future.

Billinis Welcome

In his brief welcoming address, John Billinis, president of NARM, set the theme for the convention ("Horizons Unlimited") by urging members to take a "sober look at our industry," adding that "the time has come for a reevaluation" to avoid what has developed into a "profitless prosperity."

Kintner Remarks

Earl Kintner (NARM General Counsel), in his introduction to Allen G. Siegal, noted that there are "fascinating legal technicalities which affect all of us." "As mergers arise, the federal government will be increasingly interested in our industry under the anti-trust laws. . . . Before any standardization of price is recommended to you it will be reviewed by the legal council of NARM."

Allied Artists Plans Label-Publishing Firm

HOLLYWOOD—Allied Artist Pictures is expected to have a disk-publishing set-up in operation by April. Joe Gottfried, who will head the music wing, is currently negotiating a distribution agreement with a number of labels. Label will issue soundtracks stemming for AA productions, as well as a general line of albums and singles. AA is up for an Academy Award for its film, "A Man & A Woman," which was released on the United Artists label and whose main-title has been widely recorded.

Goday Exits TRO

NEW YORK—Happy Goday has left his post as vp and general professional manager of The Richmond Organization. Goday, associated with the music complex for the past seven years, said the parting was "amicable." He'll reveal his new association within 30 days, he said. While at Richmond, he was associated in the exploitation of such Broadway scores as "Stop The World," "Roar Of The Greasepaint," "Oliver!," "High Spirits," among others. He also worked closely in exploiting material by Charles Aznavour. He was made a TRO vp last year. Goday was once associated, as vp, with Leeds Music.

FRONT COVER

A variety of disk sounds has spelled consistent success for Bobby Darin over the past 12 months. It started with a swingin' tribute to "Mame" and went on with such standout sides as Atlantic Records' "If I Were A Carpenter" and the more recent "Lovin' You." A by-product of his singles hits was a best-selling album, "If I Were A Carpenter." Bobby recently returned from England after completing work on his seventh movie, "Stranger In The House," in which he stars with Geraldine Chaplin and James Mason. On March 23, he opens at the Copacabana in New York. Last year, he returned to the club, after an absence of four years, with marked success. Darin's disks are now produced by Koppelman-Rubin.

Chess Developing $1.5 Million Recording Center At New Chi HQ

CHICAGO—A onetime boiler factory is being outfitted to become a $1.5 million "recording center of the mid-west." This is the goal of Chess Records, which is now in the process of refurbishing its new headquarters at 320 East 21st St. in Chicago.

When fully in operation by late May or June, the building will contain virtually every facility to bring a disk, single or LP, to market, including songwriting and master production.

These will include complete studio, pressing and printing facilities and a service, headed by Chess A&R director, Billy Davis, to produce masters down to the point of providing new material. Also on tap is a tape duplicating plant.

In seeking a site for such an all-encompassing operation, the Chess brothers, Leonard & Phil, purchased a building of 8-floors from the 3M Company, which had acquired the edifice when it bought out the Revere Camera Company some years ago. The edifice's origins, however, was that of a boiler factory. The brothers consider the purchase price of $425,000 a great buy. The building contains a total of 172,000 square feet (22,000 per floor), compared to a total of 24,000 square for Chess' previous home in the Windy City.

One Man Control

Marshall Chess, vp and foreign operations head, notes that one of the unique aspects of the self-sufficient music operation will be the ability of a client to call a single person to initiate the production of any project. For its pressing operation, Chess expects to keep humming with 60% of non-Chess activity, with a similar percentage for recording activity. Twenty-four singles presses can manufacture 125,000 singles on an 8-hour shift, 375,000 over 24 hours. Sixteen LP presses can produce 19,000 LP's a day. The singles output will be three times greater than Chess' present facilities in Chicago.

For a record that goes through session and pressing at Chess, a single could be in the hands of a disk dealer in Chicago in four hours, claims Leonard Chess. The studio set-up, Chess said, will be built at a cost of $150,000, including a $35,000 German mixer

Complete Text Of Clive Davis' NARM Keynote Speech

YOUR PAST IS NOT YOUR FUTURE
NARM Convention Keynote Address of

CLIVE J. DAVIS
Vice President and General Manager,
CBS Records
Los Angeles, California—March 6, 1967

It is a wonderful honor for me to have been invited to address this historic meeting of NARM. I look out there among you and see so many of the illustrious names of the industry. There are the men who have formed the musical tastes of the country by working and pioneering so creatively—finding the artists who will become household names, choosing the right composition, getting the best arrangement and mixing all together so that the public of this country and indeed that of the world can spend its leisure time with music. There are the record distributors who in addition to strong sales and promotional assistance have the perception to stick with certain records bypassed by others, and literally make hits of them by tenacious persistence. Then, of course, there are our hosts, the rack jobbers, the record merchandisers, without whose marketing revolution there would not be this vast business that constitutes the record industry today.

What a truly distinguished group—and we all owe so much to NARM which has provided a forum for us to convene to see where we in the record industry stand today. Although I have been at the helm of Columbia Records for almost two years, this is my fifth NARM convention. Fortunately, for me, there were legal problems in earlier, chaotic times and I decided that the best way to come to grips with the problems would be to go where the action was—and that was to NARM itself. What I saw was a revelation. Two enemy camps girded for battle, each sure the other had nothing valuable to offer, each positive that the other was out to make a sacrificial lamb of him. However, gradually, with every succeeding convention, a different tone began to emerge. A greater understanding began to develop so that each side became at least alerted to the problem of the other and lo and behold certain problems of one were recognized as the problems of the other. Some recognition of interdependence of interest began to penetrate. The meetings became more meaningful. The exchanges were less governed by long, repeated, tired rhetoric spoken by actors who, it seemed, were given parts to play in familiar roles. Serious problems were being considered, at least by some who knew that time was changing and so must they.

It is in this spirit that I speak to you today. Mindful of the growing maturity of the membership of NARM, aware of the critical problems now facing us and hopeful that we are ready to face these problems with the recognition that our needs are interlocked and that the solutions must be beneficial to all.

At any rate, I am here today no longer as a lawyer—one must broaden one's horizons very quickly these days if he is to survive in this intense, competitive business. I speak to you as one who feels that we are at a highly critical juncture in the existence of the record industry. And, I come to you, hopefully speaking not just for Columbia Records or for manufacturers but for all those who feel that everyone's interests are interrelated and not antagonistic to one another. For no longer can the spirit of isolationism prevail among us. Indeed if manufacturers start sneezing, NARM members had better start taking Dristan immediately if they are not to catch cold.

Fresh Approach To New Problems

Frankly, at Columbia Records, we are trying to encourage new thinking today. It is a thinking that is predicated upon the belief in the value of fresh approaches to old problems, those that have not yet been solved by experience. We no longer try to hold any idea sacred, but use all the tools at our disposal to reach creative and marketing decisions. We are making the attempt to constantly reevaluate established policies to make sure that they still have force and are still relevant in the fast-changing record world confronting us today. Obviously, we all need new analyses of where we are going—we, the manufacturers, and you, the record merchandisers. It is this that I'm going to ask you to think of today—to adhere to only one principle with conviction and that is that: Your Past Is Not Your Future. I'm going to ask you to forget certain time honored beliefs and I'm going to ask you to break through the wall that some of you have built around yourselves under the euphemistic term of "experience". Experience is a marvelous tool when it aids one to respond to new challenges in different ways. It is a hindrance when it prevents creative thinking and when it precludes fresh ideas. No great businessman got ahead on experience alone. Those who prospered did so because they used their experience to try new things, not resist them. Now let's look to see where we are in our industry, what stage we have reached and what we can do to assure that our mutual horizons are, indeed, unlimited.

Nagging Questions

Today, we are faced with the wonderful opportunity of moving our industry on to heights that could not have been conceived of as recently as ten years ago. At the same time, we are confronted with the prospect of being bogged down by factors that could thwart all future growth. There are some persistent nagging questions facing us: Can the manufacturer and wholesaler continue to exist on comparatively meager returns on investment, meager profit to sales ratios, shabby and tenuous foundations changing day to day and week to week despite the fact that we have experienced such a boom period of growth for our industry? What will happen if the long awaited recession comes? How long will we go on immune to the signs of the times, immune to what is happening in our country, in our economy and indeed in other industries closely allied to our own? How long will we go on borrowing from the future until credit finally becomes exhausted?

If you think that I am over-dramatizing the seriousness of this situation, let's look at the facts. The history of our industry has been heavily chaotic. It has involved violent distribution practices and a profitless period of prosperity despite the industry's fast growth. And indeed we have experienced a phenomenal growth, one which has outpaced the population growth and the economy in terms of gross national product and per capita income. In the period from 1955 to 1966, record sales increased by a fantastic 224%. On the other hand, over that same period, consumer expenditures for goods and services increased by only 81%.

And our growth rate continues to increase yearly. 1966 represented a healthy advance over 1965. But, at the same time, what is amazing is that despite the fact that we have grown so much faster than the rest of the economy reflecting the consumer demand for our product, our history, unlike the rest of the economy, is discouragingly one of a downward price spiral. This at the same time that costs spiral upward for the manufacturer. We therefore have a tight profit squeeze to which no other segment of the economy is subjected with such merciless persistence.

This profit squeeze has been talked about a lot in the abstract but it's high time for the facts to be made public. All of the members of NARM have to become aware of the actual problems facing manufacturers. First you have to believe what you hear, then some specific suggestions or areas for thought have to be raised if any constructive solution is to be found. This is the place to do it and I will make the attempt.

Harvard Report

In 1964 record manufacturers engaged the Harvard Business School to prepare an economic study of their financial condition. This was necessary because music publishers were demanding that copyright royalties be raised from 2¢ to 3¢ per composition. This—for an album—would mean an increase to manufacturers of 10¢-12¢ per album. And what's more, at the same time most of you were asking for further cuts in the wholesale price of records. When published, the Harvard professor's report showed that in 1964 the combined net profit for record manufacturers was a paltry 1.7%. And 1964 was then the highest sales year in the industry's history. Costs to the manufacturer had risen substantially and in 1964 manufacturers' consolidated return on net worth was 3.8%. That is, the Harvard report pointed out, a profit level that is not sufficient to sustain a healthy industry for any decent period of time.

The Harvard economists presented a graph tracing the rise in the general consumer price index during the period of 1957 to 1965. It showed a tremendous increase for other products reflecting the substantial cost of living rises, greater labor costs and the inflationary values of goods and services. What took place in our industry? Just the reverse. In other words as the demand grew, prices kept falling. This drop in price at the retail level, along with tremendous price pressures from you, put an enormous squeeze on the manufacturer and rendered his position precarious. And it certainly didn't help you either. As price concessions were obtained, you felt obliged to pass them on. You have stated repeatedly that your profit pictures looked bleak. Several bankruptcies occurred—a number to valued record names who were caught up in the whirlpool of daily practices without any long-term planning or foresight. You too suffered by running against the country's economic trend in pricing. But what's most unfortunate is that you've taken pride in winning these pyrrhic victories over the manufacturer to lower prices. One would think that you must know that the short-term victory involving the quick dollar is meaningless. And yet endlessly the pricing pressure asserts itself again and again. Manufacturers want to make a stand, but they worry about what short-sighted competitors might do and most take the easy way out. Rack jobbers would love to increase their margins but they too have qualms about their competitors. This vicious cycle leads to a serious problem for every one of us to solve individually and it's certainly time for a frank piercing analysis instead of the stalemated arguments and rote exchanges that have yielded nothing new before. The question that is never answered is: Why must we be so primitive and different from other allied industries who have approached and dealt with the price problem realistically? Clearly none of us can continue with a risk pattern that results in grossly inequitable returns. For manufacturers these risks are enormous, intensified by the volatility of tastes and the impossibility of predicting with certainty the premanence of artists' popularity. Their costs, high in 1964, are continuing to spiral upwards. Artists today present inordinate demands, asking considerably more in guarantees and royalties than ever before. The copyright bill I mentioned before, recently proposed by the House Sub-committee on Copyrights, recommended a 25% increase in copyright royalties for manufacturers to absorb. Labor costs rise every time there is a new union contract negotiated. And the problem is not going to go away. These costs are not just the manufacturers' problem. They are yours as well. Everybody is a loser in this game of price-squeezing, the manufacturer, the wholesaler, the retailer and ultimately the public. However, not surprisingly, the public, as much as any of us, does not want to lose, and the record shows they are willing to pay in order not to do so. We keep hearing that they won't pay more for our product. Frankly, that's nonsense. This is the pat answer—the easy way out. What's surprising is that so few in the record industry are willing to test it. But please let's not just huddle about this toe to toe. We've done this before. Let's try something new. Let's examine the facts.

Label Princes & Merricks

Let's look to allied fields of entertainment and see what's done there. There's a hit show on Broadway called "Cabaret" and orchestra tickets are now selling for $12.00. Are there problems at the box office? Certainly not! The show is sold out every night with standing room only. When there is a demand for something, the public will pay for it. This is despite the fact that competition down the block from "Fiddler On The Roof" has its orchestra seats pegged at $9.90 and it too is a big hit. But you know something, there is no real price war between "Cabaret" and "Fiddler" because the producer is the same for each show. Now, three years later with the opening of "Cabaret", he's learned his lesson and is profiting from it. The public will pay for what it wants in entertainment and he is pricing accordingly. Do all of you remember when orchestra seats used to be $4.80—and now we're talking of $9.90 and $12.00. But what has happened to the price of records during this same period? Where are the Hal Princes and the David Merricks of our burgeoning record business who will price records individually according to the public's demand for it? After all, records too are part of show business.

Now let's look at another branch of the entertainment world—the world of night clubs. Here too where the financial demands of the artist are high, so is the cost to the consumer. The cover charge at the Waldorf can be raised to $7.00 for a big artist and every table will still be full. Put some lesser personality in, remove the cover and you still couldn't give the tables away. At the 500 Club in Atlantic City, the standard cover is $2.00 if the artist is not well-known but get a Sinatra or Sammy Davis in there and the price because of the cost justifiably goes way up—but so do the ropes to hold back the people who are clamoring to get in. When the night club owner risks $25,000 or more a week, business prudence dictates that in order to recoup his expenditure, he must price accordingly. Do we in our industry? Quite the contrary. The records of our hot artists, more expensive to sign and record, frequently become loss-leaders and are almost given away. This despite the principle that would say that when you have hit product, you must make money on it to make up for the flops. And do we have flops in our business! Over 75% of all records don't even reach the break-even point.

Now let's look at still another allied world—the world of movies. Here, too, when expenses are heavy and costs run to 5 or 10 million dollars a production, the film goes into a first run location at $2.50 to $4.00 per seat. Yet, for movies like "Sound Of Music", "My Fair Lady" and "Dr. Zhivago" the lines still went around the block. The public doesn't mind this even though they pay less for equally fine movies like "Alfie" or "Born Free". Somehow cost factors are clearly understood. Movie companies, distributors and exhibitors decided to take the risk and break the ancient pricing tradition in their industry, and this from a public used to paying much less for movie seats over 30 years of movie going. Today, in large cities, neighborhood movie houses showing films that are not even first run, charge $2.00 and $2.50, and they get it. What's ironic is that a film for $2.50-$4.00 is a fleeting hour and a half's entertainment; an evening in the theatre for $12.00 or $9.90 is three hours of entertainment, but from one 12" long-playing record one can get literally hundreds of hours of entertainment. Yet, the price pressures continue in our field. Granted, when you attempt variable pricing, you have to be right but that's why you're in the entertainment business. Product is priced with discretion. The rule doesn't have to apply to all product. All movies aren't priced alike. The same night club varies its price for each artist appearing there. The same is true for concerts. Supply and demand is the key. Where we have priced albums selectively, sales have not been adversely affected. "Mame" and "Cabaret" are each list priced at $5.79 mono and $6.79 stereo. So are others of our recent show albums now that severe investment risks are involved plus heavy recording costs. The flops still don't sell and no discount will help them. But people want "Mame" even at the higher price. There are almost 400,000 sales to date. "Cabaret" also is an excellent seller. The Rolling Stones had their Greatest Hits album list at $4.79-$5.79. I understand that sales to date are in excess of 1,000,000 albums, higher than many of their albums with a lower list price.

Well where are we so called "record men" today. Despite last year's overall rise in consumer and wholesale prices, ours in many cases went down. The record industry has, as Dr. Doody pointed out to you last year, "reached the bottom of the barrel when it comes to profits". By the way, how many of you listened to Dr. Doody, applauded enthusiastically and then returned to operate your businesses with the same rigidity as in the past, selling price not product or quality, ignoring the consumer, his buying patterns and habits. I don't want to go any further belaboring this crucial point. It all is summarized by the conclusion that what we manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers have to recognize is that we are in the entertainment business and that the business principles that exist in other fields of show business apply to our industry as well.

On Trade LP Charts

I'd like now to turn to another serious problem that confronts us. I have mentioned the history of your own emergence as a major marketing force in records. You've enormously expanded the number of retail outlets. You've encouraged retailers who never handled records to take them on. You've broadened the potential market for us and for this you should be justly proud. Manufacturers are grateful. However, while you've extended the overall industry sales volume you've caused manufacturers to depend far too heavily on just a few items sold by them. This is plain bad business for them and, I submit, for you as well. To make an analogy—following the kind of pattern so many of you have followed in the past, if you were selling cereals and there were five brands of breakfast cereals on the market and somebody came out with a 6th brand, you'd push the new brand, which would be hot at the moment and attracting a lot of attention, and let the other cereals go unexposed. You'd look for the short-term gain and not capitalize upon the continuing interest at the consumer level in the other products. Going only with The Beatles, The Monkees or Andy Williams is wrong. In other words, frosted flakes or sugar smacks may be hot new sellers but retailers in addition to selling these items still sell corn flakes, wheaties and rice krispies. The problem is further accentuated in my opinion because where you have limited space and are forced to select you frequently rely almost exclusively on our trade charts. By doing this I know that you get a distorted view of the sales picture. The trade charts simply do not reflect the total picture or the total sales potential of albums. Albums which sell well over a two year period but not with an immediate rush are just not picked up. For example, the hit single dominated album which usually has a quick sale will run right up the charts and stay for about 8 weeks or so and come down. Assume on this basis that its sale is about 100,000 copies if it stays for 8 weeks. Lawrence Welk or Roger Williams—when they don't have hit singles—can still enjoy regular monthly sales that will aggregate much higher sales volume over the year and still not make the charts. Further, the charts don't reflect your—the rack jobber's—sales volume at all of your buying habits. Therefore, they do not consider the source of purchase of more than fifty per cent of the industry's records in their research. I'm not deriding the useful value of the charts because they do provide us with information and our trade press does attempt to deal with the problem seriously and as best they can. However, so far, the basic faults have not been overcome and a heavy reliance on them is bad business. From my company's own records—where I'm dealing with actual facts—I see the distortions. Records with double the total sales of chart albums don't make the charts. Artists who have had longer lasting power are taken for granted and are not reported after a while in favor of the newer names. This in spite of the fact that the cash registers still reflect the strong consumer interest. This unscientific approach leads to serious inherent defects. You didn't see sales of "Camelot" reflected on the charts this year; yet the album sold 200,000 copies in 1966 alone, far in excess of many chart albums. If you haven't stocked the Brothers Four because they have not made the charts, you've missed out on several LP's which have sold up to 250,000 copies nationally even without your support. If you haven't stocked Jerry Vale, you've missed out on several albums which have sold considerably more than 200,000 copies nationally. I'm sure this is also true of Al Martino and other standard bearers. You feel that Henry Mancini, Percy Faith and Billy Vaughn are interchangeable. That just isn't true. Each has his audience and in not stocking any one I know you're missing out on hundreds of thousands of sales. Since both sell well, a retailer doesn't choose between Colgate and Pepsodent. He stocks both and gets sales and profits from both. By the way, I want to emphasize here that I don't mean to sound provincial as I cite some statistics. I wanted to hack up what I said here today with facts and figures and Columbia's figures are obviously the only ones I have available to me. In any event, the point I am making is a universal one and certainly not limited to Columbia. The marketing revolution has brought you to the point of servicing full-line stores but I submit that you are still not providing full-line service. I urge that all of you develop a working, active appreciation of what the fantastic growth of our industry really means. Records are big business and you're missing a great portion of it by not viewing its collective potential and its individual variations. Your job should be selling with the sharpest imagination, not huying with the sharpest pencil. It's shocking that so many of you have put the servicing of your accounts into the hands of a truck-driver with an inventory list without hiring carefully and selectively those who have a knowledge of our business, enthusiasm for it and intelligence to prosper in it. So many of you have spurned all advice of manufacturers, refused to participate in his marketing programs or advertising plans. Whoever heard of Lever Brothers or General Foods embarking on a gigantic campaign to promote new or existing product and then being challenged by distributors or retailers who refuse to stock the product. Manufacturers who take the responsibility and the risk of spending considerable sums of money from what are narrow profits to begin with simply must have the cooperation of everyone to make possible the success of their advertising and promotional campaigns of their kind of research and development work—that is the building of new artists. I & M is spending money to build up Chris Montez, if Capitol is using large sums to build up a Lou Rawls or Columbia a large amount on John Davidson, you owe them your support. Of course, these artists are not going to sell at first as much as Herh Alpert or Dean Martin but in order to build these new peo-

Pick of the Week

A LITTLE BIT ME, A LITTLE BIT YOU (2:35)
[Screen Gems-Columbia BMI—Diamond]

THE GIRL I KNEW SOMEWHERE (2:32)
[Screen Gems—Columbia BMI—Nesmith]

MONKEES (Colgems 1004)

The unprecedented success of the Monkees shows no signs of abating judging by this, their third single. Slightly similar in sound to "I'm A Believer," this one, called "A Little Bit Me, A Little Bit You" should soon be heading straight up the charts. Flip is a smooth rocker called "The Girl I Knew Somewhere."

MY BACK PAGES (2:30) [Witmark ASCAP—Dylan]

RENAISSANCE FAIR (1:50) [Tickson BMI—Crosby, McGuinn]

BYRDS (Columbia 44054)

A Bob Dylan penned ditty, "My Back Pages" is an easy-going, rhythmic, flowing, folk-flavored rock outing that is a sure fire bet for air-play and should put the Byrds on the top of the charts. "Renaissance Fair" is a particularly groovy romp with a Renaissance flavor.

GONNA GIVE HER ALL THE LOVE I'VE GOT (2:39)
[Jobete BMI—Strong, Whitfield]

JIMMY RUFFIN (Soul 35032)

Jimmy Ruffin could find himself headed for the top of the charts with "Gonna Give Her All The Love I've Got." The side is a lushly ork'ed venture with a strong driving feeling and blues-slanted approach. No information available on the flip side at this time.

YOU GOT WHAT IT TAKES (2:50)
[Fidelity, BMI—Gordy, Carlo, Gordy]

DOCTOR RHYTHM (2:40) [Branston, BMI—Clark, Smith]

DAVE CLARK FIVE (Epic 10144)

This newie could very well be the biggest thing in a long while for the D.C. 5. An updating of the while-back Lloyd Price smash, this mixture of Detroit and Liverpool from the quintet could put the boys back at the top. "Doctor Rhythm" is a moving, winding danceable.

MUSIC TO WATCH GIRLS BY (2:32)
[S.C.P., ASCAP—Velona, Ramin]

THE FACE I LOVE (1:55)
[Janeiro, Barnaby, ASCAP—Gilbert, Valle, Valle]

ANDY WILLIAMS (Columbia 44065)

A quick-stepping, up-beat, up-tempo, brassy, driving ditty from songster Andy Williams. The side is called "Music To Watch Girls By" and should offer hours of enjoyment. "The Face I Love" fills the flip with lyrical, lilting sounds for the romance minded.

I'M A MAN (2:28) [Essex ASCAP—Miller, Winwood]

CAN'T GET ENOUGH OF IT (3:42) [Essex ASCAP—Miller, Winwood]

SPENCER DAVIS GROUP (United Artists 50144)

The Spencer Davis Group should have a quick trip to the top regions of the charts with this thumping, driving, wailing, powerhouse called, "I'm A Man." The side is marked by a far-away, mistic sort of choral backing at various points. On the flip, "Can't Get Enough Of It," holds more of the same.

GET ME TO THE WORLD ON TIME (2:30)
[Pomona, BMI—Tucker, Jones]

ARE YOU LOVIN' ME MORE (Enjoyin' It Less) (2:21)
[Pomona, BMI—Tucker, Mantz]

ELECTRIC PRUNES (Reprise 0564)

The Electric Prunes, who "Had Too Much To Dream Last Night," break out on this deck with a frantic, psyche-searing workout called "Get Me To The World On Time." The wild, uninhibited lid should chalk up lots of points with the kids. "Are You Lovin' Me More (But Enjoyin' It Less)" is a similar outing.

Pick of the Week

CLOSE YOUR EYES (2:34) [Tideland, BMI]

I WILL WATCH OVER YOU (2:40) [Kapralik, Peterna, ASCAP]

PEACHES & HERB (Date 302)

After scoring chart points with "Let's Fall In Love," Peaches and Herb dig way back into rockdom's past for this winning selection of "Close Your Eyes." The former Five Keys biggie of the 50s should do equally well for Peaches & Herb in the 60s. "I Will Watch Over You" is a sweet romancer.

THE PROPER THING TO DO (2:02) [Chappell, ASCAP—Haber]

TEE HEE HEE (My Life Seems Different Now) (2:34)
[January, BMI—Whitten]

T-BONES (Liberty 55951)

The T-Bones have been cold for a spell, but threaten to stir up some fire with their latest offering, "The Proper Thing To Do." Although generally known as an instrumental group, the boys offer a real good vocal here, making this a strong chart contender. Flip is an undulating near-Eastern type item called "Tee Hee Hee (My Life Seems Different Now)."

THE WISHING DOLL (2:36)
[United Artists, ASCAP—David, Bernstein]

WHERE DOES THE SUN GO (3:15) [Metric, BMI—DeShannon]

JACKIE DeSHANNON (Imperial 66236)

This latest effort from Jackie DeShannon is a strong contender for lots of air play and sales. "The Wishing Doll" is a Bluesy, rhythmic, lonely, reflective ballad for the romance imded. On the back, "Where Does The Sun Go," is a lushly ork'ed thumping ditty that should also please.

TURN THE WORLD AROUND THE OTHER WAY (2:37)
[Fingerlake, BMI—Peters]

I CAN'T WAIT ANY LONGER (2:46) [Streetcar, BMI—Taylor]

BIG MAYBELLE (Rojac 115)

Big Maybelle stands a good chance to spread her following even farther with this strong, pulsating, rhythmic, heavily orchestrated R&B ballad, "Turn The World Around The Other Way." Over on the other side, "I Can't Wait Any Longer" holds more of the same.

MERRY-GO-ROUND (2:18) Windfall ASCAP—Papparlardi, Collins]

FOOLIN' AROUND (THE WALTZ) (2:50) [Whitfeld BMI—Young]

YOUNGBLOODS (RCA Victor 9142)

A freaky, up-beat, rhythmic, ditty-of-the-times-type offering from the Youngbloods, this one is called "Merry-Go-Round and should expand the group's already growing following. The side is accented by a child-like feeling. More good sounds on the back with the folky "Foolin' Around."

DEAD END STREET MONOLOGUE (1:27) [(Rawls)]

DEAD END STREET (2:10)
[Raw Lou, Beechwood BMI—Axelrod, Raleigh]

YES IT HURTS—DOESN'T IT (2:07) [Wertz BMI—Raleigh, Barnum]

LOU RAWLS (Capitol 5869)

Combining an introductory monologue with a strong, medium-paced, thumping, big-city type Blues, this "Dead End Street" deck should get plenty of wide-range air-play resulting in plenty of sales. "Yes It Hurts Doesn't It" is another soulful Blues outing.

NOTHING LIKE BEING IN LOVE (2:00)
[Jalynne, BRC, BMI—Tarleton]

WRAPPED, TIED AND TANGLED (1:58)
[Jalynne, BRC, BMI—Tarleton]

LAVERNE BAKER (Brunswick 55311)

LaVerne Baker may well have a fast rising chart item under her with this pulsating, up-beat, driving, swinging ditty that says there's "Nothing Like Being In Love." Over on the back, "Wrapped, Tied And Tangled" offers more goodies from the same bag.

Pick of the Week

DAY TRIPPER (2:30) [Maclen, BMI—Lennon, McCartney]

A GOOD THING (Is Hard To Come By) (2:13)
[Pronto, Tamiko, BMI—Jones]

TAMIKO JONES & HERBIE MANN (Atlantic 2392)

The team of Tamiko Jones and Herbie Mann has come up with another groovy outing, which may be the one to see some chart action for the pair. This time they offer an easy-swinging jazz treatment of the Beatles while-back biggie. "A Good Thing (Is Hard To Come By)" is another cool jazzer.

HAPPY JACK (2:14) [Essex, ASCAP—Townshend]

WHISKEY MAN (2:57) [Essex, ASCAP—Entwhistle]

WHO (Decca 32114)

Once again the Who are on the scene with an item that could break them into the scene in the States. Red-hot in England, this Who offering, called "Happy Jack," is a strong sound well worth hearing. "Whiskey Man" is a swinging, easy-paced teen rocker.

Newcomer Picks

FIRST TIME, LAST TIME (2:45) [Boyle, ASCAP—Mekler]

TWO O'CLOCK MORNING (2:10)
[Trousdale, BMI—Tani, Hendricks, Olson]

LAMP OF CHILDHOOD (Dunhill 4063)

The Lamp Of Childhood will cast a lot of light on the rock scene with this groovy, folk-influenced, haunting, reflective, mellow, gentle, medium-paced, ballad romancer aptly titled "First Time, Last Time." Side is backed with an up-beat Blues venture called "Two O'Clock Morning" that should also get its share of spins.

WHO'S THE BIRD (2:07) [Kangaroo, BMI—Young]

A GIRL'S IMAGINATION (2:30) [Kangaroo, BMI—Young]

SQUIRRELS (RCA Victor 9127)

The Squirrels stand a good chance to break out, chart-wise, with this Victor stand called "Who's The Bird." The boys offer a soft, easy-swinging ditty with a cute Liverpool sound that may catch on. Flip, "A Girl's Imagination," is an appealing softie that could also do it.

LOVE DON'T LET ME DOWN (2:02)

[Kama Sutra, BMI—Andreoli-Poncia, Linde-Bloom]

WHERE IS THE WOMAN (1:58) [Kama Sutra, BMI—Linde-Bloom]

BOBBY BLOOM (Kama Sutra 223)

Top 40 programmers should give a few spins to newcomer Bobby Bloom and his outing called "Love Don't Let Me Down." Chanter offers a strong, throbbing rocker that may be a biggie with the buyers. Looks good. "Where Is The Woman" is a lowdown moaner.

IT JUST WON'T BE THAT WAY (2:20)
[Tender Tunes, Elmwin, BMI—Ryan]

EVERYBODY'S GOT TO BE ALONE SOMETIME (2:15)
[Urug, BMI—Talbot, Panken, Schneider]

GURUS (United Artists 50140)

The Gurus didn't make it first time out, but could very well do it with their latest UA offering, called "It Just Won't Be That Way." The crew offers a frantic, high-powered teen stanza that could be the one to propel them chartward. "Everybody's Got To Be Alone Sometime" is a wailing, Eastern-flavored item.

NON PENSARE A ME (2:51) [Chappell, ASCAP—Testa, Sciorilli]

VITA (2:57) [Unart, BMI—Beretta, Balsamo]

IVA ZANICCHI (UA Int'l 2801)

The UA International label debuts with the San Remo Festival winner as handled by Iva Zanicchi (who performed the song at San Remo) and hopes to score similar success with the song on the American scene. A potent, feelingful ballad, this one could do nicely here. "Vita" is another appealing ballad.

Newcomer Picks

SOMEBODY TO LOVE (2:54) [Copper Penny, BMI—Slick]

SHE HAS FUNNY CARS (3:03)
[Jefferson Airplane, BMI—Kaukonen, Balin]

JEFFERSON AIRPLANE (RCA Victor 9140)

The Jefferson Airplane is off and flying high above the clouds once again with this bright, pulsating, rhythmic, sometimes-frenetic, funky rock outing called "Somebody To Love." "She Has Funny Cars" puts more groovy sounds on the back. Deck should get spins and sales aplenty.

PERSECUTION SMITH [Gear, ASCAP—Seger]

CHAIN SMOKIN' [Gear, ASCAP—Seger]

BOB SEGER AND LAST HEARD (Cameo 465)

Bob Seger and the Last Heard may well be on the way up the charts, riding on this up-beat, frantic, driving, frenetic, protesty, message-like effort about someone named "Persecution Smith." "Chain Smokin'" on the back is a shuffling, bluesy ditty.

I CHERISH YOUR PRECIOUS LOVE (2:33) [Mirby, BMI—Praye]

CAN'T GET TOO MUCH LOVE (2:15) [Mirby, BMI—Praye]

JOHNNY PRAYE (Sidewalk 911)

Here's a self-penned deck that could be the beginning of big things for Johnny Praye. Side to watch, "I Cherish Your Precious Love," is a smooth, steady-moving R&B'er that could turn into a healthy sales item. "Can't Get Too Much Of Your Love" is a thumping goodie.

THE WHOLE WIDE WORLD IS WATCHING US (2:34)
[Arch, ASCAP—Gold, Brooks]

THROUGH THE EYE OF A NEEDLE (2:40)
[Blue Seas, Jac, ASCAP—Bacharach, David]

DONNA MARIE (Columbia 44015)

Newcomer Donna Marie may have a high riding chart bound vehicle in "The Whole Wide World Is Watching Us." The side is a melodic, thumping, heavily orchestrated, ballad for the romance minded. "Through The Eye Of A Needle," on the back is a more subdued venture in the same vein.

MY GIRL JOSEPHINE (1:59) [Travis, BMI—Domino, Bartholomew]

FIVE MILES FROM HOME (2:55) [Acuff-Rose, BMI—Lewberry]

JERRY JAYE (Hi 2120)

The old Fats Domino rocker, "My Girl Josephine," gets an excellent revamping in the hands of Jerry Jaye. The old rocker still has its same infectiousness, and may even have enough spark to revive the Twist. "Five Miles From Home" is a lonely-sounding, country-flavored saga.

YOU'RE DYING BOY, DYING (Without My Love) (2:35)
[Shelby Singleton, BMI—Burch]

DON'T PUSH ME TOO FAR (2:35)
[Shelby Singleton, BMI—Nelson, Burch]

SHERRY DENNING (Mala 556)

Could be big sales in store for Sherry Denning and this "boots-y" outing called "You're Dying Boy, Dying (Without My Love)." Deck has a groovy sound that could send it zooming. "Don't Push Me Too Far" is a plaintive love ballad.

NEW YORK'S MY HOME (2:33) [Sea-Lark Enterprises, BMI—Kooper]

MY VOICE, MY PIANO, AND MY FOOT (5:30)
[Sea-Lark Enterprises, BMI—Kooper]

AL KOOPER (Aurora 164)

Al Kooper may be on a high ride to the top of the charts with this shuffling, reflective, blues-oriented, soft, gentle ditty called "New York's My Home." "My Voice, My Piano, And My Foot" fills the flip with bluesy oriental-slanted sounds.

CARMEN MC RAE

(Warner Bros. 5894)
● HOTEL (2:35) [M. Witmark & Sons, ASCAP—Keating, Quine] Sad, haunting theme song from the original soundtrack of the Warner Bros. flick, "Hotel." Could happen for Carmen McRae.
(B+) THIS YEAR (2:38) [M. Witmark & Sons, ASCAP—Keating, Worth] Slow, emotion-filled torch song, also from "Hotel."

MICKIE FINN (Dunhill 4076)

● THOROUGHLY MODERN MILLIE (2:25) [Northern, ASCAP—Cahn, Van Heusen] The currently off-cut theme song from the Universal film, "Thoroughly Modern Millie," here receives a bright, spirited treatment at the hands of Mickie Finn. Give it a spin.
(B+) TIGER RAG (1:53) [Leo Feist, ASCAP—Ragas, La Rocca, Shields, De Costa, Sharbaro, Edwards] Sparkling, high-speed instrumental on this side.

COLLECTORS (Valiant 760)

● LOOKING AT A BABY (2:05) [Sherman-DeVorzon, BMI—Vickberg, Henderson] Groovy, full-harmonied melody-rocker could earn spins aplenty for this deck. Deserves attention.
● OLD MAN (2:31) [Sherman-DeVorzon, BMI—Vickberg, Lawrence, Henderson] Haunting, lyrical ballad might well prove to be a chart-bound vehicle for the Collectors. Watch it.

MAGPIES (ABC 10893)

● MAISY (3:09) [Pamco, BMI—Pistilli] Rhythmic, infectious romancer here. Could be a chart-destined item for the Magpies.
(B+) THE BALLAD OF SAMUEL OSCAR BEASLEY (3:20) [Pamco, BMI—Pistilli, Cashman] Shouting, thumping rocker on this side.

MARK JAMES (Liberty 55953)

● BIMBO KNOWS (2:39) [Kaboo, BMI—Zambon] Slow-paced, mournful soul session could send this deck high on the charts. Scan it with care.
(B+) I CAN'T LET YOU GO (2:50) [Kaboo, BMI—Zambon] Same for this side.

BUDDY GRECO (Reprise 0562)

● THERE SHE GOES (2:01) [Four Star, BMI—Miller, Haddock, Stevenson] Melodious mid-tempo love-ode could develop into a hit for chanter Buddy Greco. Don't let it out of your sight.
(B+) YOUR NAME (2:37) [Dindi, ASCAP—Greco, Gilbert] More in the same bag over here.

KEITH ALLISON (Columbia 44028)

● LOUISE (1:55) [Daywin, BMI—Kincaid] Fiery, free-wheeling toe-tapper could get loads of attention for this deck. Keep an eye on it.
● FREEBORN MAN (2:56) [Boom, BMI—Allison, Lindsay] Zestful, fast-moving, country-flavored ditty could bring Keith Allison into the center of the pop scene. Chart material.

VIC DAMONE (RCA Victor 9145)

● A QUIET TEAR (2:45) [Irving, BMI—Raleigh, Alpert] Smooth, flowing love-ode is filled with chart and sales potential. Could be a big one for Vic Damone.
(B+) ON THE SOUTH SIDE OF CHICAGO (2:12) [Zeller, ASCAP—Zeller] Zestful tribute to the famed South Side of Chicago.

CAROL CHANNING (Decca 32103)

● JAZZ BABY (2:41) [Mills & General Mills, ASCAP—Mer-rill, Jerome] Cheerful, amusing ditty from the original soundtrack of the Universal film, "Thoroughly Modern Millie." Could happen for Carol Channing.
(B+) DO IT AGAIN (2:01) [New World, ASCAP—De Sylva, Gershwin] Bright, brassy romancer, also from "Thoroughly Modern Millie."

NICHELLE NICHOLS (Epic 10131)

● KNOW WHAT I MEAN (2:38) [Knollwood, ASCAP—Huddleston] Potent, mid-tempo finger-snapper could provide a solid chart berth for this deck. Watch it closely.
(B+) WHY DON'T YOU DO RIGHT? (2:04) [Mayfair, ASCAP—McCoy] Groovy, blues-oriented rock item on the back.

LEROY & DRIVERS (Coral 62515)

● L-O-V-E [Currant—Smith] Potent, slow-paced romancer could be a big winner for Leroy and the Drivers. Give it a spin.
(B+) BLOW WIND [Richwill, BMI—Price] Catchy, medium-paced rocker on this side.

CARSON & GAILE (Kapp 813)

● SOMETHING STUPID (2:07) [Greenwood, BMI—Parks] Ghostly, lilting love-ode could earn spins aplenty for Carson and Gaile. Give it a careful listen.
(B+) CHAPTER ONE (2:44) [Greenwood, BMI—Parks] Light, buoyant rock ditty on the flip.

GEORGE CARLIN (RCA Victor 9110)

● AL SLEET, YOUR HIPPI-DIPPY WEATHERMAN (2:54) Zany, amusing comedy talker could shake its way to the head of the charts. Scan it.
(B+) AL SLEET, YOUR HIPPI-DIPPY WEATHERMAN (2:54) Continuation of the flip on this side.

5 X 5 (Paula 261)

● SHAKE A TAIL FEATHER (2:10) [Vapac, BMI—Hayes, Williams, Rice] Fast, danceable rock outing should have an easy time conquering the airwaves. Eye it with care.
No information available on the flip side at this time.

RAY BARRETTO (United Artists 50130)

● HAWAII (2:52) [United Artists, ASCAP—Bernstein, David] Brassy, spirited instrumental from the motion picture, "Hawaii." Could go all the way for Ray Barretto.
(B+) DESCARGA CRIOLLA (4:15) [Unart, BMI—Barretto] Rousing Latin-flavored ditty on the back.

PALM BEACH SAND BOYS (RCA Victor 9141)

● THE OBJECT OF MY AFFECTION (2:04) [Bourne, ASCAP—Tomlin, Poe, Grier] Perky, rhythmic updating of this oldie could pull in a healthy amount of sales action for the Palm Beach Sand Boys. Keep tabs on it.
(B+) STRANGERS IN THE NIGHT (2:33) [Champion, Roosevelt, BMI—Singleton, Snyder, Kaempfert] Speeded-up version of Frank Sinatra's short-while-back hit.

Best Bets

GIA MATEO (RCA Victor 9138)

● IF YOU CAN'T SAY ANYTHING NICE (2:00) [Vanno, Emily, ASCAP—Vance, Pockriss] Sad but swinging finger-snapper could make a lot of sales noise for this deck. Stay on it.
(B+) JUANITO (2:13) [Vanno, Emily, ASCAP—Vance, Pockriss] Poignant, building love-effort on the back.

PETE FOUNTAIN (Coral 62516)

● THOROUGHLY MODERN MILLIE (1:57) [Northern, ASCAP—Cahn, Van Heusen] Sprightly instrumental treatment of the title song from the Universal flick, "Thoroughly Modern Millie." Could do good things for clarinetist Pete Fountain.
(B+) JIMMY (2:13) [Northern, ASCAP—Thompson] Shuffling, nocturnal instrumental, also from "Thoroughly Modern Millie."

TIM BUCKLEY (Elektra 45612)

● AREN'T YOU THE GIRL (2:01) [Third Story, BMI—Buckley] Forceful, fast-moving folk-rocker could go all the way for Tim Buckley. Deserves close watching.
(B+) STRANGE STREET AFFAIR UNDER BLUE (3:10) [Third Story, BMI—Beckett, Buckley] Poignant, feelingful romancer over here.

THOMAS GROUP (Dunhill 4062)

● I'VE GOT NO MORE TO SAY (2:33) [Trousedale, BMI—Sloan, Barri] Solid, hard-driving knee-slapper could go all the way for the Thomas Group. Deserves attention.
(B+) THEN IT BEGINS (2:29) [Trousedale, BMI—Sloan, Barri] Tuneful, brisk-moving melody-rocker over here.

HANGMEN (Monument 983)

● DREAM BABY (2:25) [Combine, BMI—Walker] Dreamy vocal is backed by a steady, thumping beat on this one. Could go places for the Hangmen.
(B+) LET IT BE ME (3:05) [Remick, ASCAP—Wrubel, Dixon] Soft, gentle ballad on the back.

FLOWER CHILDREN (Castil 101)

● MINI-SKIRT BLUES (2:05) [Castil-Shindig, BMI—Belden, Stoke, Starr] Shouting, dramatic rocker might prove to be a chart entry for the Flower Children. Eye it with care.
(B+) MARCHING LOVERS (2:15) [Ware-down, ASCAP—Downey, Ware] Groovy, free-swinging toe-tapper over here.

INCREDIBLES (Audio Arts 60,006)

● THERE'S NOTHING ELSE TO SAY (2:20) [Madelon, BMI—George, Jones] Stomping, soul-filled rock venture could shoot this deck to the top of the charts. Keep tabs.
(B+) ANOTHER DIRTY DEAL (2:25) [Madelon, BMI—Waymon] Bouncy but mournful toe-tapper on this side.

JOHN FRED AND HIS PLAYBOY BAND (Paula 259)

● UP AND DOWN (2:25) [Suma, BMI—Fred, Bernard] Funky, pulsating foot-stomper with a steady beat. Could be a winner for John Fred and his Playboy Band.
(B+) WIND UP DOLL (2:40) [Vetter, BMI—Vetter, Fred] More of the same over here.

PETER NERO (RCA Victor 9125)

● THEME FROM 'THE QUILLER MEMORANDUM' (2:08) [Miller, ASCAP—Barry] Lushly ork'd instrumental theme from the flick, "The Quiller Memorandum," could do things for pianist Peter Nero. Scan it.
(B+) AMY'S THEME (2:15) [Faithful Virtue, BMI—Sebastian] Solid, steady instrumental from the movie, "You're A Big Boy Now."

BILLY BAXTER (ABC 10899)

● THE VOLUNTEER FIRE-MAN'S ASSOCIATION OF SOUTH TUCKAHOE FALLS (2:12) [South Mountain, BMI—Meshel, Barbaris] Brisk-moving, 1920's-flavored swinger could make a lot of noise for this deck. Watch it go.
(B+) WHAT'CA GONNA DO (2:10) [Fling, Dayshel, BMI—Lambert, Courtney, Levinson] Light-hearted love ditty on the flip side.

STEPHEN SARGENT & PRIDE (Compass 7001)

● NOBODY'S CHILD (1:45) [Mills, ASCAP—Kiley] Solid, hard-driving rock venture might well prove to be a noisemaker for Stephen Sargent & the Pride. Don't take your eye off it.
(B+) GREY EYES WATCHING (2:27) [Mills, ASCAP—Blodgett] Thumping, full-harmonied toe-tapper on the back.

LA VERN BAKER (Brunswick 55311)

● WRAPPED, TIED, AND TANGLED (1:58) [Jalynne & BMC, BMI—Tarleton] Potent, wailing rocker could grab a solid foothold on the charts. Watch it move.
(B+) NOTHING LIKE BEING IN LOVE (2:00) [Jalynne & BRC, BMI—Tarleton] Insistent, down-to-earth foot-stomper on the flip.

NELSON RIDDLE (Liberty 55952)

● SEE THE CHEETAH (2:31) [Chappell & Co., ASCAP—Shuman] Groovy, spirited instrumental could pull in sales galore for Nelson Riddle. Listen to it carefully.
(B+) THOROUGHLY MODERN MILLIE (2:30) [Northern, ASCAP—Cahn, Van Heusen] Light, happy-go-lucky title song from the Universal film, "Thoroughly Modern Millie."

McGOWAN BOYS (Warner Bros. 7000)

● WHAT YOU WANT AND WHAT YOU GET (2:26) [Jonathan Glenn, Ragmar, BMI—Lapham] Catchy, bittersweet love-ode could garner lots or air play for the McGowan Boys. Stay with it.
(B+) POOR BLUEBIRD (2:14) [Pine Knob, Ragmar, BMI—Lapham] Tuneful, folk-flavored ballad on the flip.

CHRISTOPHER CERF (Amy 977)

● I SAY LOVE (2:20) [Robert Mellin, BMI—Russell, Medley] This hard driving pulsating, foot stomping, wailing venture may prove a big one for Christopher Cerf. Keep close tabs here.
(B+) WATCH YOUR STEP (2:45) [Resistance, Aim, BMI—Cerf] More goodies from the same bag over here.

SHOTGUN EXPRESS (Uptown 747)

● I COULD FEEL THE WHOLE WORLD TURN ROUND (3:07) [Gunnel, BMI—Colton, Smith] Strong, thumping, lyrical sounds offered here by the Shotgun Express. Keep close tabs on this one, it might rise quickly.
(B+) CURTAINS (2:17) [Gunnel, BMI—Bardens] More of the same over here.

NEW YORK:

Epic has come out with the 1967 San Remo Festival album and should move a lot of pieces on the cover alone. The set features 12-tunes from the festival as performed by various artists.

Caterina Valente opens at the Eden Roc in Miami Beach for a 3-week gig this week. . . . Errol Garner flew to Mexico after his recent Carnegie Hall concert. . . . Herb Alpert and the TJB have been set for a series of three one night concerts in Vancouver, B.C. (at the Forum), Portland, Ore. (at the Coliseum), and in Seattle, Wash. (at the Coliseum). They will finish this unit, the Doors, opens at Ondine this week. The Doors are represented by a single "Break On Through," and an LP called "The Doors."

WIBG-Philadelphia was very helpful in breaking the ABC album, "A Man And His Soul," in the Quaker City area.

Sadler and Young dropped by with Roy Battchio to show us their latest package, "On The Move." The well traveled duo will return to the Persian Room at the Plaza some time in Sept. or Oct.

Peter, Paul and Mary are set for a pair of Carnegie Hall concerts. They have just returned from a concert tour of Japan.

hairs" do in these troubled times when human rights aren't quite what they used to be.

We went to hear them sing in a funky little basement off Lookout Mountain Avenue, which houses a large percentage of the Hollywood folk community. Gene Clark was living next door at the time . . . further up the hill were Papa Denny, Jim McGuinn and Judy Henske, and further down was Scotch Hamish who was playing his bagpipes nightly in the Troubadour.

They gave us three or four songs, and their harmonies were soft and rhythmic, and their faces were tense and taut, not with nerves of insecurity,

It's on LHI and chances are she'll soon be cutting disks instead of hair—at her convenience. Lynn stands 5'5" and weighs in at 121. She has green eyes and reddish-blonde hair and she's lovely.

Ray Chafin, Tower Records recording-composing talent, has joined Don Kenneth Prod. as Associate, heading the talent division. . . . Johnny Tillotson's next MGM single and LP both tentatively titled "Here I Am"—and here he was last week for a quick tour of the stations and local dates. . . . Aretha Franklin's first Atlantic LP, "I Never Loved A Man The Way I Love You," was released this week. The set reportedly has advance orders of over 200,000 pieces, coming hard on the heels of her single of the same title. . . . Arthur Conely's recording of "Sweet Soul Music," produced by Otis Redding, is turning into a "smash hit for Atco," according to Bob Kornheiser.

Venturing into the relatively uncharted fields of "joke rock," the Hardly-Worthit Players have come out with their second LP. It's called "Boston Soul."

Beverley is our East Coast Girl of the Week this week. She is a Londoner and records for Deram. Her big English deck is "Happy New Year," which was produced by Denny Cordell in association with TRO—the Essex Music Group in London.

Lee Pincus stopped by to info that Gil-Pincus current decks include: "World Of Clowns," Robert Goulet on Columbia; "Have You Seen The One I Love Go By," Jerry Vale on Columbia; "Goodbye Young Dreams," Diann Carroll on Columbia; and "And My Heart Cried," Peppino Di Capri on Regalia. Soon-to-be-released ditties from the pubbery are: "Pineapple Market," Billy Vaughn and Ork on Dot; "A Little Ray Of Sunshine," the Doodletown Pipers on Epic; and a lovely waxing of "Si, Si Señor" by jazz songstress Roberta Peck on Columbia.

Roberta Peck is currently playing the Rainbow Grill with Red Norvo.

Command's Lanny Lee stopped up to the Ramblings office to spread the word about his "Brass Impact" charge. The LP is, according to the promo man, getting played all over.

The Young Rascals have been chosen by WOR-FM, the city's latest entry into the pop radio format, to tape the first in a series of live concerts to be presented on the outlet. The group will face the mikes at the Scene (Steve Paul's W. 44th St. nitery) on the night of Mar. 14th. Emcee chores will be handled by the station's Murray the K. Final over-the-air presentation will result in a full hour of Rascal music.

The scene is currently hosting Spanky and Our Gang and Canada's the Mandala. The Mandala is from the Toronto area. Eric Anderson will play the club from Mar. 20th to Apr. 1st.

Lester Collins notes that he has the "If You Will Just Come Back To Me" track from Marilyn Maye's "A Taste Of Sherry" album.

Elektra's crack west coast rock

Larry Coryell, lead guitarist of the Free Spirits, is the guitarist on the new Chico Hamilton LP "The Dealer." Richard Davis, Archie Shepp, Ernie Hayes, and Arnie Lawrence are also on the set.

Al Cecere brought the Angry Men into New York from Rochester for recording dates. While here Al mentioned that Terry Pilitere is currently getting new material ready and will record it soon.

Pat Costello, formerly of the Kapp Records organization, has taken a position as administrative assistant to Rick Bolsom of the Michael Goldstein publicity and public relations outfit.

Fred Weintraub, founder and proprietor of the Bitter End, has created a pamphlet detailing his suggested steps for starting & running a coffee house. The instructions have been put to good use by several major colleges and universities.

Ron Weisner called to mention the following decks as being among his fastest moving items: "Baby's On His Way," the Razor's Edge on Pow; "Walkin' Together," Bobby March on Original Sound; and "Post Card From Jamaica," Sopwith Camel on Kama Sutra. Besides the Janis Ian LP, Ron's best moving platters in New York are "Good Goodness" by Johnny Nash and "More" by Erroll Garner.

HOLLYWOOD:

The list of bright but forgotten commentators, devoted to the consideration of the jazz age, has dwindled. And a new breed of contemporary artisans, dedicated to today, is the replacement. Some of their finest efforts, not surprisingly, are to be found on LP liners which are, occasionally, more inspired than the "notes" inside. NARAS calls them "annotators" but, more often, they are poets of musical thought pounding out emotions of tranquility and perception with touch type. Then too, though not as often, there's a flicker of art in the flack handouts—the promotional tales of new groups, acts and songbirds. Not usually do we borrow this column from ourselves. But a superior slice of copy concerning a new vocal foursome arrived this week from a brilliant young Britain, a writer-producer named Andy Wickham. We do not have space to reprint all. Here, at least, is a sampling of his intro to the Lamp of Childhood: "We found them in a grocer's store on a Tuesday afternoon. There were only three of them then, and it was late summer, and the canyons were green and the girls were golden and we exchanged smiles and handshakes immediately, as "long ties, but with that special brand of concentration that comes with unrecognized talent and unpaid electricity bills. And while tea was being served in that little basement by an apple cheeked English girl called Vanessa, The Lamp of Childhood got themselves a recording contract with Dunhill Records.

The first session was disastrous. James, Mick and Fred did the singing; a rotund, top-hatted Dickensian called Billy Mundi played drums and a mournful little engineer called Sydney talked nineteen to the dozen between takes about a psychedelic group he was recording, about the pop scene in San Jose, about the divorce he was going through with his wife and about the dream girl he was looking for.

And so the following day we blended back into the Canyon whence we came and started all over again. Rehearsing. Vanessa would make curries and strange, exotic dishes; James would provide the stimulants; Fred would bring buckets of fish and chips for the cat . . . and everybody listened, argued, agreed, fought, smiled and encouraged each other, out of which came "First Time, Last Time."

We were going to call them the "Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" until William Rogers, salesman for ABC Records, and a man usually concerned with dollars and distributors, lowered his spectacles and revealed his literary inner self by informing us that the horsemen in question represented war, famine, pestilence and death. And so we christened them "The Lamp of Childhood," four words from a song by Richard Farina who represented, in spirit if not in musical belief, all that The Lamp of Childhood stands for. "First Time, Last Time" is the single, and album is coming in April, Dunhill is smiling and good things are in the air." And on paper. . . . Again, as last year, the west coast has accounted for more than 70% of the pop Grammy awards. But, unlike last year, a growing awareness of the contemporary. A year back we noted in this space—"Grammy's indifference to the Beatles does not diminish their luminous slot in the infinite meadows of contemporary heaven—it merely reflects upon a 'where it's at' education among NARAS' voting members." 1967 is the happening year. . . . Our "West Coast Girl of the Week," born in Flatbush and now living in L.A., is a lady barber. Now it seems that Lynn Castle likes to sing and what better place to sing than in a barber shop on La Cienega Blvd.? The word got around and Lee Hazlewood heard of her and heard her and before long Lynn had recorded a song (she also wrote) titled "The Lady Barber."

racks—"You Must Believe Me." . . . Sergio Mendez named by the University of Rio de Janeiro as "The Music Man of the Year for 1966," a presentation given annually to a personality who advances South American Music throughout the world. . . . Epic has the "jump" with the first instrumental Song Book of Monkees hits featuring Stu Phillips' Golden Gate Strings, a local LP "bustout".

CHICAGO:

Staff Sergeant Barry Sadler made one of his final appearances in Green Beret uniform, when he guested on the American Swingaround TV'er (WBKB), performing, among others, his famed "Ballad Of The Green Berets" (RCA). Sadler is scheduled to be discharged in early Spring. . . . Local lark Harriette Blake took time from her busy nitery schedule to wax a new single, coupling "Why Don't You Believe Me" with "Love Me With All Your Heart" (Crystal). . . . Personality Productions' Jean Bennett longdistanced word that The Platters, who have another biggie in "With This Ring" (Musicor), will follow their tour of military bases in Germany and France with a 2-weeker at the Hotel Central in Canada. . . . Last Friday was moving day at Topper's Record Town, one of the foremost c&w record outlets in this area. New location is at 4637 N. Broadway. . . . Boots Randolph and his Yakety Sax had local trade buffs in a toe-tapping mood during the Monument star's recent soiree in the Playboy Club here. Label prexy Fred Foster, local distrib Jimmy Martin and midwest promo rep Bob Rudolph hosted the affair. . . . Mitch Miller is sitting in for vacationing Wally Phillips (3-18) on the latter's daily WGN show. . . . The Ramsey Lewis Trio did a one-nighter at the Bramble Bush in Arlington Heights (6). . . . Sentar's red hot New Colony Six intro'd their new disk on the Art Robert's "Swingin' Majority" show. Group's current chartrider is "Love You So Much." Incidentally, diskery's Joel Arner is passin' out erasers to us folks who continually mis-spell Sentar with a "C". (Sorry about that!). . . . Here's word from Russ Robbins, of Directors Corp. management firm in Milwaukee, that one of his groups, The Baroquees, signed a Chess pact. Initial session gets underway this week. . . . Our condolences to WIND's Bruce Lee, on the death of his 10 yr. old daughter Theresa Renee, a victim of leukemia. . . . Danny O'Neil, whose on-camera career dates back to the early days of Chicago television, has been named host of ABC-TV's new daytime program "One In A Million."

Gernhard Giving South Pop Music Emphasis

NEW YORK—A pop music-oriented music company in the South has been established by Phil Gernhard, producer of the smash novelty, "Snoopy Vs. The Red Baron," and its hit sequel, "Return Of The Red Baron."

Raised in Sarasota, Florida, Gernhard, who received his B.S. in economics at the University of Tampa and is completing his final year at Stetson College of Law in St. Petersburg, says that the great emphasis in the South on the country sound has resulted in an "extreme paucity" of outlets for pop talent and writers.

Gernhard has opened a full-time office while still in college, Gernhard Enterprises, in downtown St. Petersburg devoted completely to the pop music field. Assisting him are a gal Friday and the head of the talent management division of the Gernhard firm, Charles Troxell, who handles the Royal Guardsmen as well as a local performing group, Noah's Ark.

In 1961 he both published and produced the hit "Stay" by Maurice Williams on the now-defunct Herald label, and the copyright has since been recorded by the Dave Clark Five, The Four Seasons, etc., and in 1966 Phil published the hit "Double Shot (of My Baby's Love)" by the Swinging Medallions on the Smash label.

Gernhard's publishing division, Sanphil Music (BMI) has signed two exclusive writers: Dick Holler who co-wrote "Snoopy vs. the Red Baron" with Phil, and also John McCullough who, in conjunction with his brother James and Phil Gernhard, wrote "The Return Of The Red Baron." The phenomenally-successful "Snoopy vs. The Red Baron" and its sequel were inspired by the dream sequence in the syndicated Snoopy cartoon series and also by the release of the popular movie "The Blue Max."

Gernhard Enterprises is located at 6747 First Avenue South, St. Petersburg, Florida.

'Charlie' A Hit, So MGM Cuts It Again

NEW YORK—MGM Records was set to cut the original cast LP last Fri. and Sat. of the new Off-Broadway hit, "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown." Step is unusual since the label's King Leo offering of the same name inspired the production. However, the "live" cast is different and more music and lyrics by Clark Gesner have been added. The label expects to have the casters available within two weeks. In the early 50's, a Columbia Records' re-creation of the "Pal Joey" score led to a smash revival on Broadway. However, since the Columbia disk starred the pair who did the Broadway version (Vivienne Segal and Harold Lang), no new recording was felt necessary. MGM's 'Charlie' is being produced by Bob Morgan, exec A&R director, and Herb Galewitz, A&R producer.

Vanguard Names Nat. Sales Rep.

NEW YORK—Vanguard Records has just announced the appointment of Harold Lewis as national sales representative. Lewis, whose appointment is effective immediately, will visit dealers and distributors across the country.

Lewis began his career in the retail end of the record industry in 1944 with the Elaine Music Shop and gradually moved into the distribution side of the field. He has managed Record Producers, Inc., and was for 15 years a partner and manager of Stanley-Lewis Record Distributing Company of New York.

NARA Intensifies School 'Drop-Out' Drive

NEW YORK—An intensified drive for greater radio participation in a school drop-out campaign is being undertaken by NARA, the disk jockey association, which has taken on the music industry aspects of the drive.

The association will sponsor a 2-day seminar in Washington, D.C. later this month or early April to "kick ideas" around and obtain an "average reading" of deejays as to guidelines, programs and presentations that can aid the program. Through the offices of Vice President Humphrey, the Government has enlisted the aid of NARA in the vital area of drop-outs, which can soon reach "frightening" proportions, according to Jon Massey of the Vice President's offices, who is working with NARA on the project.

One of the objectives of the new program, notes Del Shields, NARA vp, is to get the drop-out drive "out of the bland area of radio participation" into prime-time slots.

In line with this, 500 NARA deejay members will be receiving a brief taped message from Vice President Humphrey thanking them and their stations for cooperating in the program. "You have my personal thanks," the Vice President speaks, "and that of President Johnson for helping us to develop 'Brain Power' for America . . . because, that's where the action is!" NARA hopes there will be widespread station exposure of this message.

Massey looks for saturation of all deejays, NARA members or not, to "get the deejay involved so that he will bring up the drop-out matter whether logged or not."

NARA feels the coming months are crucial, since it's vital to point out to teenagers that "vacation time is great, but you must go back to school."

James Brown, the artist, has been active in the campaign. His portrait adorns a "Don't Be A Drop Out" button. At concerts and radio appearances, Brown brings up the subject to his audience.

While the Drop Out campaign falls under the general anti-poverty program of the Government, monies have yet to be appropriated for this purpose. Massey indicated that funds may be soon made available.

Monkees Get Gold Record For Newly-Issued Single

NEW YORK—RCA Victor Records has just announced that the Monkees have again been awarded a gold record simultaneous with the release of their new Colgems single, "A Little Bit Me, A Little Bit You," b/w "The Girl I Knew Somewhere." The single had orders in excess of 1.5 million copies at the time of its release and was immediately audited and certified by the RIAA.

"A Little Bit Me, A Little Bit You," is a Neil Diamond song, produced and arranged by Jeff Barry under the music supervision of Don Kirshner, President of Colgems. "The Girl I Knew Somewhere" was written by Monkee Mike Nesmith and produced by Douglas Farthing Hatlelid. RCA Victor Records manufactures and distributes for the Colgems label.

The new single is a follow-up to the Monkees most recent hit single, "I'm A Believer," which sold in excess of three million copies in the U.S. alone. Their first two Colgems albums, "The Monkees," and "More Of The Monkees," still topping the best selling charts, have each sold some three million copies domestically. In just six months, since the release of their first single, "Last Train To Clarksville" (released August 16, 1966) the Monkees have sold over six million albums and nearly six million singles in the U.S.

Les Ledo Signs With Acuff-Rose

NEW YORK—Les Ledo, writer of "Cotton Candy," a major hit for Al Hirt several seasons ago, has signed an exclusive songwriting contract with Acuff-Rose Publications.

Ledo has been a recording artist with Laurie Records under the name of Russ Damon.

A number of Ledo's recent compositions, not previously assigned to any publisher, have been turned over to Acuff-Rose, and the writer is currently completing work on several new tunes.

Burton Dinner Drive Moves Into Homestretch

NEW YORK—The dinner campaign launched recently by the group known as The Friends of Robert J. Burton, aimed at raising $100,000 for the establishment of a fellowship in copyright law at Columbia University, entered its final stages this week with reports indicating that the drive will go over the top. According to Morris Levy, president of Roulette Records and committee chairman for the Burton dinner, an additional 22 tables were sold during the week to increase the aggregate fund by $11,000.

The dinner, net proceeds from which will go to the Columbia fund, will be held on Tuesday (21) in the Imperial Ballroom of the Hotel Americana, New York. Subscriptions are $50 per plate and $500 for a table of 10.

Levy also announced that both Tito Puente and his Latin band and Tommy James and the Shondells will be on hand to round out the entertainment picture. These groups will alternate on the stand with Count Basie and his big band.

The Friends of Robert J. Burton organized a campaign late last year to establish a fellowship in memory of the late president of Broadcast Music Inc. and well-known specialist in copyright law. A goal of $100,000 was set to permit the installation of a self-perpetuating fund, based on the annual interest realized. A sizeable portion of the sum was raised during the initial stages of the drive through private solicitation, and the dinner was set in motion with the purpose of netting the balance needed to bring the grand total to $100,000. Of the balance remaining after the initial gifts, Levy said, about two-thirds has now been pledged in the form of subscriptions for tables.

The current goal is to sell 1,000 seats at $50 each. This will permit a net gift after expenses of between $35,000 and $40,000 to the Burton fund. Among the new subscribers this week is New York's Radio station WNEW, which has taken a full table. Other stations are expected in the fold shortly. In addition, Levy said that participation is being obtained from many segments of the industry.

The Burton dinner committee is comprised of, in addition to Levy, Barney Ales, Bob Austin, Hal Cook, Halsey Cowan, Joe D'Imperio, Harry Fox, Bill Gallagher, Walter Hofer, Buddy Howe, Phil Kahl, Don Kirshner, Mort Nasitir, Larry Newton, Marty Ostrow, Howie Richmond, Marty Roemer, George Schiffer, Charlie Schlang, and Mike Stewart.

Willie Smith Dies

LOS ANGELES—Willie Smith, one of the outstanding saxophonists of the big band era of the nineteen-thirties and forties, died here on March 7. He was 58 years old.

Many critics considered Willie Smith one of the greatest alto sax men of the nineteen-thirties, with Johnny Hodges and Benny Carter.

William McLeish Smith was born in Charleston, S.C., on Nov. 25, 1908. After studying the clarinet when he was 10, he switched to saxophone. While attending Fisk University in Nashville he joined the Jimmie Lunceford band, which was formed at Fisk.

From 1930 to 1941 Smith played, sang and did arrangements for the Lunceford band. After a brief stint with Charley Spivak in 1942, he entered the Navy. He headed the jazz group that played at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

Smith won the Esquire Armed Services Award in 1945.

After his discharge from the Navy, he joined the Harry James band. In 1952, he moved to the Billy May band, then toured with Jazz at the Philharmonic. In recent years he lived in California and played with the Harry James band.

His playing is heard on many recordings, including "Jazz At The Philharmonic," "The Jazz Scene," several Harry James albums and "Jam Session."

Atlantic Doubles Jan.—Feb. Sales

NEW YORK — Atlantic-Atco Records, after concluding 1966 as what it terms the most successful year in its history, is now reportedly setting new sales marks for 1967. Jan. and Feb. sales figures are already double the same period last year, claims the label.

Single sales for Atlantic-Atco in 1967 were sparked by Aretha Franklin's smash hit, "I Never Loved A Man The Way I Love You." Other noisemakers on Atlantic-Atco, Stax, Volt, Dial and Fame labels during 1967 were Sonny & Cher's "The Beat Goes On"; the Young Rascals' "Lonely Too Long"; Wilson Pickett's "Everybody Needs Somebody To Love"; the Buffalo Springfield's "For What It's Worth"; Bobby Darin's "Lovin' You"; Percy Sledge's "Baby Help Me"; Joe Tex's "Show Me"; Eddie Floyd's "Raise Your Hand"; Jimmy Hughes' "Why Not Tonight"; Arthur Conley's "Sweet Soul Music"; and Sam & Dave's "When Something Is Wrong With My Baby."

On the album front, Atlantic-Atco also scored heavy sales. LP's include the Young Rascals' "Collections"; Wilson Pickett's "The Exciting Wilson Pickett" and "The Wicked Pickett"; Otis Redding's "Dictionary Of Soul" and "The Soul Album"; the Buffalo Springfield LP; Bobby Darin's "If I Were A Carpenter"; "Solid Gold Soul—Vol. II"; and Sam & Dave's "Hold On I'm Comin'."

One of the strongest of the new LP releases on Atco in Feb. was Sonny & Cher's "In Case You're In Love." Other new LP's include the original soundtrack from the film "The Game Is Over"; Herbie Mann's "Impressions Of The Middle East"; Charles Lloyd's "Forest Flower"; Jack McDuff's "Tobacco Road"; Nat Adderly's "Live At Memory Lane"; Roland Kirk's "Here Comes The Whistleman"; Sonny Stitt's "Deuces Wild"; and Hank Crawford's "Mr. Blues."

Coast Meet For WB East

NEW YORK—The east coast staff of Warner Bros. Records leaves this week (16) for a weekend of promo meetings with company officials in Burbank, Calif. Leaving are George Lee, eastern WB head, Jerry Rago-voy, A&R head in the east, Ron Moseley, national promo for Loma, and Carl Deane, eastern promo rep.

Wild Visit

Larry Page came into New York on a search for new song material and to push his debut single release as an instrumental artist, "Waltzing To Jazz," on Calla. Shown from the left are: Dave Rosner, professional manager at April/Blackwood; Larry Page; Chip Taylor, writer of "Wild Thing" and "Any Way That You Want Me"; and Jerry Shifrin, vice president of Calla Records.

ple up for you to get the next Ray Charles, Frank Sinatra or Nancy Wilson, there has got to be some sharing of responsibility and some necessary developmental expenditures on your part. I therefore call upon you to get out of the order-taking business and make yourselves a part of the record business. We don't want to have to fight you for accounts. We want to rely upon you as an important, vital and essential link in the distribution chain to the consumer. I ask you to accept the fact that it is in your interests as well as ours to work, build, develop and grow together.

Recruitment Program

I have talked of price flexibility and variation, purchasing habits and catalog representation and also research and development work. Now, I want to mention some other vital elements of a strong operation that would be beneficial for you and the industry. The first concerns personnel. I would like to suggest that perhaps under the auspices of NARM, in addition to your scholarship program, you undertake a college recruitment program and bring into your businesses some of those bright and enthusiastic young people who, in increasingly large numbers yearly, are graduating from this country's colleges and universities. Liberal arts majors who have that special interest in, and feel for, music; business administration majors, who have been exposed to some of the newest and most modern of business concepts; and those special few who can successfully combine both the creative and the business instincts. You need people with an interest in the record business, not just in a job—people who can be exposed to learning in important areas like product understanding, the most crucial part of the service you can provide to retailers. And if you don't know how to go about working with the colleges to recruit these people, ask for our help because that's a major source of our recruitment and talent. In addition, most manufacturers have facts and information from market research studies that can provide you with sophisticated business tools. Much of this isn't confidential but tools useful to all.

Record Centers

Next, instead of running frantically for more and more accounts spreading yourself painfully thin, why isn't more work being done to develop existing locations to become individual record centers. It is just passe to think of records only as traffic builders. At present there may be a space problem but a study should be made of your locations. Perhaps retain an independent consultant to see how feasible it is to build them into record centers where a consumer will go, knowing he'll be able to get the record he wants, not just the one he happens to spot while passing from the show department to lamps. Often when you expand you do more than just double your sales per square inch. You draw in more consumers by exposing a greater variety of product and attract record buyers not merely shoppers who buy an occasional record.

My third suggestion follows a standard business principle that deems it wise to take some of the profits you've earned and put them back to work for you. I urge you to follow that simple basic principle. Put those profits back into streamlining your business. Invest in computers for inventory control and necessary reports. Retain management consultants to help you in cost reduction projects and finally recognize that there are many advantages obtained from advertising and promotion that are far more beneficial than price reductions. Manufacturers and retailers of other industries don't invest in advertising campaigns because they have no other use for their earned money. Taking an ad should pay for itself. It isn't wasted money. The ad should bring its own return on the investment made for it. Usually that investment can bring greater returns than if you pocketed the sum. Motivating consumers by making local merchandising and advertising an extension of national programs is an aggressive way to put the massive efforts of the manufacturer to work for you. For example, have you thought about mail order for yourselves? There are lots of ways to reach consumers and it's worthwhile to investigate all of them. Certainly you want to motivate people to go to the stores but you also want to enable them to buy records if they want to stay at home. This is still, fortunately, a nation of individualists and for a variety of reasons there are many people who just don't like to buy records in retail outlets. Many also don't want to become members of record clubs either and commit themselves to extended purchases. Well, how do you intend to reach them? Mail order coupons or direct mail solicitation is certainly one solution. Retail accounts do it in increasing numbers. Korvette's, one of the leading advertisers who hopes to attract in-store customers, has now geared up to do it. What about you and your accounts? Evaluate facilities. Evaluate the cost of fulfillment. Evaluate the proposed return on investment. Obviously, the advertising cost itself remains the same whether you have a mail order coupon in it or not.

The consumer still gets the same message from the ad but this time you not only might attract him to the store but you can get the captive audience direct from the home. The actual dollar business you obtain via the coupon is all plus business only offset by the cost of fulfillment. Look what's happened in all department store advertising. They used to concentrate only to attract consumers to their stores. But now they know that they want to get all customers—including the stay at home ones. Sure, ideally, they would want everyone in their store for impulse purchasing but that's unrealistic. Today consumers can also phone orders for advertised items into Macy's and Gimbels. These stores wouldn't be doing this if it were not profitable. You should not allow yourselves to lose out any more by refusing to attune yourselves to modern merchandising techniques. They are not beyond you, and your horizons can't be unlimited without them. Some of you have tried it. I know it's working and I urge all of you to do more of it.

Tape Cartridges: Caution

Time is growing short but there is another vital subject I would like to mention here concerning the record business—and I stress the word "record." There have been, I believe, endless exaggerated and uninformed predictions about the future of tape. These have been harmful and have already caused some business reverses. At the last NARM convention when so many enthusiastic and overly zealous non-record people were talking of the gold mine around the corner, I urged caution. I still urge caution. Not that there isn't a market here. Not that an increasing amount of business won't be done. But there aren't gold in them there hills yet and no amount of claims or concentrated headlines in certain trade papers will put them there. There is room for new products in our business and this includes tape cartridges—but no revolution is going to occur. If it grows, it will grow at a steady—not a frantic—pace. There will be no bandwagon to join. The reason is that our basic product—the disk—is too good and has too many inherent advantages for it to be seriously infringed upon. With all this publicity, the public might be confused about the future of the disc. Let me emphasize to one and all that the disk—although it might look strikingly similar to the one that came out almost two decades ago—is strikingly different. The quality is excellent. From the point of view of fidelity of dynamic range and background noise, the disk is unchallenged and, most significantly, the economics permit a tremendous bargain to the consumer. Gentlemen, the record business is here to stay. True tape will grow and we should all be there for the revenue it will bring in but the disc will continue to be the heart of the future of the recording industry.

Speaking of the future, one important observation. We have to recognize that the state of our society today—increasingly affluent, educated, interested in the arts, more worldly in general—presents us not only with tremendous opportunities, but with large responsibilities. I think you, with a major stake in the record industry, have an obligation to make it possible for us to continue with recordings of classical music, or works by new composers whose music it's our responsibility to expose. Further, the country is becoming increasingly record conscious—receptive to recordings as a medium not only for popular entertainment and classical music but for education, instruction and information as well. Manufacturers have a role to play here and some have a vision of and entirely expanded concept in these vital areas—languages, documentaries, news and history. I believe you should become associated with their efforts in this direction. We haven't even begun to tap the full exciting potential in recordings. It is world-wide in influence and awareness. It is not only in major cities or advanced countries. When Bobby Kennedy made his trip to Africa some months ago, he wrote afterwards about making a gift to an important African Chieftain and what do you think that gift was? It was a record player plus some records of President Kennedy's speeches. The influential Chief was especially moved by President Kennedy's speeches on civil rights and Senator Kennedy pointed out the tremendous effect the record had on this man. This is but one example of the far reaching influences of our product. We should not take our many, varied contributions for granted. We must have a concern about the role we play in the use of our records and we all must increase our efforts in this area.

'Spirit Of Cooperation'

Finally, I want to say something about your theme and the horizons we can anticipate for the future. The average annual growth rate for the record industry from 1967-1970 is expected, at the minimum, to be 7%; from 1971-1975, 6%. The yearly growth rate at the maximum, however, has been predicted at 15%. The theme of this year's convention has meaning only in terms of maximum growth. It will involve more cooperation and fewer antagonisms; more meaningful exchanges and fewer familiar diatribes; more willingness to change and less resistance to progress. What has happened at these conventions in the past few years is greatly encouraging; the more sober tone, the seminars, the instructional purposes are more and more evident, leading to the hope that there is much to accomplish here. I have purposely tried to get into specifics today, rather than present abstract policies. I've talked of our goals in terms of real profits—not profitless prosperity—and suggested that this can be accomplished by more realistic pricing, more meaningful catalog representation and sophisticated purchasing techniques, better servicing of accounts, modern hiring techniques and above all a new dedication to trying different practices involving some experimentation whether it be pricing, mail-order or something else that you will think of. Only by innovation, experimentation and modernization can our goals be reached. Indeed, your past is not your future. With a new spirit of cooperation between us, we have a real basis for setting our sights beyond the maximum predictions for this decade and on the possibilities which can truly be unlimited in the years ahead.

4 NARM Scholarships Awarded At Confab

HOLLYWOOD—Four scholarships of $1000 each were awarded to children of employees of regular and associate members of NARM at an awards luncheon on Wednesday (8).

The awards enable the students to study in a school of their choice for careers in music or related music industry functions.

The winners included Barbara Brenner, daughter of a J. L. Marsh employee; Michael Wong, son of an electronic data processing employee at Calextron; Gregory Rasmusin, son of a machine operator at Amberg File Co. and the son of a press operator at Columbia Records. The scholarships were given in the memories of Harry Schwartz, and Ike Clayman. Pickwick International also sponsored an award. A Walt Disney scholarship will go through NARM, thanks to the sale of the recently-issued LP from Disneyland Records containing music associated with films produced by the late showman.

Banner Head For NARM

HOLLYWOOD—"L.A. WELCOMES NARM" read the banner headline in the March 6, edition of the Los Angeles Times. Actually, it was a dummy copy of the paper—although regular stories appeared along with the NARM headline. Jack Schnyder of the merchandising dept. of Capitol Records arranged for this special copy of the paper to be handed out at the Century Plaza Hotel. About 1000 copies were made-up for delivery on Monday morning (6), the start of the confab.

Schroader To Rep Fowley Pubberies

NEW YORK—Aaron Schroader has made a deal with Kim Fowley, West Coast and London based producer-publisher-writer, to represent administratively the total catalog of Kim Fowley Music and Living Legend Music. Fowley's two U.S.A. credits as a producer have been "Popsicles And Icicles," by the Murmaids, and "Alley Oop," by the Hollywood Argyles. English artists who have recorded Fowley compositions are the Seekers, Cat Stevens, and Manfred Mann. Living Legend Music has under contract Michel Lloyd, 17-year-old West Coast composer, who is already at work on two motion picture scores. Lloyd has recently designed and built his own 4 track Solid State recording setup, LWG Studios. He is a Tower Records artist in the capacity of leader of the Laughing Wind. Fowley, recently signed by Moe Ostin to Reprise Records, is the only American artist on Parlophone Records. Fowley's staff writers also include Jimmy Greenspoon, Sean McLeod and Buddy Walters. The Fowley group of companies also works closely with writers on a non-exclusive basis and has songs in its catalog by Danny Hutton, the Sunrays, and Paul Revere & the Raiders.

Fowley stated that although administrative inquiries are to be made to Aaron Schroader's main office in New York City and its affiliated offices throughout the world, he is still maintaining offices at 6000 Sunset Boulevard, Hollywood, California. Fowley was brought into the January-Music Corp. fold by David Mook, West Coast professional manager of the January-Music Corp.

It's A Girl For The Friedenbergs

NEW YORK—Dick Friedenberg of the Columbia Record Club's A&R dept. happily reports that his wife gave birth to a girl, Lisa Joy, on Saturday, Feb. 25.

Diamond In Product Deal With Niles, Passman

NEW YORK—Diamond Records has entered into a production deal with Duke Niles and Ray Passman for the release of masters by the folk-rock team known as Joe and Lydia.

Singing duo is composed of Lydia Wood, folk oriented singer-writer, whose songs have been recorded by such artists as Judy Collins and the Serendipity Singers.

Her partner, Joe Spaulding, hails from Chicago and has a rhythm and blues/jazz background.

First record by Joe and Lydia, just released, is "Dance Till Your Shoes Fall Off" b/w "Wait For Your Love," both tunes clefted by Lydia Wood.

MB Records Appoints Ten Distributors

NEW YORK—Miriam Bienstock, MB Records vice president, has reported the appointment of ten distributors with more to come in the near future. The following distributors will be carrying the MB label and its subsidiary, Down East Records: Beta (New York), Schwartz Brothers (Washington, D.C.), Tone Records (Miami), Southland (Atlanta), Dumont (Boston), Roberts (St. Louis), Essex (Newark), F and F (Charlotte), Universal (Philadelphia) and Fenway (Pittsburg).

Mrs. Bienstock also announces that the first release will be Bobby Kline's "Say Something Nice To Me," written by Winfield Scott, on the Down East label. The Kline release will ship March 20.

Capitol M&E Div. In Realignment

HOLLYWOOD — George R. Jones, vice president and head of the Manufacturing & Engineering Division of Capitol Records, has announced the following organizational changes:

Carl S. Nelson, Jr., has been assigned to the newly-created position of director of development engineering. In his new position Nelson will be responsible for the development of advanced sound recording and reproduction techniques and the design of related manufacturing equipment.

William L. Robinson, director of the Hollywood Recording Studio, will assume the position of director of electronic engineering with responsibility for the direction of the electronic engineering department, involving support engineering for recording, quality control and manufacturing.

Peter Dent, A CRI engineering employee since 1951, will become director of recording in Hollywood.

John F. Kraus will replace Dent as night recording supervisor for the Hollywood Recording studio.

Pell Kruttschnitt has been appointed administrative services engineer and will provide administrative services for all engineering and recording locations within the division including the coordination of expense Capitol budget planning and control.

Martin Getzler, a thirteen-year M & E division employee, has been appointed quality control manager and will report to Jones.

Big A Label Formed

NEW YORK — Aubrey Mayhew, president of Little Darlin' Records, has announced the formation of his pop label to be known as Big A. Big A will be distributed both through the new Dot distributing organization and independent distributors. Big A's first artist will be Johnny Paycheck who, although a consistent chart-rider in the C&W field, will be making his debut in the pop field via the new Big A label. Paycheck will now record for both Little Darlin' for the country field and Big A for the pop field.

The artist's first release for Big A will be "Nothing Lasts Forever," published by MusicMusicMusic. Big A will give MusicMusicMusic equal billing on the label beginning with Paycheck's new release. In addition to "Nothing Last Forever's" unique label, the disk will be mailed in a special promotion envelope featuring Johnny Paycheck's photograph prepared by Big A. The single is currently being shipped to deejays throughout the country.

United Producers Group Opens New York Offices

NEW YORK — United Producers Group, a firm dealing exclusively in the placement of masters, has opened offices at 1650 Broadway. According to Frank Lewis, spokesman for the new firm, UPG is a completely new concept in the record business which will be of service to both the independent producer and the record company staffers. By keeping abreast of industry and individual company trends, UPG will be able to evaluate the current needs of each firm, and offer them only the type of masters which they are looking for. This screening process will save time for the A & R men and will ensure the producers the best deal for their product. UPG's first master has already been placed with UA.

Magicians Press First Single

NEW YORK — Garry Bonner and Alan Gordon, song writers under contract to Chardon Music, Koppelman-Rubin's BMI affiliate, now comprise two members of a new group. Known as the Magicians, writers Bonner and Gordon have teamed up with members Steve and Don. Their new record, a Bonner-Gordon composition, is called "Lady Fingers," and will be released on Columbia March 14.

Bonner and Gordon wrote "Happy Together" for the Turtles, which is number 3 on this week's Cash Box Top 100. They also penned the new Gene Pitney record, "Animal Crackers," as well as the next release by the Righteous Brothers.

James Foley, publishing and administrative director at Koppelman-Rubin, reported that the company is preparing for mailing a special presentation folder and other material to introduce the Magicians to program directors and radio personalities across the country.

Chartbuster, C-P Deal

WASHINGTON — Chartbuster Music Corp. has signed a production deal with Cameo Records. Chartbuster will produce the British Walkers for Cameo, and, at the present time, an extensive ad campaign is in progress.

The first recording was released March 6, entitled, "Shake." The effort was produced by Bobby Poe, Vernon Sandusky, and Mitch Corday.

The deal was completed on behalf of Chartbuster Productions by Bobby Poe and Mitch Corday and for Cameo by Neil Bogart.

AFTER THE SESSION—Tony Scotti, who co-stars in "The Valley Of The Dolls," has just completed his first Liberty recording sessions with producer Tommy Oliver. The single "With All My Heart"/"One More Mountain," was viewed in the making by such Liberty execs as: (from the left) Bob Skaff, vice president; Bud Dain, division general manager; and Jack Bratel. Scotti is shown second from the right.

PATTER

Peripatetic newscaster Aaron Edwards has culled several gems for KSFO-San Francisco on his nighttime tours of that city. His on-the-spot reports and interviews are aired on Al Collins' Purple Grotto, eight to midnight. One recent scoop was Edwards' interview of Dr. Paul Goldin, an ESP specialist. The doctor discussed thought transference and methods of digging out seemingly forgotten details from the mind. This information was apparently lost on Edwards, who failed to remember that he parked the KSFO mobile unit in a towaway zone. Disaster was averted when he managed to persuade a policeman to be lenient. The intrepid reporter attended a special stag party hosted by five wealthy bachelors for 300 single men and 300 single ladies. It began at 8:30 p.m. and lasted till dawn at Basin Street West, with two bands, food, drinks and low lights. Despite the distractions present at the affair, Edwards covered the event conscientiously. On his evening sorties he has interviewed Cal Tjador, Dizzy Gillespie, Charlie Byrd, the Jefferson Airplane, singer Sue Raney, and comics Pete Barbutti, Shelley Berman, and Irwin Corey. One of Edwards' noisiest interviews was with the Trio Orfeo and opera singers at the Bocce Ball. The trio of guitarists and vocalists were interviewed inside the KSFO mobile unit. Not only did they talk, but they performed. And even amid the Broadway traffic their music could be heard half a block away. Yes, friends, it's Aaron Edwards, bringing you the contemporary sounds of San Francisco.

PERSUASIVE AND PERCUSSIVE: That's the point that Ted Sommer (l.), veteran drummer and exclusive Solid State artist, is trying to get over to WHN-New York deejay Jim Ameche about the new Solid State album, "Persuasive Mariachi." Sommer performs on the LP which was a recent WHN feature. The label is high on the disk, terming it "one of the biggest in-demand releases in Solid State history."

Newsman Ed Goetze, of WMC-TV-Memphis, has received an award from the Tennessee Conference on Social Welfare for his "creative concern with the troubled world of mentally disturbed children." Moderator of the WMC-TV "Camera 5 Report," Goetze devoted several of his programs to the subject of care for mentally ill children in Memphis.

Radio outlet KATZ-St. Louis and the Greyhound Bus Company is co-sponsoring a stay in school contest in the St. Louis area. Contestants will be asked to complete this statement in 100 words or less: "Dropouts are losers because . . ." There will be two winners, a boy and a girl. They will receive a trip to Jefferson City and a guided tour of the state capitol, a Lincoln Library Encyclopedia, and they will be interviewed on the KATZ program "Teen Scene." The winners will be determined by the board of directors of the St. Louis Educational Assistance Fund. The contest ends March 31.

Jack Angel, host of the KEX-Portland, Ore. Commute Club, is currently broadcasting a series of reports dealing with UFO's. The daily commentary, heard at 6:50 P.M., is voiced by one of the country's UFO authorities, Frank Edwards, author of "Flying Saucers, Serious Business." Commentary has delved into the origin of UFO's, their history and the various sightings which have been reported by scientists and laymen. At their inception, the reports were specially edited cuts from an RCA Victor album recorded by Edwards. However, Jack Angel was able to obtain an exclusive interview with the author, and selected portions of that interview are now being broadcast.

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

Harper's Bizarre

Harper's Bizarre is composed of Ted Templeman, who plays drums, guitar, trumpet and sings; Dickie Scoppettone, guitar; Eddie James, lead guitar; John Petersen, drums; and Dick Yount, bass guitar. Scoppettone and Yount were in a folk singing group when they decided to join forces and start their own group along with Templeman and Eddie James. Scoppettone and Templeman, who aspire to be successful songwriters, pen most of the quintet's material. Harper's Bizarre have emerged from the competitive atmosphere of the San Francisco area where they have dwelled for years. The group has only been together professionally for about three years and was extremely popular only in local arenas such as the Fillmore and Avalon Ballrooms. Now that their current Warner Bros. single, "59th Street Bridge Song," is number 32 on the charts this week, their appeal is nationwide.

Blues Magoos

The Blues Magoos are comprised of Mike Magoo, lead guitar; Ron Magoo, bass; Geoff Magoo, drums; Ralph Magoo, organ; and Peppy Magoo, rhythm guitar. The trademark of the group is its "psychedelic" sound, which is a wild, frenetic, unrestrained, emotional outpouring in musical sound that has a strong basis in traditional blues but that is played with all the variations that modern electrical instrumentation can provide. The Blues Magoos employ electrical feedback as music, fuzz tone on organ, and an echo box. The idea of "psychedelic music" evolved about ten months ago when the Magoos were first getting the group together in its present form. Ralph, Ronnie and Peppy were the original "magoos" and were playing at The Night Owl in Greenwich Village. Two members of the original Magoos left the group and Geoff and his friend, Mike, were added to make the present fivesome. The Blues Magoos are currently represented on the charts this week with "We Ain't Got Nothin' Yet," which is number 44, and "There's A Chance We Can Make It," which is number 94. The group records for the Mercury label.

Congratulations!

POP PICKS

HOW GREAT THOU ART—Elvis Presley—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3758

A selection of religious songs performed by Elvis Presley. Included on the album are the title track, "How Great Thou Art," "Somebody Bigger Than You And I," and "If The Lord Wasn't Walking By My Side." The artist renders the tunes in a feelingful, sincere manner, and the LP should be of particular interest to gospel-oriented listeners.

ON BROADWAY—4 Tops—Motown (S) 657

The 4 Tops deliver a package of R&B-flavored Broadway tunes. Included on the LP are "On The Street Where You Live," "What Did I Have That I Don't Have Now," and "Make Someone Happy." The 4 Tops create a great deal of excitement as they perform, and the album is likely to prove a real mover with the artists' legion of followers.

TRY SOME OF THIS!—Jay & the Americans—United Artists UAL 3562/UAS 6562

Jay & the Americans offer a group of rock ditties. Among the tracks are "You Ain't As Hip As All That Baby," "(He's) Raining In My Sunshine," and "It's A Big Wide Wonderful World." The group sings with verve and style, and the album should be popular with the quintet's many fans.

IF YOU GO AWAY—Damita Jo—Epic LN 24244/BN 26244

Damita Jo sings of love found and lost in ten pop offerings. The numbers include the title tune, "If You Go Away," "An Affair To Remember," and "My Man's Gone Now." The artist exhibits versatility in her choice of material, and she creates a warm romantic mood which, on side two, is counterbalanced by the sadness of love grown cold. The LP should be a large hit with the singer's many fans.

BOSTON SOUL—Hardly Worthit Players—Cameo Parkway P/SP 7057

The Hardly Worthit Players have at the contemporary political scene, lampooning several famous government figures who should be instantly recognizable to the laughing listener. The recent chart effort, "Wild Thing," by "Senator Bobby," is included on the album. "Senator Bobby" is joined by "Senator McKinley" in "Mellow Yellow," which provides sizeable laughs. The LP stacks up as a strong vote-getter.

ON THE MOVE—Tony Sandler & Ralph Young—Capitol T/ST 2686

Tony Sandler and Ralph Young sing a selection of pop efforts. Included on the album are "C'Est Si Bon," "There Will Never Be Another You," and "Gonna Build A Mountain." The artists' voices blend together to produce a pleasing effect which is zestful and mellow. The package should find itself richly rewarded in the marketplace.

THE MONKEES SONG BOOK—Golden Gate Strings—Epic LN 24248/BN 26248

The Golden Gate strings render instrumental interpretations of songs made popular by the Monkees. Featured on the set are two Monkee monsters, "Last Train To Clarksville" and "I'm A Believer." The album also includes "This Just Doesn't Seem To Be My Day." The Golden Strings' sound is glowing and tasteful, and the LP should be a real crowd-pleaser, especially in the light of its making prominent use of "the Monkees" logo.

CHARLES CHAPLIN'S A COUNTESS FROM HONG KONG—Original Soundtrack—Decca DL 1501/71501

Charles Chaplin has composed the score for his film, "A Countess From Hong Kong." The mood of the movie is light, gay, effervescent, and the music matches it. Sophia Loren, who is starred in the flick, is given expression in music with a waltz theme which captures her impish screen character. Movie music devotees and those who have followed Chaplin's work as a writer of film music should be eager to purchase this disk.

POP BEST BETS

THE RAY CONNIFF SINGERS SING IT IN SPANISH—Columbia CL 2608/CS 9408

An album recorded in Mexico City with Mexican singers. Included in the package are "Dias De Vino Y Rosas," "Todos Aman A Alguien," and "Creemos En El Amor." The singers perform with spirit and enthusiasm, and the set should find popularity with a large listening public, Ray Conniff devotees in particular, and good music lovers in general.

A TASTE OF BRASS FOR LOVERS ONLY—Jackie Gleason—Capitol W/SW 2684

Leading a band that includes such top-name performers as trumpeter Roy "Little Jazz" Eldridge and saxophonist Charlie Ventura, Jackie Gleason has come up with a bright, swinging package of love ditties that should be especially popular in good music circles. Included in the set are "My Love For Carmen," "A Taste Of Honey," "Love Is Here To Stay," and "It All Depends On You." Watch this one go.

THE ORIGINAL GOLDEN GREATS!—Various Artists—Liberty LRP 3500/LST 7500

A compilation of recent hits in the pop field. Offerings on the disk include "What The World Needs Now Is Love," by Jackie De Shannon; "Red Roses For A Blue Lady," by Vic Dana; and "Secret Agent Man," by Johnny Rivers. The album provides an excellent glimpse of top pop artists at their best, and the LP should rank high among the pop hit anthologies.

COME BY HERE—Inez & Charlie Foxx—Dynamo DM 700/DS 8000

Inez & Charlie Foxx offer a selection of R&B ditties. Among the tracks are the title tune, "Come By Here," "No Stranger To Love," and "I Love You 1000 Times." The brother-sister duo, in collaboration with Luther Dixon, their producer, have written many of the outings on the disk. The artists render driving, rocking soul interpretations of their material, and the LP should be a fast-moving sales item.

SOUL SOUNDS—O'Jays—Minit LP 40008/24008

"Soul Sounds" is a good name for this potent, free-swinging R&B package by the O'Jays. Among the numbers on the set are "Working On Your Case," "Stand In For Love," "I'll Never Forget You," and "Oh, How You Hurt Me." Could be a lot of chart and sales action in store for this one. Give it a careful listen.

THE BLUES IS WHERE IT'S AT—Otis Spann—BluesWay BL/BLS 6003

Otis Spann, jazz pianist and vocalist, lays out nine jazz outings. He is given able support by Muddy Waters, guitar; Sammy Lawhorn, guitar; Luther Johnson, guitar; Mac Arnold, electric bass; Francis Clay, drums; and George Smith, harmonica. Included on the disk are "Popcorn Man," "Chicago Blues," and "My Home Is On The Delta." The members of the group complement each other expertly, and the LP is likely to move quickly in jazz circles.

POP BEST BETS

LEE HARVEY OSWALD SPEAKS—Lee Harvey Oswald—Eyewitness EW 1002
A valuable contribution to the history of our times, this documentary album spotlights a personal interview with Lee Harvey Oswald conducted by Bill Stuckey in New Orleans in 1963. Also featured in the set are statements about Oswald by Senator Thomas J. Dodd and Congressman Hale Boogs. Should be of special interest to those concerned with the findings of the Warren Commission and with the events that led up to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

THOROUGHLY MODERN MILLIE—Hippy Dippys—UNI 73001
The Hippy Dippys have put together a glittering array of vocal and instrumental sounds in the 1920's bag and come up with a set that could win the enthusiasm of both pop and middle-of-the-road listeners. Included in the package are "Thoroughly Modern Millie," "Rose Of Washington Square," "The Japanese Sandman," and "I Can't Believe That You're In Love With Me." Could sell well.

ARE YOU LONELY FOR ME?—Freddie Scott—Shout SLP/SLPS 501
This powerpacked LP spotlights Freddie Scott in a performance of twelve rousing R&B numbers. Included in the set are "Are You Lonely For Me?," "Open Up The Door To Your Heart," "He Will Break Your Heart," and "Who Could Ever Love You." Scott's talent is in full force on this one, and his chances of earning a top chart spot seem very good indeed.

THE EMANCIPATION OF HUGH MASEKELA—Chisa CHM 101/CHS 4101
Hugh Masekela performs nine pop outings, six of which he penned. Among the tracks are "Why Are You Blowing My Mind?" "What Is Wrong With Groovin'?" and "Child Of The Earth." The singer displays an exciting, spirited style on this LP for the fledgling Chisa label, which is owned by the artist. The album is likely to make new friends for both Masekela and his new diskery.

ENCORE!—Jacques Brel—Reprise RS 6246
Jacques Brel, accompanied by Francois Rauber and his orchestra, sings twelve of his poems. The poetry is intense and vital and the music forms an excellent backdrop to the works. The poems set to music include "Les Fenetres" ("The Windows"), "Tango Funebre" ("Funeral Tango"), and "La Parlote" ("The Gossip"). The album should be of interest to those who enjoy poetry with musical accompaniment.

PETER NERO PLAYS A SALUTE TO HERB ALPERT AND THE TIJUANA BRASS—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3720
Pianist Peter Nero pays tribute to Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass. Such Alpert favorites as "A Taste Of Honey," "The Lonely Bull," and "The Work Song" are featured on the disk. Nero's interpretation of these numbers provides a highly entertaining package for what promises to be a sizeable audience of both Peter Nero and Herb Alpert followers.

SOUL ARTISTRY—Jerry Butler—Mercury MG 21105/SR 61105
Jerry Butler offers a batch of R&B-flavored tunes. Included on the disk are the artist's current chart item, "I Dig You Baby," "I'm Gonna Make You Love Me," and "You Don't Know What You Got Until You Lose It." The singer projects fine artistry on this LP, which figures to see heavy sales. The album, a power-packed set, could very well see lots of chart action.

A MAN AND HIS WATERMELON—Jackie Vernon—United Artists UAL 3577/UAS 6577
"Dull" comedian Jackie Vernon is recorded "live" in one of his sad outcries against the vicissitudes suffered by the dull man. In the course of the LP, the comic defines the dull man: he leaves home at 38 and gives up his paper route. The album is a tribute to the staying power of the dullard. The disk should provide many laughs for appreciative listeners.

JAZZ PICKS

BUCKET O' GREASE—Les McCann Ltd.—Lime-light LM 82043/LS 86043
Here's a swinging "boogaloo" album by pianist Les McCann that should find ready favor in jazz and R & B areas. Among the numbers on the set are "Hey Leroy, Your Mama's Callin' You," "Music To Watch Girls By," "Watermelon Man," and "Bucket O' Grease." McCann could really fly high on the charts with this one. Keep tabs on it.

DEUCES WILD—Sonny Stitt—Atlantic 3008/SD 3008
Famed alto-tenor saxophonist Sonny Stitt romps through seven groovy jazz numbers on his latest LP. The set, which also features alto-soprano saxophonist Robin Kenyatta and tenor saxophonist and bagpiper Rufus Harley, includes such selections as "Deuces Wild," "My Foolish Heart," "Sittin' In With Stitt," and "Pipin' The Blues." Looks good.

THE FESTIVAL ALBUM—Jazz Crusaders—Pacific Jazz PJ 10115/ST 20115
The Jazz Crusaders could score quickly with this swinging, hard-driving, handsomely packaged LP. Recorded live at the 1966 Newport and Pacific Jazz Festivals, the set is given over to four extended numbers: "Trance Dance," "A Summer Madness," "Young Rabbits," and "Freedom Sound." Keep your eye on this one. It might go all the way.

BIG BAND—1967—Charlie Barnet—Vault 9004
Fiery, free-wheeling jazz sounds are the order of the day on this set as saxophonist Charlie Barnet leads his eighteen-man band through "Rabble Rouser," "Clap Hands, Here Comes Charlie," "We Got Something To Live For," "Introduction To An Ending," and six others. Barnet really goes all out on this one, and it could be a big winner for him.

CLASSICAL PICKS

LISZT: CONCERTO NO. 1; CHOPIN: CONCERTO NO. 2—Andre Watts/New York Philharmonic/Leonard Bernstein/Thomas Schippers—Columbia ML 6355/MS 6955
A brilliant interpreter and a fine technician, pianist Andre Watts here offers a package containing two lovely classical works: Liszt's "Concerto No. 1 In E-Flat," and Chopin's "Concerto No. 2 In F Minor." Backed by the New York Philharmonic (Leonard Bernstein conducting the Liszt piece, Thomas Schippers the Chopin), Watts plays masterfully throughout the entire set. Should be a sought-after item in the classical market place.

MOZART: SYMPHONY NO. 36; HAYDN: SYMPHONY NO. 101—Antal Dorati/London Symphony Orchestra—Mercury Wing WC 18064
Two great symphonies, Mozart's "Symphony No. 36 In C Major, K. 425 (Linz)," and Haydn's "Symphony No. 101 In D Major ('Clock')," are spotlighted on this album. Antal Dorati leads the London Symphony Orchestra through vigorous interpretations of both works, making the set a delight to the ear and a probable winner in classical circles.

Atlantic Rush Releases 2 LP's

NEW YORK—Atlantic Records has rush-released the new Aretha Franklin LP, "I Never Loved A Man The Way I Love You," to its distributors, following the success of the artist's smash single of the same title. The album is the lark's first for Atlantic. It contains her hit single as well as "Respect," "Drown In My Own Tears," and "A Change Is Gonna Come."

Atlantic is releasing another LP on the Stax label, featuring Otis Redding and Carla Thomas together for the first time. The disk is called "King & Queen." The set contains a collection of blues rockers including "Knock On Wood," "Tell It Like It Is," and "When Something Is Wrong With My Baby."

Dirksen To Read From New LP On Skelton Show

NEW YORK—Senator Everett McKinley Dirksen was signed recently for a forthcoming appearance on CBS-TV's "Red Skelton Show." The senator will tape selected reading for the show in Washington on Thursday (23) under the production supervision of Arch Lustberg, co-producer with Ron Cochran of Dirksen's current chart-riding LP, "Gallant Men" on Capitol Records.

Capitol plans to release Dirksen's second single, "Man Is Not Alone," within the next few weeks. The disk will be followed by a second album also titled "Man Is Not Alone: Words Of Inspiration Spoken By Senator Everett M. Dirksen," later this spring. The Skelton show appearance will feature inspirational and religious readings from the new album.

This second album is being produced by the same team that was responsible for the debut LP and single, introduced in December of last year. Members of this team include Lustberg, who directed taping of the Dirksen readings; John Cacavas, who wrote and recorded the background score; Charles Wood, lyricist; and H. Paul Jeffers, who created the continuity. Lustberg and Cacavas are associated with Chappell & Co. Inc., publisher of the score, as director of special projects and director of publications respectively.

Lustberg and Cacavas last week completed mixing and mastering of the new Dirksen product, working with engineer Phil Ramone of A & R Studios, New York, where the original score was recorded with choir and 40-piece orchestra.

Imperial Adds 13 To Golden Series

LOS ANGELES—Imperial Records has added thirteen top-selling singles to their "Golden Series" of forty two others, which brings the grand total to fifty-five.

According to national sales manager Rick Frio, the thirteen feature the biggest names on the Imperial roster, including Johnny Rivers, Mel Carter, Jackie DeShannon, the Hollies, Cher, Irma Thomas, Jimmy McCracklin, Slim Whitman, Georgie Fame and Billy J. Kramer.

The all-time hits figure in a dealer program from March 17 through April 30, 1967. Terms are available from Imperial distributors.

Schwartz-Greenberg Supplies Film Music

NEW YORK—The Schwartz-Greenberg pubberies have supplied the music for a Peter H. Cooper Film Co. production, "Dog Short." The music, entitled "The Chase," was written by S-G's professional manager, Joey Day, and exclusive writer Alan Dischel. Robert Steinbrecker, production manager of Peter H. Cooper, handled production arrangements.

Epic Markets New LP Product

NEW YORK—Epic Records has announced the release of a total of 17 albums for the month of March.

Highlighting the release are 9 pop LP's: "If You Go Away," by Damita Jo; "The Monkees Songbook," by the Golden Gate Strings; "A Loser's Cathedral," by David Houston; "Kiss Tomorrow Goodbye," by Jane Morgan; "The Yardbirds' Greatest Hits;" "Spoonful of Sugar," by Guela Gill; "Hochzeit Machen, Das Ist Wunder-schon," by Alfred Matschat and his Club Ensemble; "San Remo Festival, 1967;" and "Sounds That Are Happening," by the Gozoo Band.

Epic's Crossroads label has five new classical sets: "Hindemith: Symphonic Metamorphoses/Kodaly: Variations On A Hungarian Folk Song," by the Brno State Philharmonic Orchestra, Jaroslav Vogel conducting the Hindemith piece, Janos Ferencsik conducting the Kodaly; "Dvorak: Symphony No. 7 In D Minor, Op. 70," by the Czech Philharmonic Orchestra, Zdenek Kosler conducting; "Haydn String Quartets," by the Prague City Quartet; "Tchaikovsky For Strings," by the Czech Chamber Orchestra, Josef Vlach conducting; and "Delightful Divertimentos And Pretty Partitas," by various artists.

Concluding the list of Epic's March releases are three new packages on the Okeh label: "Get My Hands On Some Lovin'," by the Artistics; "Speak Her Name," by Walter Jackson; and "Bad," by Johnny Watson.

Korvette's Gold

The American Patrol LP, a recent Warner Bros. release, has "experienced fantastic sales" and the label has attributed much of the album's success to Bill Zeigler, (right) record department manager of the E. J. Korvette's store in Huntington, New York. The label has seen fit to present Zeigler with a gold record for his efforts. Dick Sherman, Warner Bros./Reprise national sales manager, makes the presentation.

Norman Foley Gets Sam Fox Exec Post

NEW YORK — Norman Foley has been appointed general professional manager of Sam Fox Publishing Company and its combined affiliates.

Foley brings to the Fox organization over thirty years of uninterrupted activity in the music business, including his long association with the MGM publishing wing, the Big Three; and the Warner Bros. pubbery, Witmark & Sons.

He will develop and exploit new properties as well as stimulate interest in many of the standards in the Fox catalog.

Gary Klein Hails Coast Potential

LOS ANGELES — Gary Klein, who heads the Hollywood office of the Koppelman-Rubin music pubberies and is a vice president of Koppelman & Rubin Associates, took stock recently of the firm's past six months of activity, and found reason for optimism. Klein termed the West Coast "the land of opportunity for publishers with good material."

One of his key functions is "getting our songs into good albums." He stated that this is a constant activity in order to maintain the vigor of all phases of a growing catalog. An additional activity for Klein is the supervision of all sheet music and folio activity for both the Chardon and Faithful Virtue music firms. Currently he is working on third "Lovin' Spoonful Song Book."

Klein has added Johnny Bond to his staff to handle promotion and Gill Kleiner, who doubles in brass as secretary-office manager. As in the case of Koppelman-Rubin's New York office, Klein maintains an open door and spends a good part of his time looking at material brought to him by hopeful tyros.

Cahn, Van Heusen In 'Millie' Promo

NEW YORK — As part of an all-out promotion effort being expended by Decca Records and Universal Pictures in behalf of the soon-due Julie Andrews flick "Thoroughly Modern Millie," the famed songwriting team of Sammy Cahn and Jimmy Van Heusen will make a five city tour for an intensive saturation campaign of press, radio and TV interviews. They will cover the cities of Philadelphia, Boston, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and New York while on tour.

The eight time academy award winning composers will, during the promotion junket, be doing interviews with news media in conjunction with the original Decca soundtrack recording from the motion picture. The album will be released nationally the week of March 20th. Cahn and Van Heusen penned the title song, "Thoroughly Modern Millie," which besides being included in the album is also available as a Decca single by Julie Andrews, along with many other top recordings. The songwriting duo also wrote "The Tapioca," another key song from the motion picture soundtrack.

As a highlight of Cahn and Van Heusen's New York visit, Decca Records is staging a cocktail party the evening of March 14th at which time the deluxe soundtrack album of "Thoroughly Modern Millie" will have its world premiere to a full complement of press, radio and TV personnel.

Ascher Sells Library Rights To Walter Reed

NEW YORK — The sale of the rights to a complete library of records and tapes for one year to the Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington, D.C., reports Morton Ascher, president of Emil Ascher, distrib of background and mood music.

Meaux Signs Pact With Jubilee-Josie

NEW YORK — Mickey Eichner, vice president of Jubilee-Josie Records, has announced that independent producer Huey P. Meaux has signed a production agreement with the labels. Meaux, who has produced disks for such artists as Barbara Lynn, Roy Head, and B. J. Thomas, has already brought in the first two artists whom he will record for Jubilee-Josie. They are singers Ripp Tide and J. J. Stately.

Chappell Ups Pace On Broadway Scene

NEW YORK — Chappell & Co. Inc., currently riding high with a Broadway show sizzle, is blueprinting expanding activity in the show-movie field, with emphasis on Leslie Uggams, star of the upcoming Jule Styne-Betty Comden and Adolph Green musical titled "Halleluiah Baby." Now at The Colonial Theatre in Boston, the show is due in New York on April 26.

The performer, who plays the lead opposite Robert Hooks, will duplicate the pattern of Barbra Streisand, who appeared on a Capitol Records original-cast LP of "Funny Girl" while a contract artist for Columbia. Under those circumstances, Columbia had rights to issue a re-recording of Streisand singing the show's major hit, "People."

Uggams, now contracted to Atlantic, will appear on a Columbia cast album. The two companies have made an arrangement by which the star will release two separately-recorded songs from the score of "Halleluiah Baby" on the Atlantic label, while the original versions of the tunes will appear on Columbia's original-cast set. Chappell's Stratford Music has the score. The Uggams Atlantic single is due for release within the next 10 days.

Meanwhile, Chappell's new wave of Broadway successes has been spearheaded by Ed Ames' "My Cup Runneth Over" from the Tom Jones-Harvey Schmidt score of "I Do, I Do." Already in the top 10, the RCA Victor disk is the biggest single for Ames since he was part of the Ames Brothers' act, as well as one of the biggest Broadway-show single hits since Louis Armstrong's "Hello Doll." Chappell also handles the upcoming musical, "Sherry."

Chappell's Stratford firm will also publish the score of the Styne-Comden-Green TV collaboration, "Getting Married." Slated for ABC-TV's "Stage '67" on Thursday (16), the one-hour musical special is based on an original story by Arthur Laurents and stars Anne Bancroft and Dick Shawn.

On the single-record front, a flock of sides on "Hurry Sundown," title song from the Otto Preminger film, are already hitting the market. At present, the Chappell tune has been recorded by Harry Belafonte and Hugo Montenegro (RCA Victor), Jaxon Reese (Cameo-Parkway), Little Richard (Epic), Malcolm Hayes (Liberty), Bud Shank (World-Pacific), Milt Grayson (MGM), Pat Boone (Dot), and Milt Sealey (Mercury). "Hurry Sundown Blues" has been cut by Count Basie (Command) and Lee Evans (MGM).

Muntz Outlet To Open In Laguna

HOLLYWOOD — Civic leaders, entertainment celebrities and a squadron of Go Go girls will be on hand this month to mark the opening of a 4,000 square-foot car stereo retail store at 387 S. Coast Highway in Laguna Beach.

According to owner Jerry McDonald, the facility will open March 15 and will include divisions for installation, service and retail sales of stereo systems for cars, homes and boats.

McDonald, who also owns Costa Mesa Tape City at 1740 North Superior in Costa Mesa, said the Laguna Store will be the largest of its kind in the area and would market the huge product line of Muntz Stereo-Pak of Van Nuys, including the world's largest library of stereo entertainment, estimated at 50,000 titles.

Don Broun, formerly of McDonald's Costa Mesa store, has been named vice president and manager of the Laguna outlet and will be succeeded as Costa Mesa manager by Tim Price.

McDonald will mark his Laguna opening with special sales reductions for one week, including car stereo systems for $29.95. He projects opening similar Cartridge City outlets in Oceanside and Corona del Mar later this year.

Capitol Releasing 2 Melodiya/Angel Tapes

HOLLYWOOD — Capitol's mid-month (3/13) reel-to-reel tape release will consist of three 3¾ i.p.s. tapes and a pair of 7½ i.p.s. packages. Both of the latter are drawn from the first Melodiya/Angel album release: Shostakovich's Symphony No. 5 and the same compers' "The Execution of Stepan Razin." Kiril Kondrashin conducts the Moscow Philharmonic on both reels.

A third classical tape release, Mahler's "Das Lied von der Erde," features Christa Ludwig and the late Fritz Wunderlich as soloists with the New Philharmonia Orchestra under Otto Klemperer. It is being released in the 3¾ format.

The two pop tape releases of the month: a coupling of two albums by Sandler & Young — "Side By Side" and "On The Move" — and an intandem reel by Lou Rawls including "Nobody But Lou" and his latest album "Carryin' On."

Capitol Releasing 8 Cartridges In March

HOLLYWOOD — Capitol's mid-March (3/13) 8-track stereo tape cartridge release will contain eight new packages including five twin-packs and three single-packs. Three of the tapes will be "4-Star Specials" — tape twin-packs designed for variety listening. Each contains material by four different artists: Jean Shepard, Buck Owens, Roy Clark and Sonny James on "Capitol 4-Star Special #5," Nelson Riddle, George Shearing, Paul Weston, Jackie Gleason on "#6," Howard Roberts, George Van Eps, John Gray, Laurindo Almeida on "#7."

The three single packs are by Frank Sinatra, Peter & Gordon and the Beach Boys. The other twin-packs are by Lou Rawls and Sandler & Young.

Thoroughly Modern

"Thoroughly Modern Millie" has come to B'way in the form of a gigantic sign measuring 75 X 125 feet at the intersection of B'way and 7th Ave. (49th st.) The show (starring Julie Andrews) will open at the Criterion Theatre Mar. 21st, and the original cast LP will be available on Decca.

Doumanian Is Philips Nat'l Promo Director

CHICAGO—John Doumanian, age 36, a veteran of sales and promotional activities in recording industries for the past 12 years, has joined Philips Records here as national promotional director for the label.

Doumanian started in the record business in 1955 with Capitol Record Distributor, Chicago, as a salesman covering downstate Illinois; in 1957 he handled south side sales coverage of Chicago for Capitol. In 1959 he became regional promotional director for Capitol covering Detroit, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Milwaukee, Minnesota, Louisiana and Nashville. In 1961 he joined Columbia as local promotional manager for the Chicago area. In 1963 he returned to Capitol as regional promotion manager of his former midwest territory. When Tower Records began in 1965 as an indie label venture for Capitol, he became midwest promotion manager for that label. In 1966 he joined Kapp Records as regional promo manager from where he joined the Philips organization.

TALENT ON STAGE

SERGIO FRANCHI

NEW YORK—Maybe it's called popera, but whatever you want to term it, Sergio Franchi's style of singing is of such a commanding stature that bravo! bravo! seems the appropriate phrase to apply after one of his blockbuster readings.

Opening at the Persian Room of the Plaza Hotel last week (8) for a month's stay, the RCA songster was greeted as enthusiastically as a tenor adding new depth to a Puccini aria. Fortunately, Franchi is not a mere operatic voice who scales down to pop. He is a pop singer with a darn good voice and a warm and winning stage manner to accompany it.

Franchi, slim with chisled good-looks, opens his act with an English-Italian-Spanish medley, giving an immediate, overwhelming account of his vocal prowess. There is what he describes as a "Hootenanny Time" segment, which is really Sergio on guitar singing such hits as "Yesterday," "My Cup Runneth Over." The simple beauty of this stanza makes one wish that the orchestra never bothered to get in on the act. A consistently good LP seller on RCA, the performer kides his lack of singles success with a "let's-hope-maybe-this-time" intro to his new single, a muscular number called "What Will Tomorrow Bring." The closest he comes to an aria is his performance, in Italian, of a song called "Ungrateful Heart," which, he cryptically states, was the song that brought him to America. A robust medley of pop hits from Italy (e.g. "Volare") ends an evening of uncommon pop singing.

SPANKY & OUR GANG

NEW YORK—On Wednesday night, Mar. 8, a new group called Spanky and Our Gang appeared at Steve Paul's The Scene. "Troupe" performers in the best sense of the word, they presented such a varied program that it is impossible to classify them or to define their limitations. Any group that can do (and do well) two songs as different in style as "Buddy, Can You Spare A Dime?" and Gordon Lightfoot's "That's What You Get For Lovin' Me" defies pigeonholing, and those who are accustomed to putting all performers in a certain "bag" will have a tough job on their hands with Spanky and Our Gang.

Playing to an audience that was with them all the way, the group offered surprise after surprise. Among the highlights of the evening were a comedy song about a garbage collector, a bright, spirited version of "Trouble," from the Broadway show,

"Music Man," and a new ditty called "Sunday Will Never Be The Same," which the group plans to release shortly on the Mercury label as their debut single.

People all over the world are constantly listening for new sounds. Spanky and Our Gang have not one, but several new sounds, and they could prove to be popular with a very wide audience.

Project 3 Stereo Singles

NEW YORK—Project 3 Records has started supplying FM stereo outlets with stereo singles (see Cash Box, Mar. 4 issue). Two singles kick-off the release schedule, an extract from the label's "Spanish Strings" LP by Enoch Light & the Light Brigade ("Come On, Come On, Come On, Don't Be Timido" and "I Love, I Live, I Love") and a new song by Ervin Drake, "Ukulele Talk" (b/w "Dancing with Tears in My Eyes") by the True Blues.

Floor By Floor Rundown

Plans call for the following floor-by-floor rundown of functions: 1: administrative quarters for Chess-Checker-Cadet personnel; 2&3: pressing; 4: print shop and LP stock; 5: singles; 6: tape duplicating; 7: studios and mastering, A&R; 8: retention of Revere's special penthouse, including a barbershop and shower & sauna bath facilities.

New Chess Hq

in the main studio, one of four session facilities. The pressing plant will involve a total investment of $600,000.

Separate Identities

In spite of the "single roof" concept, Chess will attempt to maintain separate identities. The pressing operation is under the tag of Mid-West, while the recording affiliate is called Ter-Mar. Chess also operates a Nashville pressing plant, Mid-South.

Hunt To Cut Live Album; Platters Issue 'Ring' LP

NEW YORK—Tommy Hunt now on the R&B Top 50 with his Dynamo single of "The Biggest Man," will record a live LP at the Apollo Theatre during his appearance there in Easter Week. It will be the chanter's first live album, as well as his first appearance at the Opollo since his ill-fated last outing there when he was forced to cut short the engagement because of an auto accident on his way to the theatre.

Musicor Records, which handles national distribution for the Luther Dixon-owned Dynamo label, is getting strong action of its own with the Platters' "With This Ring." The single has already hit the Top 100 and moved into the top 20 on the R&B chart. "With This Ring" is also the title of the group's new album, now being rush-released to cash in on the single's action.

Another entry in Dynamo's R&B derby is the just-released "Sally's Party," debut disc for Barbara and Brenda. In addition, Inez and Charlie Foxx have a new outing with "Tight-rope" and "Baby, Take It All."

Overseas, the Dynamo product has so far been released only in England (EMI), where Inez and Charlie Foxx recently carried out a promotion tour, and in Italy (CGD). Release rights for other territories will be negotiated by Luther Dixon, president of Dynamo.

CMA Makes Audio-Visual Point At NARM

HOLLYWOOD—The Country Music Association (CMA) scored a number of points in its favor with a striking audio-visual presentation at the NARM convention. Besides effective use of films and slides, CMA was boosted by "live" appearances by Tex Ritter, president of CMA, Jan Howard (Decca), Jeannie Seely (Monument) and Ray Price (Columbia).

Ritter, Jan Howard and Minnie Pearl represented the country field in a panel discussion, "Artists Can Talk, Too," in which performers openly discussed the record business from their points of view. Also appearing were Guy Lombardo, Ed Ames and Mantovani. Mantovani was the recipient of a NARM presidential award for "outstanding achievement," along with George Marek, former vp and general manager of RCA Victor Records and now a vp of RCA. The English maestro was also honored by Montgomery Ward, including a specially Monty month at MW stores.

NARM Confab

at Monday's meet—peppered with humor and presented without the aid of a prepared text. He described the National Labor Relations Board as "the dark continent of American business"—"few people recognize its effect on day to day business." And he cited the do's and don'ts in relations with both union organizers and federal investigators. In 1966 Siegel stated, "Congress passed the most sweeping wage and hour laws in history—9,000,000 additional employees became subject to wage and hour laws." But in addition, the federal wage and hour division granted millions for the cost of investigating those laws. Some of the items under scrutiny—who is not being paid for overtime, for example. Or just how records are kept. Caution—"Be cooperative with these investigators (if and when they should turn up) and, if violations are indicated (according to the investigators) call in competent advice for various modes of appeal."

Bartley Comments

Thomas F. Bartley (general manager — Market Training Services Whirlpool Corp.) a salty, dynamic speaker constantly drew applause and laughter with his homey approach on the subject of "You Have A Business—Is It An Organization?" Basically he pointed out the six elements of management that contribute to making business more profitable—suggesting that Planning, a relatively simple thing, is becoming more sophisticated due to competition. He also covered organization, control, policies, procedures and objectives noting that responsibility should be delegated but coordinated. "Know your man and make him meas-

EIA In Phase Two Of Tape Standardization

NEW YORK—The Electronic Industries Association's Committee on Recording and Reproducing Systems Components, which authored the industry's first standard on endless tape cartridges for use in automobile tape players, moves this month into the second stage of standardization to insure a compatible mating of cartridge and player.

The purpose of the confab will be to begin work on a standard covering interface mechanics and characteristics of endless loop cartridges and mating tape players. One day of the meet will deal with the interference mechanics and characteristics of cartridges and players. The next day the unit will continue work on a proposed standard for the Norelco Co-Planar Tape Cartridge Type II.

HOLLYWOOD—An additional capital of $3¼ million to Earl Muntz' tape operation was announced by Muntz at last week's NARM confab. A check for $750,000 was signed last week by Henry Fenenbock, personal friend of Muntz. He is president of Lawson, Time a former major concessioner at Disneyland. ure his own effectiveness."

TJB, Mancini Triumph

Herb Alpert and his prodigious band of banderilleros, who closed last year's awards banquet in Miami, triumphantly reappeared at A&M's opening eve dinner on Sunday (5) kicking off the week's array of glamor and versatility. Same show intro'd to NARM members the talents of Brazil '66, Chris Montez and the Baja Marimba. Following night's RCA dinner show was devoted to just one performer, Henry Mancini, who brought along a forty piece orchestra, an interesting and immensely successful departure from the usual succession of acts offered by labels.

A dinner party hosted by Dot Records on Wednesday featured such talent as the Lawrence Welk Show, Billy Vaughan, Frankie Carle, Bonnie Guitar, the Lennon Sisters and newcomer Rita Moss.

NARM On Cartridges

labels are obtaining rights through Mercury, affiliated with Philips Records of Holland, inventor of the cassette, to present their product in this manner.

The Problems

A number of speakers relayed a bevy of problems that now beset the tape cartridge industry. A chief villain, Rubinstein explained, was bootlegging. He estimated that between 5%-10% of his 8-track sales were being lost through bogus manufacture, while the 4-track loss runs between 35%-40%. NARM participation in a drive to get Governmental awareness of this problem was urged by Rubinstein.

Return of defective cartridge merchandise ranges from 3% to 10%, it was noted. In some instances, it was brought out, youngsters are deliberately damaging tape product and returning them for new product, usually a cartridge with programming other than the damaged item. Heilicher said that a policy of replacing damaged cartridges with fresh cartridges with the same programming would be helpful in reducing this problem.

Pilferage was termed "unbelievable" and closed racks were seen as an absolute necessity. In line with display racks, a number of companies have re-designed their cartridges in answer to complaints that their merchandise would not fit their own racks. Jimmy Martin noted that cold weather areas had raised the problem of the freezing of cartridge gears.

Heilicher said that auto shops he is supplying stock an average of 240 cartridges, while record shops handle about 700 tapes. In his area, he is establishing a tape center with inventory of about 4000 tapes. He is making the move, Heilicher explained, because "no one has the guts to try it."

In his survey of car tape units, Rubinstein said that 16% of those who had units in their autos did not own phonographs. Some commented at the session that home sales of cartridge players were surprisingly good.

Speaking during the second tape session, Bill Gallagher, Columbia Records vp, said that the cartridge field was "running ahead of activity."

The situation would be analogous to an attempt to sell the LP through a self-service rack in the early 40's, he explained. It wouldn't make it, he added, because the consumer would not know anything about it.

EVERY MOTHERS' SON is courteous, thrifty, and likes that greasy kid stuff.

Grammy Corrections

NEW YORK—Two corrections have been forwarded to Cash Box involving last week's listing of 1966 Grammy award winners. Included in the list appearing on page 44, but not mentioned in the story on page 7 was the fact that Columbia Records tied with RCA Victor Records in category 41: Best Choral Performance (Other Than Opera). The Columbia disk was "Ives: Music For Chorus" with Gregg Smith and the Columbia Chamber Orchestra, Smith Singers, Ithaca College Concert Choir. In category 32 ("Best Engineered Recording-Non-Classical") Lee Hirschberg should have been listed along with Eddie Brackett. The disk was Frank Sinatra's "Strangers In The Night" (Reprise).

Presley Album To Be Aired On Palm Sunday

NEW YORK—On Palm Sunday, March 19, nearly 300 radio stations across the 50 states will air a special 30-minute uninterrupted program of sacred music from Elvis Presley's new RCA Victor album, "How Great Thou Art." The program is contained on a specially prepared 12-inch LP which includes a spot announcement devoted entirely to the national Red Cross. The program's concept was created by and is being sponsored by Elvis and the Colonel.

In addition to the Red Cross spot announcement, an open time period is added to the program which the originating stations will use for local charity plugs.

RCA Victor will support this saturation programming with both trade and consumer ads on the "How Great Thou Art" album. Ad mats of 600 lines on the new album, with ample space for the additions of locally-gear copy, are being made available for local and regional advertising to tie in with the Palm Sunday air date of this radio program.

Included in a kit to radio programmers is a 7-inch 45 rpm promotional single containing two selections from Elvis' sacred album, "How Great Thou Art" and "So High." Special streamers featuring the album, Elvis Presley Easter cards, Elvis Presley Stereo 8 catalogs, Elvis Presley Gold Car postcards and Elvis Presley 1967 calendars have also been sent to radio stations as a promotional courtesy from Elvis and the Colonel.

Henry Tobias Doing Well

NEW YORK—Song writer-publisher Henry Tobias is recovering nicely in Leroy Hospital, New York City. Tobias was recently admitted to the hospital for surgery. He is the writer of such tunes as "Miss You" and "If I Had My Life."

EVERY MOTHERS' SON is brave, trustworthy, and does a great early Bogart.

INTO NEW YORK—Nick Palmer, recently signed to RCA Victor, completed a 15-city tour for the diskery last week at New York's Sheppards discoteque in the Hotel Drake. The songster drew a full house of deejays, dealers, distributors, and the press. At the gathering, Nick did a 30-minute set backed by a trio. The artist's debut single on the label is "Theme From The Warsaw Concerto (The World Outside)"/"You Only Want A Lover." He is scheduled to go into the Copa June 29th. Pictured at the Sheppards party are (from the left): (standing) Sam Goody, Nick Palmer, Sam Stolen of Sam Goody, Jack Silverman of Bruno New York, (seated) Mrs. Silverman, Mrs. Arthur Sarnoff, and Arthur Sarnoff (president of Bruno New York).

Soul	66 after being stricken during a performance at the Sans Souci Hotel in Miami Beach. Teamed with the late Jeannette McDonald, Eddy made operetta pay-off on the screen as the lead in such productions as "Naughty Marietta," "New Moon" and "Rose Marie." There were eight Eddy-McDonald films, the last of which was a film version of the Rodgers & Hart stage hit, "I Married an Angel," in 1942. For the past 14 years, the Rhode Island-born performer played the night-club circuit with Gale Sherwood. Jeannette McDonald died in 1965.

Franz Waxman Dies

LOS ANGELES—Franz Waxman, a composer and conductor who won Oscars for two movie scores, died of cancer on Feb. 24 in Mount Sinai Hospital at the age of 60.

Waxman received his Motion Picture Academy Awards for the scores of "Sunset Boulevard" in 1950 and "A Place In The Sun" in 1951. He also wrote the music for "Sayonara," "Rebecca," "Peyton Place," "The Nun's Story," and 200 other movies.

He was a founder of the Los Angeles Music Festival in 1947 and its director for two decades, giving American and West Coast premieres of major compositions.

He conducted major orchestras in the U.S., Israel and Europe.

Waxman came to Hollywood in 1934. There he studied with Arnold Schoenberg and began to compose for the movies. He worked for MGM, Warner Bros., Paramount and 20th Century-Fox.

He is survived by a son, John Waxman of New York, and a sister, Frieda Karliner of Los Angeles.

Nelson Eddy Dies

NEW YORK—Nelson Eddy, handsome, rich-voiced film box-office draw in the 1930's, died last week (6) at the age of 66 after being stricken during a performance at the Sans Souci Hotel in Miami Beach. Teamed with the late Jeannette McDonald, Eddy made operetta pay-off on the screen as the lead in such productions as "Naughty Marietta," "New Moon" and "Rose Marie." There were eight Eddy-McDonald films, the last of which was a film version of the Rodgers & Hart stage hit, "I Married an Angel," in 1942. For the past 14 years, the Rhode Island-born performer played the night-club circuit with Gale Sherwood. Jeannette McDonald died in 1965.

Interestingly, while film operettas have long been out of fashion, a stereo-age re-creation of Eddy-McDonald duets on the RCA Victor label was recently certified as a gold record seller ($1 million or more in sales) by the RIAA. In the early 40's, Eddy recorded for Columbia Records. One of his most favored readings was that of "Short'nin Bread."

Surviving Eddy is his wife, the former Ann Franklin.

'Carousel' TV Special LP Readied For Release

NEW YORK—The Armstrong Cork Company in conjunction with Columbia Records will issue a special "premium" LP cast for its 90-minute color special "Carousel" airing on ABC-TV, May 7.

The cast album features the voices of Robert Goulet, Marlyn Mason, Pernel Roberts, Patricia Neway, Marge Redmond, Jack DeLon and Mary Grover. Irving Townsend is overseeing the project for Columbia Records. It is expected that the album will be ready for release shortly.

Weiss' Mother Dies

NEW YORK—Rachel Weiss, mother of Hy, Sam and George Weiss, music business tradesters, died last week (7) in the Bronx.

Newport Elects Officers, Plans '67 Folk Fete

NEW YORK—At the annual meeting of the trustees and officers of the Newport Folk Foundation, Ethel Rain Dunson, Bruce Jackson, Jim Rooney and Frank Warner were chosen to replace Alan Lomax, Mike Seeger, Ralph Rinzler and Peter Yarrow as members of the board of directors. Judy Collins, Oscar Brand and Julius Lester will remain on the board to complete their terms.

The board recently announced plans for an expanded 1967 Newport Folk Festival, July 10 through 16. Keeping the Wednesday daytime Children's Day which was a 1966 addition, the board has also added a Monday evening and Tuesday morning and afternoon devoted to international and American square dancing, and a Tuesday evening of story-telling, tall tales, jokes and anecdotes, a part of American folklore that has not been presented at Newport before. An expanded program of demonstrations of traditional crafts will be held Wednesday through Sunday.

The four large evening concerts will take place July 13 through 16. The Thursday evening concert will present a variety of urban and traditional country singers and musicians in "Tropical Songs From Colonial Times to the Present". Friday evening will be devoted to the music of New York City. Turkish dance music, the music of Galician and Basque Spaniards, Negro gospel music, a Chinese New Year dragon and noise makers, a puppet show with 16 foot high puppets are some of the features of this program.

Blues will be paired with country music old and new on Saturday evening's program. The Sunday closing program will feature various groups of singers and musicians, as in the past. A concert of religious music will be held at 11 A.M., and the afternoon will be devoted to the increasing number of contemporary song-writers who perform their own material.

Composers' Collaborative Opens New York Offices

NEW YORK—The Composers' Collaborative, Ltd., a new organization designed to offer advertising agencies and filmmakers a fresh supply of creative musical talent as well as complete production supervision, has opened offices at 161 West 54th Street, New York City.

The Collaborative is an association of writers, arrangers and producers, all of whom are already involved in creating music for records, films, theatre and TV. Headed up by Norman Schwartz, Emile Charlap and Gary McFarland, as business, production and creative directors respectively, the group includes composer-arranger Al Cohn and Larry Wilcox.

Already completed TV commercials with music by the Collaborative include those for the N. Y. World Journal, Hertz and Noxema.

At present, pointed out Charlap, most agencies have the choice of giving their music assignments to one of the large organizations whose staff includes both "house writers" and technicians. Or they can give the assignment to an independent writer-arranger and take on themselves the details of production.

The latter system has the advantage of producing fresher, higher-quality music than the first. It has the disadvantage of burdening the agency with time-consuming technical arrangements for which they are not necessarily equipped.

Composers' Collaborative believes it can bridge this gap between "too big" and "too small" by having both a creative membership and the facilities for lifting all the tedious production details of payroll, studio rental, and recording licenses from the agency.

'N' ALL THAT JAZZ—Jazz pianist Bill Evans (left) is shown shaking hands with MGM/Verve Records proxy Mort Nasatir after renewing his contract with the label. A Grammy Award winner a few years ago, he has been actively engaged in club and concert work. His current Verve release is "A Simple Matter Of Conviction," which also features Shelley Manne and Eddie Gomez. Shown looking on is his manager Helen Keane.

ON EPIC NOW—Epic Records has signed a new rock group called Don & the Goodtimes. The quintet's debut single, "I Could Be So Good To You," is scheduled for shipment this week. The group was recently signed as a regular act for the Dick Clark ABC TV'er, "Where The Action Is," and an extensive tour of the United States with the Dick Clark Caravan is being planned for the near future.

BRITISH WALKERS

ARE COMING AND THE WHOLE WORLD WILL?

Looks like the "Bubble-man," Lawrence Welk may turn into a leading exponent of country music, as a result of his new trend in guest stars. Connie Smith has recently been back for her second appearance with the maestro in a couple of months, and Sonny James has just been signed up to make his first appearance on the syndicated show. Sonny will tape the show late this month and the segment is scheduled to be aired coast-to-coast on April 15.

An itinerant horseman, Carl Smith is no longer dependent on the weatherman's whims in order to enjoy his equestrian activities, what with the addition of an indoor all-weather riding arena to his 350-acre ranch near Franklin, Tenn. The huge enclosure (which he claims is "a Christmas present to himself") includes eight stalls for registered quarter horses, paneled feed room, a glass-enclosed spectator area, a shower area for the horses, a combination trophy-track room and rest room facilities. And New York thinks it has something in Madison Square Garden!

Cliffie Stone has announced the signing of Bobby Austin to an exclusive management and booking contract. Bobby, who led the pack with his Tally version of "Apartment #9," has signed up with Capitol, where he just released "Cupid's Last Arrow" b/w "Mary's Merry-Go-Round." He also has an album coming out shortly. . . . Further word from Stone concerns sessions he just cut on Johnny Booth for the new MCA label on the West Coast. The session, called "I Think I Can" b/w "Wishful Thinking," is due for immediate release. Cliffie, who is the A&R chief for Uni Records, is currently on the lookout for country masters and artists.

Have you ever wondered how to get an invitation to dinner at the White House? Well, lately it seems that Gerry Purcell seems to have some sort of formula for getting his clients booked into the prized chow session. Just a few weeks ago it was Al Hirt and his wife, Mary, who were guests of the President, and on Valentine's day it was the charmer himself, Eddy Arnold, who graced the LBJ mess hall. It looks like Purcell has another invite lined up for Fannie Flag, a comedienne whose act includes an imitation of Lady Bird.

There's no doubt that the Orient is like malaria—once it's in your blood it's hard to shake it. Just ask Hank Snow. Hank barely had time to unpack his bag from the last trip before beginning a return bout. Dates for the latest tour, which began on Mar. 1, cover concert and TV appearances in Japan, Okinawa, Taiwan and the Philippines, and were set up by One Neters, Inc., through the Moeller Talent stable, which handles Hank. Don't know what the big attraction is—he must just like the water. . . . In recent months, One Neters has been expanding its domestic operations in order to encompass foreign markets, with negotiations currently under way to send artists to Europe and South America, as well as the Far East.

By the time Charlie Walker and Judy Lynn had finished the last performance at the San Antonio Rodeo & Stock Show on Feb. 19, the pair had broken all attendance records in this history of the show, which we hear is ranked No. 5 in all the 50 states. Despite wet weather, the final day's performance drew over 45,000 people, knocking out the 1966 record by 2,730, and was the second consecutive time that the total attendance topped the 300,000 mark. Ten of the rodeo's 15 performances were greeted with SRO audiences, with a total of 125,058 people turning out for the 15 shows. Charlie Walker's appearance was arranged through the Billy Deaton setup in San Antonio.

THAT'S MY BOY — TV comedian Jackie Gleason proudly points to Tiger Buck Owens during the latter's guest taping for the weekly syndicated Gleason TVer in Miami. Taped in Oct., the Owens segment was finally aired (after several delays) last week (11).

Owens recently set a new record for a country show at the Fresno Convention Center when he and his American Music Show pulled in a $10,000 gate. The show, which was the first for the Owens crew at the center, was emceed by deejays from San Joaquin Valley stations KOAD, KEAP, KFRE and KGEN.

Recently we ran a review from Hollywood on a 'live' show by Lester Flatt & Earl Scruggs, and more recently we ran a small correction article, which said that the review "should have named another act, Hearts & Flowers, in the headline." This notice was evidently cause for concern for Mrs. Earl Scruggs, who sent us quite a few clippings showing that Flatt & Scruggs were the headliners. We're sorry for the confusion, Mrs. Scruggs, what we meant was that the Hearts & Flowers should have been mentioned in the headline of the Cash Box review. The true headliners of the show were, of course, Messrs. Flatt & Scruggs.

One of the latest countrified gimmicks from Thurston Moore's Heather Enterprises is a little gadget which he calls the "Staroscope." The Staroscope is a wheel which contains photos, facts and information on 45 country stars, which can be sold by stations to country fans. Those outlets interested can contact the Heather setup at 3285 S. Wadsworth Blvd., Denver, Colo. 80227.

Stonewall Jackson and the Minute Men left Nashville on Jan. 19 for a road trip that was to keep them out until Feb. 14. (During his absence, his son, Turp, was heard asking, "Will daddy be old and gray and have wrinkles when he gets back?") After a four-day rest, the crew were back on the road until Feb. 26, when they returned for Nashville sessions on Feb. 28 and Mar. 1. Not much time to sit around, though. The boys are now on the road out Texas way.

WJJD-Chicago has announced that it will expand its country broadcasting time till 2:00 A.M., effective immediately. Announcement was made by station manager George Dubinetz in conjunction with the station's recently-celebrated second anniversary of country broadcasting. In a further announcement, operations director Chris Lane stated that Chuck Rowell has joined the outlet's deejay staff. . . . KOOO-Omaha has inaugurated a Top 30 format ("K-Triple-Ten"), to be programmed by newly appointed operations director Frank Lee. Station claims to rank third in the Omaha market. . . . KJOE-Shreveport has been recording at least an hour of its broadcasting each day for mailing to members of the Armed Forces in Viet Nam who hail from the Shreveport Metropolitan area. Each tape is specifically personalized for each serviceman, with comments from friends, family and local mayors. Cost of the operation is undertaken by the station. . . . The first Country Jubilee of 1967 by WQSN-Charleston was a roaring success, with a packed house on hand to see Porter Wagoner, Norma Jean, Little Jimmy Dickens & the Country Boys, Wilma Lee & Stony Cooper with the Clinch Mountain Clan, Vernon Oxford and Roger Hopkins. Emcee chores were handled by WQSN airmen. The station is planning its first anniversary celebration (Mar. 21), with contests, guest stars and a wrap-up Second Country Jubilee show set for Apr. 2. The show will feature Don Gibson, David Houston, Jim & Jesse and the Virginia Boys, Jack Green and Melba Montgomery. The station welcomes Gus Thomas as its newest deejay and also as its promotions manager. . . . KBUB-Sparks has shot up in just over a year to the number three spot in the Sparks-Reno area, but president Lisle Sheldon says he needs more and better service from record companies. The station would also like to get postcard-sized pictures of artists as giveaways in conjunction with the plugging of the artists' records. . . . KGBS is partially censoring the new Jimmy Dickens record, "Country Music Lover," by inserting the well-known razor commercial's "coo-coo" sound for the word "commode" in the line that refers to Johnny Cash as being "money kept in a commode." The station claims that the listeners have accepted the partial censorship, but Columbia Records is trying to have the original word reinstated. . . . Bob Jennings up at WBZA-Glens Falls, tells us that the station will be going FM around the beginning of April. As part of the new format, country music will be aired from midnight till 7 A.M. and till noon on Saturdays. The station, which will become one of the few FM outlets broadcasting country sounds, is anticipating a separate need for disks, especially album oldies. . . . On Feb. 25, WPLO-Atlanta staged a sell-out jamboree (over 1000 turned away) at the local City Auditorium with a program featuring Don Gibson, Connie Smith, Ferlin Husky, Simon Crum and David Houston, and WPLO emcees John Fox, Rick Fight, Mac Curtis, Johnny "K," Chuck Kirk and program director Red Jones. During the show a special presentation of the station's First Annual Country Artist of the Year Award was made to Bill Anderson, who made a surprise appearance to accept the award. (The surprise was on Bill, though, when some of his Po Boys turned up to back him on a few songs.) On the previous day, Bill was also in town for special legislative ceremonies which included (1) a Privileged Resolution introduced by Georgia State Representative Kent Dickinson to honor Bill. (2) The first Georgia State Senate Passport of the year being issued to the songster. The Senate resolution was introduced by Senators Hill, Minish, Lee and Miller, and was unanimously passed. (3) Bill's being named lieutenant colonel on the Governor's staff by Governor Lester Maddox.

Jim, Bonnie and Maxine Brown have recently concluded some new LP sessions, aimed at the religious field. The album, the group's second gospel venture, is due out sometime early in summer.

COUNTRY LP REVIEWS

JIMMY DEAN IS HERE!—Jimmy Dean—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3727

Jimmy Dean's first RCA Victor single, "Stand Beside Me," was a big hit for him, and his first RCA Victor LP stands a good chance of becoming an equally popular item. In addition to "Stand Beside Me," the set includes "There Goes My Last Reason For Living," "You Only Think Of Me," "I'll Never Stand In Your Way," and others. Watch this one move.

THE COUNTRY ALBUM—Carter Family—Columbia CL 2617/CS 9417

Done in their famous grass roots style, the Carter Family's latest LP should be a welcome addition to many a country record shelf. Included in the set are "While The World Goes Whizzin' By," "I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry," "These Boots Are Made For Walkin'," and a tune that Johnny Cash (an honorary member of the Carter Family), made famous, "I Walk The Line." Looks good.

PATSY CLINE'S GREATEST HITS—Decca DL 4854/74854

One of countryland's all-time favorite female vocalists, the late Patsy Cline is represented here with a package that's certain to score a bull's-eye with her legions of fans. The LP features the tunes most closely associated with Patsy, including "Walking After Midnight," "Crazy" and "I Fall To Pieces," among others. This one should prove to be steady catalog.

TRUCK DRIVIN' FOOL—Red Simpson—Capitol T/ST 2691

Favored for his songs of the road, Red Simpson here offers a set that vividly portrays the hard but richly varied life of the truck driver. Leading off the package with his recent noisemaker, "Diesel Smoke, Dangerous Curves," Red goes on to sing eleven other potent tracks including such while-back hits as "A Tombstone Every Mile," and the title tune, "Truck Drivin' Fool." Should do nicely.

A HURTIN' MAN—Freddie Hart & Heart Beats—Kapp KL 1513/KS 3513

Broken love is the subject of this haunting new album by Freddie Hart and the Heart Beats. Included in the set are such well-known country tunes as "Misty Blue," "How Long Has It Been," "There Goes My Everything," and others. Hart really puts a lot of feeling into this package, and it could generate chart action for him.

THE SONS OF THE PIONEERS SING CAMPFIRE FAVORITES—Sons of the Pioneers—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 3714

This imaginative new LP by the Sons of the Pioneers does a good job of recreating the atmosphere that surrounds a western campfire. Among the numbers on the set are "That Lucky Old Sun," "Leanin' On The Ole Top Rail," "When It's Springtime In The Rockies," and "Somewhere In Old Wyoming." Could be a big winner here.

THE COUNTRY-GOSPEL STYLE OF JOEL & LA BREESSKA—Joel & LaBreeska Hemphill—Canaan CA-4634-LP

Joel Hemphill penned most of the numbers on this sincere, hope-filled gospel set. Included in the selections are "He Filled A Longing," "I Wouldn't Take Nothing For My Journey," "It Might As Well Be Me," and "There's Been A Lot Of Changes." Watch this one. It could become a top-selling item in the gospel marketplace.

K-Ark Makes Expansion Moves

NASHVILLE—K-Ark Records owner and president John Capps, has informed Cash Box that the firm has just completed overall expansion program, which has been in effect since the beginning of the year.

In recent months, K-Ark has signed several new names to the roster, including Bobby Barnett, Curtis Wayne and Georgia Rae. Barnett, who formerly recorded for both the Sims and Presta labels, has been signed to a longterm contract with the label, and is scheduled to have his first deck released this week. Wayne, a former Musicor recording artist, is also a writer of note, having penned the oft-recorded "Love Bug," and "Stranger In My Arms," recently cut by brother K-Ark songster, Benny Benfield.

Georgia Rae, whose first K-Ark outing, "At War With The Blues," was a chart noisemaker, has just released her latest deck, "The Artist." Miss Rae recently signed with the Jimmy Klein agency for bookings.

In addition to signing new artists, the firm is also expanding in the publishing area with the establishment of an ASCAP pubbyery called Fairdealing Music. Further moves see Hoyle Miller moving in as Capp's assistant in screening new talent and material, as well as in the A&R department. He will also control all promotion for the label, supervising the activities of Harold Lindley of Wareshoals, S.C. and John (Chuck) Detterline of Coatsville, Pa.

Further deals have been made which will see all K-Ark releases and publishing activities handled in Germany by Paul C.R. Arends Verlag, while the Stateside operation of Stringtown Music (BMI) will be handled by D. J. Fontana.

Preparations are also in the works to open a one-stop, which will handle indie record labels, and will make records available to the consumer located within a 500-mile radius of the setup. Location of the one-stop has not been announced.

Acuff-Rose Inks Pact With Subar

NASHVILLE—Continuing to step up its activity overseas, Acuff-Rose Publications has just signed a collection agreement with the Subar Music Publishing Co. in Israel.

Subar, located in Ramath Hasharon, is headed by Dr. Ofira Bar-Elan. Terms of the new arrangement include an option to publish Acuff-Rose material in Israel, as well as the appointment of Subar as collection agent on performances of all Acuff-Rose songs in that country.

FOR LONG WITH LONG—These two Hubert Long Talent Agency signees have things going for them these days. Blond Tammy Wynette (l.), a transplanted Mississippian, is being acclaimed as one of the year's top femme finds especially in the light of her Epic waxing of "Apartment #9." Tammy is also a writer. Hank Mills is topping his writing career with his debut Decca offering, "Happy, Happy Songs"/"A Stitch In The Hand."

The best in gospel music in a powerhouse package that features songs like "Ten Thousand Angels," "Satisfied," "This Train," "May God be With You," "I Asked the Lord." LPM/LSP-3721

East Meets West(ern)

When Buck Owens and his trusty Buckaroos sashayed Westward toward the Far East (somehow it just doesn't sound right), proof positive that he found that country music is not hampered by such minor trivialities as language, custom or philosophical differences. (What could be more separated from a Bakersfield bronco than a Tokyo rickshaw driver??). In the top photo, they are seen arriving at Tokyo International Airport where the gang (left to right—Capitol A&R exec Ken Nelson; an unidentified Japanese talent exec; a partially concealed Gen. Jack McFadden; Buck; Willie Cantu and Tom Brumley) is greeted with flowers and the full red carpet treatment. Of course, there is the inevitable press conference, with the second photo showing a Japanese interpreter (left); Buckaroos Cantu and Don Rich; Buck and Wayne Wilson. After the workouts on stage, the boys take time out for recreation as the boys do some pickin' on a Japanese sami-san for the benefit of a local hillbilly. In the final photo, McFadden decides that no trip to the Orient is complete without a traditional chopstick meal. Unfortunately, being unable to manipulate the tricky sticks, McFadden was forced to do it the easy way.

Starday To Cover Canada Through Columbia Deal

NASHVILLE—Starday owner Don Pierce announced recently that exclusive distribution for his label throughout Canada will be handled by Columbia Records of Canada, Ltd., headed up by Robert Pampe. Included in the same deal will be Starday subsidiary labels, Nashville, Hollywood and Look, all of which were previously handled by Sparton of Canada. The deal is a 3-year contract bearing an accelerated program which is designed to boost the American label into a prominent position in the Canadian country market.

Pampe, vp and managing director of the Canadian outfit, asserted that his firm feels that the Canadian market will expand rapidly, and will more than keep pace with the market in the States, particularly in regards to the country area, which has consistently been strong north of the border.

Under the new deal, Columbia will release Starday product simultaneously with its release here, with the first releases under the new pact being Red Sovine's "I Didn't Jump The Fence" and the Willis Brothers' "Bob," both of which are already firmly entrenched on the American charts.

The initial release of album product will feature 30 Starday "Cream Of The Crop" LP's and 20 sets from the budget-priced Nashville line. Ac-

Little Darlin' Moves

NASHVILLE — Little Darlin' Records has moved into larger quarters at 101 W. 55th St., Suite 1-E, New York, N.Y. 10019. This move is a part of Little Darlin's separation from Audio Fidelity Records, which has been a distributor for the label since its beginning in April 1966.

According to its president, Aubrey Mayhew, Little Darlin' has now grown large enough to function on its own, independent of any other label for distribution.

The Little Darlin' distributors will remain the same.

The permanent headquarters for Little Darlin' Records is 802 18th Avenue South, Nashville, Tennessee 32703, but all correspondence should be addressed to the new office in New York.

According to an estimate from Pampe, Columbia will have over 100 Starday albums on the Canadian market by Spring.

Operational and merchandising plans to kick off the American product in Canada are currently being mapped out by Columbia marketing chief Fred Wilmot and Col. Jim Wilson, who handles similar duties at Starday. All advertising, reviews, promotion and consumer point of sale merchandising techniques will be coordinated for the most effective market "coverage."

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

SAM'S PLACE (1:59) [Blue Book, BMI—Owens, Simpson]

DON'T EVER TELL ME GOODBYE (2:31)
[Blue Book, BMI—Owens, Simpson]

BUCK OWENS (Capitol 5865)

The Tiger roars once again and the buyers are bound to sit up and take notice, as usual. Dubbing this one "Sam's Place," Buck uncorks a thunkin' goodie that may cross into the pop market. Watch out on top. "Don't Ever Tell Me Goodbye" is a twangy weeper.

MENTAL REVENGE (2:20) [Cedarwood, BMI—Tillis]

BORN TO LOVE YOU (2:30) [Wilderness, BMI—Starr]

WAYLON JENNINGS (RCA Victor 9146)

In the light of his current popularity, Waylon Jennings should do big things with "Mental Revenge." The funky, folk-ish ditty may carry a good many buyers. "Born To Love You" is a real slow-paced ballad, done up in Waylon's winning fashion.

JUKEBOX CHARLIE (2:20) [Mayhew, BMI—Paycheck, Mayhew]

SOMETHING IN YOUR WORLD (2:53) [Mayhew, BMI—Mathis]

JOHNNY PAYCHECK (Little Darlin' 0020)

The Paycheck did nicely with "Motel Time Again" and should go just as well with "Juke Box Charlie." This newie is a strong, wild-sounding session sure to garner plenty of coin. "Something In Your World" is a slowed-down tear-tugger.

CONSCIENCE KEEP AN EYE ON ME (2:35)
[Piccolo, BMI—Goza, Rhodes]

STILL (2:54) [Moss, Rose, BMI—Anderson]

NORMA JEAN (RCA Victor 9147)

Norma Jean follows up her "Don't Let That Doorknob Hit You" with an appealing updating of "Conscience Keep An Eye On Me Tonight." This one is a woes-drenched tale of a gal with little sales resistance. Undercut, "Still," is a plaintive tear-tugger.

BUD LOGAN (RCA Victor 9131)

● BRAVE NEW WORLD (2:10)
[Pamper, BMI—Rollins] Bud Logan of the Blue Boys does a nice solo on this easy-paced weeper. Could be chart action in store for the crew.

(B+) RUM DUM (1:59) [Acclaim, BMI—Jackson] The Blue Boys go the group route on the instrumental flip.

JIMMY DOYLE (Cathay 1154)

● MAR SUE ANN (2:15)
[Monte Verde, BMI—Doyle, Tuck] Here's a cute, sprightly session by Jimmy Doyle that may prove to be a winner with deejays and buyers. An attractive novelty item.

(B+) THAT'S WHY I CALLED (2:50) [Monte Verde, BMI—Doyle, Tuck] Change of pace to a tear-stained ballad.

GEORGIA RAE (K-Ark 728)

● THE ARTIST [Stringtown, BMI—Barfield] Liltin', poetic ballad could do good things for Georgia Rae. Give it a careful listen.

(B+) LET'S PRETEND [Stringtown, BMI—Jones] Haunting, heart-throbbing moaner over here.

CHERYL POOL (Paula 263)

● HIS WIFE (2:28) [Stuckey, BMI—Harper] Heavy sales and airplay might well be in the cards for this poignant, emotion-filled woeer by Cheryl Pool. Keep an eye on it.

(B+) HEART TROUBLE (2:48)
[Stuckey, BMI—Pool] Sorrowful but spirited finger-snapper on the flip.

MACK ALLEN SMITH (Jab 9001)

● NOT STRONG ENOUGH (2:45) [Smith-Mariteen, BMI—Millet] Sad, slow-paced love-ballad could make this deck happen for Mack Allen Smith. Deserves watching.

(B+) BIG SILVER TEARS (2:25)
[Beaik-Mariteen, BMI—Gilreath] Brisk-moving swinger with a steady beat.

DAVID PRICE (Hickory 1440)

● A FRAID OF THE FIRE (2:10) [Newkeys, BMI—Hall, Bahm] Tuneful, medium-paced ditty about a man who's afraid to fall in love. Could go places for David Price.

(B+) TAXI CAB DRIVER (2:19)
[Newkeys, BMI—Dudley, Auge, Johnson] Bouncy, bittersweet outing on this side.

Smith Re-Signs With Col; Law To Produce Sessions

NASHVILLE — Longtime country favorite Carl Smith has signed a new exclusive contract with Columbia, it was announced last week. Under the new deal, Smith will continue to be supervised by the label's former country A&R chief Don Law, who is now doing independent productions in Music City. The agreement between Law and Columbia for the production of Smith's sessions marks the first to be made by the vet producer since his recent retirement from the label after 41 years service.

Smith, whose past hits include such numbers as "Hey Joe," "If Tears Drop," "Let's Live A Little" and "Let's Walk Away Strangers," was honored during the 1966 Country Convention when he became the first artist to receive the Don Law Country Gentleman Award. Established by Columbia in honor of Law, the award is bestowed in recognition of professional achievement as well as outstanding personal character.

His latest single, "I Should Get Away Awhile (From You)" b/w "Mighty Day," has just been released.

musicals already to his credit. He just finished a book of poetry, "West of Virginia" that is in the process of being published.

BILLY EDD WHEELER, BUZ WILBURN

Last year, Wheeler discovered and produced a new country star, Leroy Pullins, whose first effort "I'm A Nut" hit both the national pop and country charts and won him a Grammy Award nomination.

Wheeler and his wife, Mary, reside at Swannanoa, N.C., where he works in his studio-office of Sleepy Hollow Music Corp.

Buz Wilburn will continue his office located at 719 17th Ave. So., Nashville, in the "heart of music row." Wilburn's office will also represent Sleepy Hollow Music Corp.

Wheeler, Wilburn Ink Personal Managers Pact

NASHVILLE — Billy Edd Wheeler, Kapp Record's artist and Buz Wilburn have jointly announced the signing of an Artist-Manager contract naming Wilburn personal manager for Wheeler's varied artistic interests.

Wheeler, noted songwriter for artists such as the Kingston Trio, Johnny Cash, Judy Collins, the New Christy Minstrels, Joan Baez, Judy Henske, Johnny Sea, Bobby Darin, the Greenwood County Singers and others also hit it big a while back with his own recording of "Ode To The Little Brown Shack Out Back."

Wheeler's activities are not restricted to song writing and recording, however. He is a creative playwright with seven plays and two

BOYD PETERS & FRONTIERSMEN (Country Jubilee 577)

(B+) I'LL NEVER EVER FALL IN LOVE AGAIN (2:21) [Rally, BMI—Peters] Catchy, rhythmic weeper.

(B) TWO SILHOUETTES (3:31)
[Ralph's Radio, BMI—Peters] Heartfelt, mid-tempo tear-tugger.

DOUG WARREN (Sierra 167)

(B+) I'LL TAKE THE HEART-ACHES (2:25) [Wirt, Samba Lama, BMI—Alves] Plaintive, shuffling love-ode.

(B) COMING HOME TO YOU (1:58) [Wirt, BMI—Warren, Martin] Bouncy, energetic toe-tapper.

HAL SOUTHERN (Sand 408)

(B+) YOU GOT A MAN ON YOUR HANDS (2:02) [Sage & Sand, SESAC—Beck] Zestful, thumping romancer.

(B) NO ONE WANTS TO BE ALONE (2:44) [Sage & Sand, SESAC—Beck] Slow, sincere effort about man's need for love.

Ohio Records Bows

HUDSON, OHIO — A new label, Ohio Records, has just been formed with E. P. Delaney as president. Ohio's address is P. O. Box 655, Hudson, Ohio 44236. Originally called Deco Records, the label changed its name because of difficulties encountered within the industry.

Ohio's first release, already on the market is "Echo Valley" b/w "Pardon Me While I Cry," by the "swiss miss yodeler," Ethel Delaney.

TROY FERGUSON (Arzee 67232)

(B+) WHY'D YOU PUT ME DOWN (2:12) [Amigo, ASCAP—Karol, McGeehan] Rhythmic, fast-paced weeper.

(B) I'M ALL BETTER NOW (2:30) [Rex Zario, BMI—Smith, Vernik, Ferguson] Shuffling, reflective love-ode.

ETHEL DELANEY (Ohio 1168)

(B+) ECHO VALLEY (2:28) [Central Songs, BMI—Delaney] Bright, bouncy swinger spotlighting Ethel Delaney's skillful yodel.

(B) PARDON ME WHILE I CRY (2:47) [Carwin, BMI—French, Campbell] Gripping, emotion-filled tear-tugger.

NORVILLE DOLLAR (Nugget 255)

(B+) IT ALL CAME HOME (2:16) [Lonzo & Oscar, BMI—Gilbreath, Logan] Sorrowful mid-tempo ballad.

(B) SECRETS OF A FOOL (2:40) [Lonzo & Oscar, BMI—Rhodes, Allen] Same here.

Hear! Hear! JIMMY DEAN Is Here

His first RCA Victor album!

TV's spokesman for country music has put his special brand on this great recording—and it's a humdinger! Recent guest shots on TV, along with personal appearances around the country, are constantly adding new fans to this artist's tremendous following. LPM/LSP-3727

Acuff-Rose Signs Ledo

NASHVILLE—Wesley Rose, president of Acuff-Rose Publications, has just announced the signing of Les Ledo to an exclusive song-writing contract with the firm. Ledo, who wrote "Cotton Candy," Al Hirt's while-back smash, has also been a recording artist with Laurie Records under the name of Russ Damon.

A number of Ledo's recent compositions, not previously assigned to any publisher, have been turned over to Acuff-Rose, and the writer is currently completing work on several new tunes, among them "You Don't Even Know The Meaning Of The Word," and "Cast The First Stone."

Zanetis To Head Purcell's Nashville Music Activities

NASHVILLE—Well-known tunesmith Alex Zanetis has been named to head up the Nashville music activities of the Gerry Purcell organization, according to an announcement made last week by Purcell's N.Y. office. Among the firms which Zanetis will represent will be Hirt Music and Five Sisters Music (BMI), where he will take over as professional manager, submitting material to A&R men for recording.

Zanetis, who has written such tunes as "I'm Gonna Change Everything" and "Guilty," was voted as being one of the top writers of the year in 1963.

Eddy Arnold Proves To Be Big $$ Attraction

Scores With 1/4 Mil Gate In Houston Weekend

NASHVILLE—Eddy Arnold's name has been used in conjunction with broken attendance records for so long that it hardly seems newsworthy anymore, but recently the well-loved country songster went too far!! In a weekend show at the Houston Astro-dome during the recent Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, Arnold set an all-time attendance record, drawing a total of 102,011 people in 4 shows. The huge crowd also set another record, shelling out a whopping quarter million dollars to hear the Victor recording artist croon his stuff.

The figures released by the promoters of the concerts, held Mar. 4&5, showed that a crowd of 23,868 people poured into the Stadium for Arnold's afternoon show (Mar. 4) while the house was mobbed with a 41,956 person assemblage for the evening performance. On the next day, another 20,495 ticket-holders were on hand to witness the daytime Arnold in action, while the evening performance was viewed by 15,692 country music lovers.

The exact box office figures for the 4-show weekend showed a gross of $257,235, with ticket prices for the show scaled from $1 (for unreserved seats) to $4. The Saturday performances, believed to have brought in the largest single day attendance figures for paid concerts by a single entertainer in the history of show business, grossed $160,620, while the two Sunday shows combined for a total figure of $96,615.

According to Lewis M. Pierce, Jr., promoter of the concerts, Arnold had the crowd stirred up to the point where, at one time during the concerts, the fans leaped to their feet for a 10-minute standing ovation. It was also reported that one of his most requested numbers was "Lonely Again," which is now climbing rapidly up the country charts.

The only other act on the bill was a supporting group, the Kids Next Door.

Country Academy Awards See Dino 'Man Of Year'

HOLLYWOOD—The International Ballroom of the local Beverly Hilton Hotel was the scene of the much-heralded Second Annual Awards show of the Academy of Country/Western Music last week, with 1100 people on hand to view the activities. The highlight of the event was the presentation of the "Country Music Man Of The Year Award," which went to well-known singer/actor Dean Martin.

Twenty other awards were also presented, including the Top Male Vocalist Award, which went to Merle Haggard and the Top Female Vocalist Award, presented to Bonnie Guitar. As far as individual honors went, Haggard shared the spotlight with Billy Mize, as both artists copped a pair of trophies. Mize pulled down honors for "Favorite TV Personality" and "Most Promising Male Vocalist," while Haggard's second wreath was shared with his wife, Bonnie Owens, as the two were named "Top Vocal Dru.ms."

"Apartment #9," composed by Bobby Austin, Fuzzy Owen and Johnny Paycheck, won the "Song Of The Year" title, while the "Best Band" Award was given to Buck Owens' Buckaroos. Cathy Taylor copped the "Most promising Female Vocalist" spot. "Best A&R Producer" award went to Ken Nelson for the second straight year.

In addition to narrator Lorne Greene and a host of other well-known celebrities who acted as presentors, seven of Country Music's favorite performers entertained during the festivities. The artist(s), as they appeared, were: Sons of the Pioneers, Tex Ritter, Ray Price, Bonnie Guitar, Tex Williams Sheb Wooley and Roger Miller.

The historic house of Chappell & Co. Ltd., so tragically destroyed by fire in May, 1964, has been rebuilt and is now one of the most modern buildings in London's Bond Street. The Chappell story began in 1811 and was acquired by Louis Dreyfus in 1929. Through the years it has built up one of the finest and biggest catalogs in the world and established offices in practically every country of the world. The new building symbolizes yet another phase in the Chappell expansion.

GREAT BRITAIN

Larry Page of Page One Records just back from a four-day visit to the States where he had meetings with Gerry Wexler of Atlantic Records, Murray Deutsch of United Artists and Jerry Shifrin of Calla as well as Charlie Fach of Fontana Records who report good sales on the Troggs latest American release "Give It To Me." From Trippot Music he acquired many songs for his artists, and discussions were held with George Struth of Quality Records of Canada with a view to the Page One product being released in that territory. Page was delighted to learn that his own record "Waltzing to Jazz" issued in the States on Calla was getting such good reaction and an album "The Larry Page Orchestra" is now set for release. Page set up an American visit for the Troggs from April 2nd thru 10th taking in radio, television promotion dates as well as concert dates. Following their week in America the Troggs will visit the Philippines and a Canadian visit is also being negotiated. From April 14th to 16th, the boys play France followed by Italy (May 10th-14th) and three weeks in Scandinavia in June. Page's aim is to get his artists full international coverage, and with the American tour fixed, it can be said that the Troggs have a truly international image. Having set the Troggs on their way, Page is now giving all out promotion to his new group the Loot whose first single "Baby Come Closer" has been issued in the U.K. (Page One), France (Page One), Germany (Hansa), Sweden (Page One), Holland (Phonogram) and Italy (Ricordi). Negotiations are under way for American record releases and a possible personal visit in the summer.

The San Remo winner "Non Pensare A Me" acquired by Chappells and re-titled "Time Alone Will Tell" with lyrics by Norman Newell has been recorded by new boy Malcolm Roberts on RCA. Ronnie Aldrich has waxed an instrumental version on Decca, and in America Connie Francis has recorded it for MGM. From the "Spy With a Cold Nose" film, Famous Chapell have two singles of the title song by Jerry Murads Harmonicats on CBS and Horst Jankowski on Mercury. Soundtrack album is issued by CBS. Another film score handled by Famous Chappell is "Funeral In Berlin" starring Michael Caine which has a soundtrack album on RCA. Hal Shaper and Herbert Kretzmar have penned English lyrics to the Kommel Elfers title music which has been recorded by the Spinners on Fontana and the County Set on Polydor. Chappells have the Hugo Montenegro-Buddy Kaye score on the new Otto Preminger film "Hurry Sundown," and there are eight singles of the title song including one by Hugo Montenegro (RCA), Pat Boone (Dot) and Harry Belafonte (RCA). The film version of the successful stage show "How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" arrives in London March 29th starring Robert Morse and Michelle Lee with a score published by Frank Music. Soundtrack album on RCA.

Bert Corri of Francis Day & Hunter delighted with the transatlantic success of "There's A Kind Of Hush" by Herman's Hermits. He is also looking forward to the arrival of Reprise artist Trini Lopez who flies in March 10th for radio and TV promotion of "Gonna Get Along Without You Now."

After a 2½-year run in Lndon, composer Ron Grainer is taking his "Robert and Elizabeth" musical to America where it has a Detroit opening in August followed by Baltimore and Toronto and opens on Broadway in November. The score is published here by Erle Music and June Bronhill who played the female lead in London will be recreating her role in America. Meantime, Grainer, in collaboration with Ned Sherrin, is currently working on a new musical based on the life of famous music hall star Marie Lloyd which is scheduled for a London premiere next year.

Arranger Johnny Hawkins has joined Polydor Records as producer and record co-ordinator. Hawkins was previously Musical Director to The Grade Organization and arranged most of the summer seasons for such artists as Cliff Richard, the Batchelors, Frank Ifield, etc.

Another move by CBS in strengthening their A&R Department is the appointment of Mike Smith who, for the past four years, has been with The Decca Record Co. Smith will record Brian Poole, the Applejacks and the Tremeloes who were with him at Decca and have recently switched to CBS. He will continue to record Dave Berry for the Decca label.

Fred Jackson of Fanfare Music currently in Canada and America acquiring material for his British music company and placing copyrights in the U.S.A. Currently the Pussyfoot are notching up healthy sales with their Decca single "My Hyde," and Jackson will be promoting the single which has just been issued in the States on London.

Quickies: Cat Stevens has first Deram album "Matthew and Son" tagged after his hit single which is still in the British charts after eight weeks. . . . Prolific songwriter that he is, Stevens is responsible for all twelve tracks. . . . Dave Berry revives the old country song "Strangers" issued on Decca and published by Southern Music. . . . Indie producer has signed Lulu to five-year recording contract. . . . Other artists now under contract to Most are Billy Fury and the Yardbirds. . . . Ex-Yardbird Geoff Beck makes solo debut on Columbia with "Hi Ho Silver Lining." . . . "This Is My Song" still topping Best Selling Sheet Music Lists for Leeds Music. . . . EMI hosted reception for new British group the Pink Floyd making their psychedelic debut with "Arnold Layne" issued on Columbia published by Dunmo Music. . . . "Hi Ho Silver Lining" also covered here by the Attack on Decca. . . . Music for Pleasure have issued an album of "Fiddler on the Roof" by the Alyn Ainsworth Orchestra. . . . Just back from a continental trip Jimi Hendrix all set to promote his latest Polydor single "Purple Haze." . . . "I'm Gonna Get Me A Gun" is the title of the next Cat Stevens single on Deram. . . . Congratulations to Englebert Humperdinck on reaching No. 1 in British charts with "Release Me" issued on Decca and published by Burlington Music. . . . From Herb Alpert's "What Now My Love" album, Pye Records are issuing the "If I Were A Rich Man" track as a single on Reprise.

AUSTRALIA

By the time this gets into print the Seekers will be back home for a brief visit with their families and some personal appearances; the highlight of which will be their performance at "Music For The People" in the Myer Music Bowl in Melbourne during the annual "Moomba" Festival. Last time the Seekers appeared at the bowl they attracted an audience of better than 100,000. The Seekers will tape at least one television spectacular while they are here. At the conclusion of their visit the group will head towards Montreal where they will appear at the Australian display at Expo '67.

World-renowned Norman Luboff Choir is scheduled to tour Australia for a concert series in May. In anticipation of the visit, RCA are making a big drive on the entire record catalog of the Choir with special emphasis on the albums "The Latin Luboff"; "Great Movie Themes"; "Grand Tour" and "On The Country Side". New from RCA is a locally-recorded package "The Settlers Sing Songs Of The Snowy Mountains" featuring, of course, the Settlers. Records by an English group of the same name are also being released here.

Sunshine records should have a runaway best-seller with the package "Normie's Hit Happenings" which features popular Normie Rowe with fourteen of his biggest hits to date. The set is pressed and distributed by Festival records on behalf of Sunshine.

Astor records, via the Go!! label, are out with a budget-priced album called "Oh Monah" by local group the Cherokees. The set is named after the recent national hit for the group. Other local product from the same label includes Billy Adams with "Change Your Mind" and "I Fall To You"; and the Rhythm Rockets with "Just You Wait And See" c/w "Summer Has Gone."

April 17, 1967, is going to be an important date for Australian radio, for this is the date from which both sides of a telephone conversation may go 'direct to air'; with the outside party's conversation subject to a seven second delay via tape mechanisms which is designed to eliminate the possibility of the 'wrong' material being broadcast. The Postmaster General's Department which controls all telephone services in Australia has set April 17 as the starting date of the two-sided phone operations for radio. The scheme is expected to result in a whole rash of talk programs and segments via the phone; it should also result in some interesting radio material.

RCA have made special rush-release here of the second album by the Monkees—"More Of The Monkees." . . . It is issued in both mono & stereo.

Bev Harrell, who scored very well nationally with her first release for EMI in "What Am I Doing Here," now has her second single out on the HMV label with "Come On Over To Our Place" and "You Don't Love Me No More."

New local discs from W & G include Margy Bayes with "I Wanna Wear My New Bikini." Tony Henry is out with "Standing Watch" and "She Cried." The company is busy promoting their big American hit by the Casinos, "Then You Can Tell Me Goodbye."

CANADA

Hal Ross has chart listings right across Canada for his K-R outing by the Mandella. "Opportunity" is making it big all across Canada. The success of the disc is directly traceable to the extensive promotion campaign undertaken on its behalf by Phonodisc.

Peter and Gordon played to a full house (3/3) at the Fort Williams Gardens. This was the only Canadian date of their current North American tour.

Appearing on the same bill with P&G was a good group from Duluth, Minnesota, the Titans. They have a new disc, just released on the local label, Sound Of Music, that has won high praise from Dave Gordon, Program Director of WEBC, Duluth, Gordon, and now the Bossmen at CKPR in the Lakehead, are playing "Need You," a good beat ballad. The flip side of the record, "Fun Seekers." The group will appear with the Peter and Gordon show on most of its mid-western U.S. stops, booked by Len Naymark of Duluth's Variety Theatre.

RCA Victor in Canada have two new sides out by the Monkees. They are going the usual Monkee success route at an astounding rate of speed. "A Little Bit Of You, A Little Bit Of Me" b/w "She Hangs Out" are filling the airwaves in Canadian towns large and small. This will be a monster saleswise in Canada for sure. Another RCA biggie that has Bill Patterson all smiles is the great thing from Dunwich by the Woolies, "Who Do You Love." It's a sure thing for top ten spots on every Canadian station.

Paul Clark is very excited about the latest on Verve-Folkways by the Paupers. The group has been doing some big air play and sales business in southern Ontario and Montreal with their last outing, and now figure to develop national action with the new side. "Simple Deed" is the one that have the folks at Caravan all set for some brisk business.

Best LP package in a long time must certainly be the great Ray Charles set on ABC Paramount. Larry Page has sent special copies of "A Man And His Soul" to Canadian deejays, asking them to assist in the international celebration of Ray Charles Radio Week. Air play on the new LP has been phenomenal. "Let's Fall In Love" by Peaches and Herb appears to be in line for a lot of air play in Canada. It'll be on Date from Columbia.

HE REALLY GETS AROUND—The 'Man Of La Mancha' gets around quite a bit as shown in this window display from Sayvettes Department Store in Toronto. The road company of the mainstemmer recently closed a 3-week engagement at Toronto's O'Keefe Centre. Phonodisc is promoting the original cast package in Canada.

Immediate Ends Ties With Philips; Inks Multi-Deals With Small Faces

LONDON—Andrew Oldham's hot Immediate label has ended its 18-month old distribution agreement with Philips Records. According to terms of the settlement, Philips will continue to distribute all existing stocks of Immediate product and continue to produce and distribute repertoire in cassette form, the first of which, "The Art Of Chris Farlowe," has just been issued.

News of the termination of the deal came immediately after the announcement that Immediate had signed the Small Faces to an indie production contract, although the group will continue to appear on Decca. First single under the new deal is "I Can't Make It," penned by group members Steve Marriott and "Plonk" Lane, who will also act as producers, with Immediate Productions acting as liaison and counsel between the group and Decca. In partnership with Immediate, the Small Faces have also formed their own publishing company to which all members of the group are signed to long-term writer pacts. Marriott and Lane have also signed exclusive producers contracts with Immediate to produce acts for the production company.

Peer-Southern Acquires 4 New Farres Songs

NEW YORK—Provi Garcia, Latin manager of Peer-Southern, has announced that four new songs have just been acquired from well-known composer Osvaldo Farres: "El Mundo Lo Eres Tu," "Egoismo," "Me Alejo De Ti," and "Corazon De Piedra." Farres is best known for his "Quizas, Quizas, Quizas (Perhaps, Perhaps, Perhaps)," and "Tres Palabras (Without You)."

Peak Handling C-P

NEW ZEALAND—Peak Records has been named to handle the catalog of Cameo-Parkway Records of the U.S. in New Zealand. The announcement was made by Jacqueline A. Cleff, disk promotion manager of Peak.

More Chalpin Deals

NEW YORK—Ed Chalpin of PPX Productions in New York has signed production deals with the following labels: CBS France, PMP Belgium and Belter Discos-Spain.

Therese Steinmetz To Vienna Fest

HOLLAND—The song "Ring Dinga Ding" by Gerrit den Braber and composer Johnny Holshuyzen (publishers: Altona, Amsterdam) was selected by the Dutch public to be sung by Therese Steinmetz at the coming 1967 Eurovison Song Festival, April 8, in Vienna. Philips rush-released, directly after the results of the public TV Poll, the song on a special single b/w "Sing" which came on the second place of the 6 pre-selected songs. Lovely contralto Therese Steinmetz, a Conservatory singer and also a graduate of the School of Dramatic Arts in Amsterdam, turned to musical and chanson some years ago with tremendous success. Philips has released her first LP album entitled "Therese's Song Festival."

Liberty Forms Indie Label In Munich

MUNICH—Liberty Records GmbH has been formed in Munich. The new company, finalized at a recent meeting here of Al Bennett, president of the American company, and Liberty vice presidents Sy Zucker and Ron Kass, will handle its own production, promotion and administration under the direction of general manager Siegfried Loch, former Philips producer who will move from Hamburg.

Local German language production is also planned. Vic Dana has already waxed his first German single and Loch also produced a new international LP with the artist called "Foreign Affairs."

The first local artist to ink a worldwide Liberty pact is jazzman Klaus Doldinger, who will be released on Liberty's Pacific Jazz label in the U.S.

Everything's Rosy For Armen In Russia

PARIS—CBS artist Rosy Armen recently gave four concerts in Moscow and so successful were they that she has been invited to undertake a 55-day tour of the USSR which will take in Moscow, Leningrad, Erivan and the main cities of the USSR and Armenia. Meanwhile she will appear at the Paris Olympia for four days commencing April 28 and a tour of the States is being negotiated.

Tom Jones: Talk Of The Town Smash

LONDON—Tom Jones made his debut at the Talk of the Town recently and was a winner all the way. The Welsh are renowned for their musical ability and he certainly gave a new dimension to this nationalistic talent on the opening night. On stage for nearly an hour he treated the audience to 'in person' performances of his well known hits including "It's Not Unusual," "Green Green Grass Of Home" and his latest single "Detroit City." Tom Jones was in fine voice throughout the act and the audience warmly appreciated every minute of it.

WAY UP IN SWEDEN—The Byrds visited Sweden on a recent tour of Europe and Scandinavia. They were introduced to the press at a reception held by Philips-Sonora. Before leaving Sweden, the Byrds taped radio and TV shots. Philips-Sonora handles the group's recordings in Sweden.

BRAZIL

CBS DO Brasil introduces new chantress Katia Cilene via a single interpreting "Meu Bem Só Gosta De Mim" b/w "Eu E Elezinho." Also being released, a new album of much appreciated organist Lafayette, another sure best-seller for CBS. The twosome Leno & Lilian (among today's favorites of the teen set) have their latest album which carries their name enjoying good sales. Also well accepted after release, the album cut by Luiz Carlos Clay of the new teen cast of the company. Folk music for the June Popular Fest is represented by an album called "Pau de Sebo" by popular Marines. "Você Fala Demais" and "Encontrei O Amer" have been cut by teen group Os Jovens in their latest single. Proving that he is still the "King" of the teen set in this country, Roberto Carlos is in number one spot in the local charts in all categories. Congratulations Roberto!

Companhia Brasileira de Discos tells us an album titled "O Grande Festival," with the 12 top numbers of the First Rio International Fest" with arrangements by Maestro Gaya and his Orchestra. The label is Fontana. For the Polydor label, the new teen group the Mugstones (of TV appearance fame) is being presented in a "single" with strong number "A Grande Parada." Appearing well in Rio and São Paulo is the LP "Gold Vault Of Hits" cut by the 4 Seasons for Philips, which include "I've Got You Under My Skin," "Tell It To The Rain," "Opus 17" and "Like A Rolling Stone." Very strong in Rio de Janeiro radio programs, a Polydor recording by João Luiz, with "Cara De Pão." The recently-released single by Jair Rodrigues with Carnaval hit "Máscara Negra"—backed with "Onde Estão Os Carnavais"—is also being released in Perú and is being requested from other countries. U.S. hit "98.6" in a Mercury original by chanter Keith will soon be released in single.

Myrna, of the Fermata Group Promo Department, proudly presented us the first disc released in this country of the San Remo Festival. This album besides the awarded number "Non Pensare A Me" by Claudio Villa—has 13 other fest numbers by Carmen Villani, Fred Bongusto, Sergio Endrigo, Gianni Pettenati, Marisa Sannia, Franco Tozzi, Marisa Brando, Mara Danesi, Gabriella Marchi, Juniors and Antonio Marchese. This is an original "Cetra" recording released through the Fermata disk label. More releases of the supplement include a single of the successful "Sergio Mendes Brasil 66" album, with top hits "Chove Chuva" b/w "Slow Hot Wind". Two other important singles with Italian chanter Adriano Celentano ("Mondo In Mi 7" c/w "Una Festa Sui Prati"). Also two best-selling albums were released by Fermata: one brings the chart album "S.R.O." by international top orchestra of Herb Alpert & His Tijuana Brass; the other has French chanter-composer Michel Polnareff in his first album here, and including already chart presence of "Love Me, Please Love Me" and "La Poupée Qui Fait Non." This is a DISQUEZ AZ original, while the former LP is from represented A&M.

GERMANY

When American Dave Miller decided to hit the German record market a few years ago with low-priced LP's, no one expected his small firm with unknown artists to cause much of a furor in buyer's circles, but the methods of Miller International have changed the whole record business in this country. Low price meant at that time any 12" LP selling under the normal price of $4.50 (DM 18) and Dave was retailing at about $2.45 (DM 9.80) for high quality but on name artist product in the classical as well as the pop field. He was so successful that now every major record company in Germany has a low priced $2.45 line to compete with Dave's Somerset records. Now Mr. Miller is once again stirring the market with a $1.25 (DM 5) line, the new Europa label with the initial releases containing 32 LP's in the pop, classical and folk field and 13 children's LP's. All are in compatible stereo as are most of the LP's released in Germany by all firms today. The main question now is will the major labels again follow suit and come out with a $1.25 LP line? Several majors have already put out special samplers and special releases for $1.25. The single record in Germany now retails for $1.19!

German Vogue has come out with a bi-monthly magazine called "Disc Jockey" which is geared for the hundreds of deejays now working in discotheques and who are very responsible for his on this market today. The mag is sent out free.

Peer Music is going all out for "Epistle To Dippy," the new Donovan disc. Hans Gerig is busy pushing "This Is My Song" from Petula Clark in English and German which looks like hitsville all over the world.

German Vogue has released the first German waxing by Niel Christian. Niel had his first chart appearance with "That's Nice" in English.

Sandy Posey of MGM visited Germany for the first time where she recorded her first German waxing and appeared in the TV'er "Beat Club" where she did her smash hit "Single Girl." Stigwood-Yaskiel Int. is handling publicity for Sandy here.

Not only German music is selling well these days, but also German music instruments. The production for music instruments rose by 2.5 million dollars in the past year to a total of 65 million dollars. The piano industry exports 43% of its output and the other instruments, especially the violin are exporting 60% of their produce.

That's it for this week in Germany.

FRANCE

We listened at the Olympia to the new Eddy Mitchell songs: "Bye Bye Prêcheur" and "Je Ne Me Retournerai Pas." Eddy recorded them for immediate release through a Barclay EP.

CBS artist Rosy Armen is now coming up in France after her very successful tours in the USSR. She will be the lead of the Olympia during four days the end of April. Rosy just released an EP with French treatment of "Milica" (Si On Se Ressemble) "Games Heart Lovers Play" (Les Jeux Des Amoureux) and "Cosa Importe" (Y'aura Toujours Des Roses).

Les Nouvelles Editions Eddie Barclay just completed a deal with Columbia Screen Gems for publishing in France musical themes in original version and French treatment. First will be from the Matt Helm film "Murderer's Row." A recording will be done with French treatment of the main song "I'm Not The Marrying Kind." This publishing company also has Bob Dylan's catalog for France. "Capri C'est Fini," the first big Hervé Vilard hit (which is published by the Nouvelles Editions Barclay), has been recorded in the States by Lannie Kazan and Jane Morgan.

The new Jacques Demy film, "Les Demoiselles de Rochefort," is debuted this week on Parisian screens, with music written by Michel Legrand. Demy and Legrand were the team for "Les Parapluies De Cherbourg."

HOLLAND

Capitol this week released "Rock And Roll Gypsies," first single by the Hearts and Flowers. Label chief Roel Kruyze also reported the release of Nancy Wilson's latest album "Nancy-Naturally" and Maria Cole's initial LP "Love Is A Special Feeling." The Capitol Dept. of Grammophonhouse is now preparing a special Buck Owens campaign.

Parlophone rushed out new repertoire of the Action ("Never Ever") and Simon Dupree ("Reservations") plus its starcrowded Shand, Jimmy & His Band album "Gateway To The Forth."

Vic Dana did a few radio gigs here last week and is now climbing the charts with his latest hit "Fraulein."

This month Negram Delta introduced on the Havoc Label a sensational new group the Honest Men who succeeded in making a record of international class. It's a great new sound with a Latin American backing. Both songs "In My Room" and "I've Been Wrong" were recorded in Sound Push, a new studio. Radio Veronica tipped the single for the top of the chart.

The Cat Stevens composition "I Found Love" will be the third tremendous hit in Holland for David Garrick. The very popular singer is going to be the big success of 1967. The English and the German version of the marvellous hit "This Is My Song" of Petula Clark are having enormous sales. A French version, "C'est Ma Chanson," will be issued very soon. Also newly released: "Release Me" of the Everly Brothers, "Sit Down, I Think I Love You" of the Mojo Men, and a very good "Detroit City" by Arthur Alexander.

Together with Hitweek and Mr. Dirkse, Negram-Delta organised a Fats Waller Day on March 18. Some 20 beat groups have studied over two months on 3 Fats Waller songs. The group with the best presentation is rewarded a recording contract. A jury consisting of Veronica's Gerard de Vries, Harmen Siezen of Tros-radio, Hitweek's Willem de Ridder, Negram-Delta's Hans I Kellerman a.o., will make the final decision.

Dutch singer Conny van Bergen flew to London to make her first recording for British Decca. Conny recorded "I Only Want To Love You" (new Joop Portengen composition with lyrics by Marcel Stelman) and "Salty Dog."

Ember Records, a leading British independent record company, are getting plenty of activity for their product in Holland. Bovema are about to release the internationally-known model Twiggy with her first Ember release "Beautiful Dreams" which will be jointly promoted by Bovema and local music publishers, Chappel & Co. Plans are being made to bring Twiggy over to Holland for a press conference. Ember also reports excellent results from Bovema's distribution of their low-priced budget LP "F.A." series which includes artists like Sarah Vaughan; Duke Ellington; Errol Garner; Billy Eckstine, etc.

Iramac, Holland's growing independent record company, is extremely happy about its new project, a session, recorded live at the second Dutch blues festival. With an enormous response the album "H2O In Blue," containing blues recordings by Peter Kléncke, Blues and Sons, Ben Hendricks, Indiscrimination among others, made at the festival, was released last week. Included are traditional songs as "Louise," "Outskirts Of Town" and also new works which are a further approval of great talent.

ITALY

Just out, a new single of an old American success of Ray Peterson coupled with a new piece especially written for Michele (RCA) by Bardotti Reverberi: "Quando Parlo Di Te" and "Dite A Laura Che L'amo."

Also of particular notice is the new Donovan LP which includes some of his best renditions.

Another version of the fabulous piece "Un Uomo, Una Donna" is now recorded by Eddie Barclay (RCA Italiana). In Italy, the music of this wonderful French film is one of the best successes of the 1966/67 Winter season.

Giorgio Gaber—one of our nicest artists—is having excellent success with his "Allora Dai" (Rifi).

Flo Sandon, a performer who can make lyrics pulse with meaning, will have her latest "Bevi Con Me" (RT Club) take part in the Un Disco Per L'Estate contest which launches the Summer songs.

JAPAN

Looking through the new pop singles, "Chiisana Shiawase" or "Little Happiness" of Wild Ones is highly recommended by most of the pop critics. The tune is the second release for the group. The first release was "Omoideno Nagisa" on Capitol which became a big smash hit here. R&B seems to need more time to become more popular here in Japan. However, Nippon Victor and Teichiku Records seems to put a strong forte on it. Teichiku Records released three R&B numbers, and Nippon Victor released two. Among them: "Looking With My Eyes/Only The Strong Only The Brave" with Dionne Warwick on Scepter; "I've Got To Be Strong/Where Did She Stay" with Chuck Jackson.

Thus, at present, every record company is likely to release hit tunes of America and England, among which expected hit tunes released this month are "Snoopy Vs. The Red Baron" of Royal Guardsmen on Laurie, "Georgy Girl" of Seekers on Capitol, "Green Green Grass Of Home" of Tom Jones on Parrot, "Good Thing" of Paul Revere and Raiders on Columbia, "I Can't Control Myself" of Trogs on Philips, "Manxman" of Spotnicks on Polydor, and "Balla Balla" of Rainbows on Columbia.

In wake of Philips of Japan, Toshiba Records, and Columbia Records, Teichiku Records started to release pop originals on Union labels in February, the first release of which is the "Akarino Naimachi" or "The Town Without Light" with artists the Fingers. It was reported to have sold 30,000 copies within a fortnight, while the second release is "Kazeno Ballad" or "Ballad Of Wind" with Kinya Kitaoji which is a theme song of TV drama and reportedly sold more than 50,000 copies also within a fortnight.

MEXICO

Hoping to sell another 100,000 copies (as he did with "El Despertar"), Marco Antonio Muñoz recorded at RCA the theme "Maria, Linda Maria" (Spanish version of "Aquamarine") b/w "Celoso."

Two new Orfeon recordings out last week. The songs are "See See Rider" and "Chiquita Mia" with new group Los Grecos, and "Come Girl" with "Super-ticiosa" with Los Crazy Birds.

Among latest recordings released by DUSA company are Verve LP's "Big Band Bossa Nova" and "Stan Getz With Laurindo Almeida." On Polydor, the new tropical combo of Sonora América of Baldomero Roa, and on MGM an album by Sandy Posey. In the extended and single field there are "Love Me" and "Crazy Baby" with Bobby Hebb; on Polydor an EP with Los Niños Alegres and "Paseo de las Palmas" and "Summer Samba" with Los Dominic.

Mario Freidberg, vice president of Tizoc Records, informs us that in a few days the second album of Sergio Mendes will be out. Mario's publishing house "Tocali" signed with French publishing "Rideau Ruge" to collect rights of the song "Et Maintenant." The Tizoc catalog signed two new rock and roll groups under the name of Los Haffa and Los Trixon. From Fermata Mexicana, we learn that they have the rights of the popular songs "Teresa" and "La Banda."

Since the death of Mexican idol Pedro Infante (April 15, 1957), Peerless has released 40 of his long plays, 25 of them have sold more than 100,000 copies.

ARGENTINA

The wedding of Palito Ortega to cinemactress Evangelina Zalazar made headlines in all the newspapers and fan magazines last week in nearly unprecedented coverage with entire pages devoted to the details of the ceremonies. There was a giant party at the Tiro Federal celebrating the event with nearly all the artistic world present. As a sort of associated celebration, Palito's "La Felicidad" reached to top of the charts. Palito has been Argentina's top teen artist for five years.

The Instituto Verificador de Grabaciones has compiled a list of the records and artists most played by radio stations during the past weeks. The titles that received most of the promotion are "Ciao Amore Ciao," "La Banda," "Estoy de Rodriguez," "La Felicidad" and "Non Pensare A Me." The artists receiving most exposure were Los Panchos, Frank Sinatra, Jose Feliciano, Tito Alberti and Juan Ramon. A detailed report, day by day, is made available by the IVG to record companies and publishers as a regular service.

Odeon has named Edgar Spinassi its new tango & folk music A&R man, in charge of all the work related to this department. Spinassi is well known for his work in both fields, is also a composer and arranger, and was present at the recent Cosquin Folk Festival giving a series of lectures covering aspects of folk music.

This Cash Box representative was invited last week to the Baradero Popular Music Festival some 100 miles north of Buenos Aires. The Festival was tied-in with a song-selecting program on TV Channel 7, and the decision of the jury was made known at the end of the contest. There were five prizes, awarded to four songs of each part of the country (north, west, east and south) and a tango. Winning composers were Oscar Valles, Waldo Belloso, Margarita Duran, Eduardo Lagos (newspaperman and music reviewer of "La Prensa") and Gonzalez Farias. It is expected that most of the record companies will record the winning songs and others that appear to have commercial value.

Philips' A&R czar Santos Lipesker reports strong sales on Johnny Hallyday's recordings after the visit of the French chanter to Argentina last month. Johnny has gained a strong place among teen singers, mainly through his version of "Noir C'Est Noir" and his recent LP, "La Generation Perdue."

The Sinatra craze is also continuing now through his "That's Life" single—strongly promoted and showing healthy sales signs—and the "Sands" album, rush-released by Sicomericana. Selasco's label is also enjoying continuous success with Nancy Sinatra, currently in the charts with "Sugar Town" and "Friday's Child." As it may be seen, the Reprise label is firmly established in this country.

Disc Jockey has released a new singer by newsmaking French artist Dalida, this time with "Ciao, Amore, Ciao." The suicide-provoking song is steadily gaining force in this country. Coincidentally, Dalida's "Little Man" is selling strongly and appears this week in the charts for the first time.

BELGIUM

Editions Palette proudly announces Will Tura's 1st instrumental L.P. "Will Tura Plays Will Tura." This exquisite L.P. brings pop singer Will Tura playing his hit songs on the piano. Another great Palette L.P. album is Andre Brasseur's second L.P. "More Multi-Sound," bringing more of his numbers on the electric organ. French Michell Polnareff's latest hit "Ta Ta Ta Ta" is climbing steadily on Belgium's Hit Parade. Belgian hit group Le Klan (Palette) will appear next to the Rolling Stones in France's top of the pop's program "Musicorama."

World Music Publishing firm obtained the publishing rights for "Peek A Boo," "Going Back To Gloria," and "Detroit City."

Publishing rights in Belgium for the Outsiders song "Monkee On Your Back" are held by Primavera Publishers. The record is released on Relax-label.

Editions Chappell released an E.P. with "Georgy Girl," "Pauvre Jessie," "Pendant Des Jours Et Des Jours" and "L'Air D'Autrefois," brought by a new group the Hamsters on CBS label. The featuring number of course is the French version of "Georgy Girl."

Jean Meeusen, General Manager for Frankie and Rakki Music has high hopes for Jimmy Gilmer's newest "Shy Girl" and Barry Allen's "An Armful Of Teddy Bears," both produced by Norman Petty. "Shy Girl" is Jimmy's best in a long time.

Also scheduled for near release are following USA masters: "Stop Telling Lies About Me" by Beau Hannon, "What A Relief, It's All Over" by the Dudes plus Jimmy Gilmer's L.P. "Lucky Leven" and the Fireball's L.P. "Campusology."

Frankie Music also released Roman Reed's "Serenade In The Night." This J. Meeusen production is now released in Germany, Australia, Scandinavia and France. Norman Petty has the rights for the USA and Canada.

The Middleman

If recent signs of Congressional pressure seem to indicate that increased jukebox royalties may be paid through the passage of a copyright bill in the near future, the upcoming Senate hearings (March 17) on the current bill are crucial for all parties concerned. They could conceivably choke on the bone of Section 116.

Section 116 was written in Congress by Congressmen at a time when the contestants, operators and performance rights societies, seemed unable to arrive at a compromise. It reflects Congressional anxiousness to have the jukebox question—an isolated, minute portion of a much larger bill—resolved, so that the overhaul of the entire existing copyright system may be brought to vote, passed and closed.

Section 116, with its cluttered and complicated system of listing all records played on a jukebox during the year, involves the Federal Government as a kind of customs house, making it the middleman between those parties truly concerned, the operators and the performing rights societies. As anyone in business knows, the middleman costs more than he is worth. Save for the employment it would provide for several hundred Washington residents as Government clerks, Section 116 has nothing to recommend it to either side.

It would involve the operator in a depressingly heavy amount of plodding paperwork, comparable to counting a pile of beans and making notations of the length and width of each bean. The average man has enough trouble making out his income tax forms, despite the Government instruction booklets, and the counting of beans every three months, with a grand total at the end of the year, looms as a miserable and confusing job.

But it does not end there. The beans would be sent to Washington, where the staff of the Registrar of Copyrights would then have to count them, and finally the performing rights societies would have to count them to make sure the operators and the Government hadn't made any mathematical mistakes. The mind boggles and the eyes blur.

The system devised in Section 116 is probably the most inefficient and costly way of paying the theoretical royalties. The average operator would be compelled to hire one or several clerks to tabulate the records he buys, and if he could not afford to do that, he would have to do it himself. Much time would be consumed on filling out forms—time that is necessary to keep his route in shape, his machines in good working order and his locations satisfied.

The proposal has been made by MOA that the mechanical royalties on records be increased, and that all paperwork be avoided. So far no one has come up with a simpler solution or one that seems to provide the royalties in question to the parties in question as quickly as possible.

If a record is a hit, even a local hit, the operator will buy it; he must buy it. Does it not seem best, therefore, to increase the mechanical royalties, to make payment direct and sure, and to avoid the middleman?

It may be hoped that the performance rights societies also desire swift and sure payments to their clients, and that they realize that Section 116 is not built for speed. What seems best, if royalties are to be paid, is that a compromise be reached by the operators and the societies, and that they present a fair and equitable compromise which can be quickly incorporated and passed—to the relief of the Congress, and the unbundling of the operator.

Wurlitzer Gives Juke Mfg. License to Peruvian Firm

N. TONAWANDA—Robert H. Bear, manager of sales of the Phonograph Division of the Wurlitzer Company announced the licensing of Manufacturas Peru S.A. to import, assemble and manufacture components of the Wurlitzer coin-operated phonographs, commencing with the current model, the "Americana." The manufacture will run model-for-model with those produced in the United States at the North Tonawanda Division. An associated company, Importaciones Peru S.A., which has been an authorized Wurlitzer Distributor since 1953 will continue to handle distribution throughout Peru.

Andres Echevarria, Wurlitzer sales manager for Latin America, recently completed arrangements for the license arrangement with the principals of both companies.

Carlos Dogny, chairman of the board and major stockholder of both operations will be chief administrative officer. Dogny, well known in South American financial circles is, in addition to his association with these two organizations, one of the (Continued on page 74)

CHICAGO—Richard L. Cole, executive vice president of Ditchburn Vending Machines, Inc., a subsidiary of the Ditchburn Organization of England, announced last week the appointment of the Wurlitzer Company offices in San Francisco and Los Angeles as distributors of the "Magi-cold" ice-in-the-cup dispenser.

This latest move gives Ditchburn complete distribution coverage in the State of California.

The building complex housing Importaciones Peru, S.A. and Manufacturas Peru, S.A. in Lima, recently appointed a manufacturing licensee for Wurlitzer phonographs.

MOA Board Meets in Washington; Spirits Up; 52 Attend

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Though it was snowing in Boston and raining in New York, the sun was out here, and some considered it a good omen.

Winding up four days of intense work, fifty-two directors of the Music Operators of America, the highest number ever to attend a board meeting, packed their bags and caught planes and trains home. Behind them they left a marathon record of association meetings and personal calls on Congressmen.

The energy expended by the directors came after a lightning-quick reporting out of the latest jukebox royalty bill to the House Rules Committee last week. Although it was expected that action would be swift, the association had asked again for a hearing on Section 116 of the bill, which details the means by which operators would pay increased royalties to the performing rights societies, who in turn, according to theory, would then spread the extra money around to the songwriters.

"You know, some of the Congressmen involved may be under the impression that when the songwriters are mentioned, it means Jerome Kern or Irving Berlin," said one operator. "It doesn't. It means some guy who sits down and whips out a sappy lyric in five minutes and just by sheer luck, a hot group picks it up, records it and the record sells a million copies. That's one of the things Bill Cannon pointed out at the hearings in 1965, but I don't know if it sank in. I think a definition of the music industry is involved, and so far as I can see, that definition is just dumb luck."

The key man in the upcoming Senate hearing is subcommittee chairman John L. McClellan, the Arkansas Democrat who became known to the country through televised Senate investigations of illegal labor practices and syndicated crime. Several years ago when the Armstrong Circle Theatre presented a play about a small-town operator hounded by a syndicate, McClellan appeared at the end of the program to deliver a statement pointing out that the situation in the play was not typical of the jukebox industry.

"I don't think we need worry about the public image of the industry in Congress," said MOA president James Tolisano. "It's come a long way in a very short time. The Congressmen know that the average jukebox operator is a small businessman with a small businessman's problems. Our job is to convince the Senate subcommittee that Section 116 is, as we think it is, an unreasonable and unnecessarily complicated way of paying royalties. The whole thing could be done so simply—and effectively—by increasing the mechanical royalties on the records."

Commenting on Section 116, one operator said, "Why, the average jukebox man isn't a mathematician. In order to comply with the law about listing all his records, he'd have to go out and hire six girls to do nothing else but fill out forms. Now, I don't think he's got the money to put on that extra staff and he can't do it himself—he's too busy on the route servicing machines, looking for new locations, trying to keep the ones he's got, working out commissions with location owners, studying contracts. Now, if the bill becomes law and he forgets or doesn't have the time to write down all the thousands of records he buys, he becomes liable for fines. He may even lose his license. He shouldn't be made a lawbreaker just because he can't multiply and divide. That's what I'd want to say to the Senate—don't make this average Joe a lawbreaker just because he isn't a CPA. Think of the number of records jukebox operators buy. Thousands and thousands hundreds of thousands. Then think of listing them. Man, oh man."

Although most of the four days were devoted to the visiting Congressmen and selecting witnesses for the Senate hearings (see box) there was a special meeting at which reorganization of various committees and the working machinery of the association were discussed.

Managing director Fred Granger said on Tuesday night: "I think it's been a very successful meeting. Certainly everyone gave of their best and the attendance was outstanding. We've accomplished what we came here to do—coordinate strategy and tell our side of the story to as many Congressmen as possible, in the House and Senate. I think we're as well prepared as we can be for the hearings and I think we'll have an effective presentation. You can never predict how these things will turn out, but we're going to give it all we've got."

Tolisano Sees Precedent Set In Selection Of FAMA Exec. Director

JAMES TOLISANO

CLEARWATER, FLA.—James Tolisano, president of MOA and treasurer of FAMA, the Florida coin association, said last week that the association has scored "what I believe to be a 'first'—we have hired a professional, non-industry director to run a local organization."

He is Milton Storm of Tallahassee, an attorney with experience in public relations. Tolisano said he hoped the hiring of Storm would set a precedent for other state and local associations. "My idea would have the state associations patterned after MOA. It would, I think, make for greater efficiency and strength for local, state and national problems."

Tolisano also said that Storm's presence and efforts are helping to resolve a local pool table problem. "There seems to be some misunderstanding in the state government about coin pool tables, as opposed to regular tables. We are working on the problem now and I think it will be happily resolved."

Another priority program of FAMA is the establishment of local service schools, such as Jack Moran's Institute in Denver. "Moran deserves a lot of credit for starting things off and showing the industry that his idea works. We need trained mechanics so desperately. Wesley Lawson, the president of FAMA has

BULLETINS

WASHINGTON, D. C.—MOA managing director Fred Granger said Tuesday night (7) that the performances rights societies had invited a delegation from MOA to attend a meeting of the societies here March 8.

Granger said the invitation contained no specific details. The invitation came through the Registrar of Copyrights office.

Granger said the MOA delegation would include himself, president James Tolisano, chairman of the board John Wallace, secretary Bill Cannon, Henry Leyser, vice president, Harry Snodgrass, past president, and legal counselor Nicholas Allen.

WASHINGTON, D.C.—An informal meeting between representatives of the performance rights societies, MOA executives and Government personnel took place here March 8.

MOA managing director Fred Granger said, "the subject of the meeting was the statutory language and methods for a jukebox royalty system—there was no discussions of rates."

"We felt we recognized a desire on the part of the public officials to find a fair and simple solution. The meeting lasted about an hour and a half, and although no conclusions were reached, we felt it was a valuable meeting."

Attending for the performance rights societies were Sidney Kaye, president of BMI, Stanley Adams, president of ASCAP, Alfred Ciacimino, president of SESAC. The Government was represented by Herbert Fuchs, counsel for the House Judiciary Committee and Abraham Kaminstein, the Registrar of Copyrights.

Legal observers representing the phonograph manufacturers included Perry Patterson and Ray LaRocca.

done outstanding work to formulate service schools in Florida and he deserves a big round of applause. We feel that FAMA has really come alive in a very short time, and we intend to keep growing."

Rock-Ola Bids Fair at Holland Horecava Fair

P. van Dessel & Co. were appointed Rock-Ola's main agents for Holland last year and have already run up an impressive sales record. At the Horecava Fair '67 in Amsterdam last January, one of the most important shows in Holland, they displayed the Rock-Ola phono and coffee vendor lines, both of which are well received.

Skriver Returns To Lead German Arcade Ops

HAMBURG—When the Arcade Owner's Association of which he was President, was dissolved in 1963, Lars K. Skriver of Skriver Brothers, Hamburg, Germany, well known Danish born arcade operator and importer of amusement machines, withdrew from association work.

However, in order that German Arcade owners interests can be more efficiently defended than during the past few years, Skriver has accepted the post of Director of "Verband Des Norddeutschen Automaten-Gewerbes e.V." (The North German Operators' Association).

Other members elected to the board of Directors at its annual meeting on January 31st were Carl Heinz Wende (President); Dr. Werner Hillert (Vice President); Hans Jurgen Glawe, Erich Schneegass, Max Walden and Erhard Bodi.

John 'Tac' Elms: 35 Years of Doing Modern Business

NEW ORLEANS—The Mardi Gras came early in February this year but a round of events taking place in March will remind many of the exciting pre-lenten celebrations that are an annual affair in this fun-loving city.

Hundreds of people will congratulate John "Tac" Elms on the 35th anniversary of his entering the coin machine business. Much of the wonderful success of those 35 years is based on the fact that New Orleans is a fun-loving and music-loving city and "Tac" Elms painstakingly gave residents and visitors the kind of music they wanted through his hundreds of coin phonograph installations in the Greater New Orleans area. State, parish and city officials will join with fellow operators, location owners and myriads of friends in a variety of ways to pay tribute to the chairman of the board of Tac Amusement Company, Inc. and the organization he has built over a 35 year period which today employs over 100 people.

Reminiscing for a bit, Elms looked back to the events leading to his entry in the coin machine business. His father had died when he was a year old. His mother ran a grocery store to help provide for Tac and his two sisters. When he was old enough, he worked in the store and came to learn the value of money for, as he puts it, "some items you sold brought in a quarter of a penny profit. You had to do a lot of work to earn a nickel of profit." It was in the early days that the nickname Tac came to John Elms for he was always working extra long and extra hard to earn an extra nickel, then called a "tac" by many.

To augment income, Tac took on a bread delivery route and soon got to know not only most of the streets of New Orleans but many of the owners of restaurants and taverns on them. He took a chance placing some bagatelle machines in one tavern and soon branched into music, via Seeburg phonographs, then called Audiophones. Although the name of the coin operated phonograph soon changed, the term Audiophone is still used by many. Tac pays great tribute to the Seeburg product stating that its reliability through the years has contributed greatly to his success. Among the 1500 pieces his firm operates, all the phonographs are by Seeburg.

Tac says that he learned many things in his youth that helped him in his business career. After he was "run up, not raised up," he learned that the real definition of luck is "when preparation meets opportunity," and he has applied plenty of preparation in all of his business transactions, for by his own admission, work is his only hobby.

His wife Josephine would disagree with Tac on that point for while he is a man who frequently works from early morning until late at night, he has been a devoted husband and father. She points out that he spends all available time with her and their four children, John Jr., Joyce, Rita and Regina. One of his proudest times was when John Jr. and Regina presided last year as King and Queen of a Mardi Gras Grand Ball and Gala, an event attended by thousands. As a native of New Orleans, Tac knows of the great honor attendant to being selected as King or Queen and to have a son and daughter simultaneously selected to the position gave him tremendous pleasure.

His family, as well as his friends, will also join in March to honor Tac for another purpose. In addition to his 35th anniversary in the coin machine business, 1967 will also bring Tac the 61st anniversary of his birth. This event is bound to bring additional recognition to Tac for his philanthropic activities, a subject about which he declines comment. He has been an ardent supporter of the NORD Crescent baseball league, The American Legion Junior Baseball League and a variety of other sports activities.

Other civic contributions have brought Tac appointments to honorary positions in the New Orleans Police Department, as an Honorary Attorney General for the State of Louisiana and as an Honorary Colonel on the staff of Governor John McKeithen.

Another impressive recognition came from the Archdiocese of New Orleans who conferred the Order of St. Louis XIV of France upon Tac for his thought, activities and consideration for the youth of the area. Those who know Tac well attribute his love of sports and young people to the fact

Williams Unveils "Altair" Six-Player Shuffle

Williams ALTAIR 6P

CHICAGO—With the anticipation of the budding, new spring season a few weeks hence Sam Stern, president and general manager of Williams Electronics, Incorporated, dramatically removed the wraps on the handsomely cabinetted "Altair" six-player puck shuffle alley bowler this past week. In keeping with this occasion production and all other allied facilities in the large, modern Williams-United factory on the far northwest side of this city has been geared for heavy sales activity.

With five exciting ways to play and score "Altair" features the "Match Bonus" scoring game—"a bright, new way to play." In scoring this game if the player can match one, two or three strikes in each frame (as indicated on the backglass) he scores 100, 200 or 300 points. A perfect game consists of 21 strikes with a score of 2730 points. "Match Bonus" is bound to easily entice many skilled players in locations.

Other scoring games in United "Altair" puck shuffle bowler include such perennial favorites as: "Dual Flash," "Bonus Lane," "Flash" and the old favorite bowling standard "Regulation" bowling.

Stern was obviously carried away in his description of the "Altair" puck shuffle alley, over the eye-appealing cabinetry (color combination, high styling, appointments and durability plus features). Another factor Stern was gleeful over was the immediate acceptance of this new beauty in so many areas in this country and in the foreign markets.

"Altair" puck shuffle alley boasts such proven other features as very effective extra duty pin hangers, an exciting, new playboard design and an ultra modern design backglass. Single, double or triple coin chutes are optional. There are also dividers in the cash box for the various coin denominations.

United's "Altair" puck bowler takes its place alongside such other current Williams-United proven money makers as Williams "Arctic Gun" and "Magic City" single player flipper (and "Magic Town" add-a-ball model), and United's "Aztec" big ball bowling alley.

Melone & Lipkin Off On Display And Distributor Journey

UNION CITY, N.J.—Sol Lipkin, American Shuffleboard executive, advised that he and general manager Nick Melone will be off on a sales trip to Las Vegas this week.

The firm will be exhibiting at the National Association of Physical Health and Education show, where American's bankshot pool table, Shuffle 88 will be featured.

After the show, Melone and Lipkin hope to make a distributor tour before returning to the factory. "We are," said Lipkin, "very, very, very busy."

"The reaction to our Shuffle '88 has been very gratifying," said Melone, "and we are the recognized leaders in the shuffleboard field. We have several new projects in development."

Ewald Fischer Gives New Building To Boy Scouts; "My Dream"

EWALD FISCHER

TIPTON, MO.—Ewald Fischer's "long nurtured dream to help advance the cause of the Boy Scouts of America" in his community, has recently become an actual accomplishment. Fischer, president of Fischer Manufacturing Company, nationally known manufacturer of billiard tables and equipment located here, presented a new administration and service building to the famed youth organization.

The building is situated in a 319 acre camp site known as the Hohn Scout Reservation, on the lush shores of the Osage Arm of the Lake of the Ozarks. This property was used as a summer camp for the Boy Scouts in the Lake of the Ozarks Council for the first time last summer. Fischer is vice chairman of the Camp Development Committee.

Rev. Roland G. Hohn, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who donated the land comprising the reservation, was unable to attend the dedication because of illness. But Fischer, who glowingly referred to the Hohn Scout Reservation as "the ideal camp for growing boys," was extremely elated when he viewed "the finished product of my dream."

In his dedication address, Fischer said: "We should all do our utmost to champion the good cause of the Boy Scouts of America in every possible way we can. Especially in these trying times when the youth of our land are faced with such enormous and serious problems in their daily activities. We are very proud and happy to be a part of this great and worthy project for boys."

EASTERN FLASHES

IN THE CELLER—Red alert! The House Judiciary Committee has passed, with all deliberate—nay, frantic—speed, the latest jukebox royalty bill to the Rules Committee. Next step: the House vote. On March 17, Friday the Senate will hold hearings on the bill, including Section 116, which might also be called, "How I Learned To Cut My Profit Margin To The Bare Bone In Twenty-Four Thousand Entries Or Less." Now is the time for all operators, MOA members or not, to write their Senators and Congressmen and tell them briefly and truthfully what Section 116 will do to them if passed. Are you tired of twenty years debate? Does it all seem mechanical to you now? Do you strug your shoulders when the alarm is sounded? Do you believe that it will all pass away as before? It will not. Since the Congress seems determined to pass some kind of copyright legislation, the jukebox industry must be involved. The total copyright bill is huge, the jukebox part of it small, and if Congress is anxious to get the copyright matter out of their hands, a bill—maybe not this year's—although it's closer than ever before to a vote—a bill may be passed that will smother the industry by sheer bulk. Politics, someone said, is the fine art of compromise, give a little, get a little. In other words, a bargain. To strike the bargain the industry needs, Section 116 must be softened. The paperwork involved must be eliminated. If you write your Congressman, tell him so. Tell him "we're small businessmen. If you decide that we must pay royalties, then we'll have to abide by it, but don't make it so difficult for us that we spend half of our time paying royalties, the other half trying to make a living." MOA is doing all it can (see story on News Page)—now let every operator do all he can for himself and MOA. Write your Congressman!

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

ALL QUIET ON THE PICO FRONT. . . . Activity seems to have cooled, along with the weather, this month. The general reaction up and down the blvd.: things are rather quiet after the blistering sales pace of January and February. With new games getting ready to come off the assembly line, and the arcade season rapidly approaching, we predict that April will more than make up for a somewhat lack luster March.

GOOD-BYE COIN MACHINE SERVICE, HELLO DARVIN CORPORATION. . . . This is the last week that we will be writing about Coin Machine Service. From this week onward, they will be known by their new name, the Darwin Corporation. As a matter of fact Dave Solish told us that just at the time we called they were already in the process of putting up their new sign. Jack Stoetzer has recently joined their staff. Hear that John Solish, son of Dave, has just been accepted at the University of California at Santa Cruz. A shipment of jointed cue sticks just arrived.

SERVICE SCHOOL AT CIRCLE INTERNATIONAL SCHEDULED FOR NEXT WEEK. . . . According to Dean McMurdie, Ralph Phipps will be coming in town to conduct a service school on March 21 and another on the 23rd. Another carload of All-Tech pool tables arrived this week. Shipment of phono-views also in. Marshall Ames just back from Vegas, is off again this week to San Diego. Don Young is covering the Orange County area.

FROM THE RECORD RACKS. . . . Spoke with Buddy Robinson of California Music and he tells us that Nancy Sinatra and Lee Hazelwood are getting some action with "Summer Wine" which just happens to be the flip side of "Sugartown." Looks like the Five Americans are back on the charts with "Western Union" on the Abnak label. Well, the red baron is back again and the Royal Guardsmen are again trying to shoot him down in their latest deck, "The Return Of The Red Baron" on Laurie. "A Beggin'" by the Four Seasons won't be a beggin' for sales, seems like big from our vantage point. Score another point for the Mamas and Papas with "Dedicated To The One I Love." They seem to be dedicating every record towards a very healthy bank balance. We would like to close out this list with Ed Ames who's about to flood out RCA with his hit bound "My Cup Runneth Over." . . . The Solle Sisters of Luehagen told us that Richard Timmis of Dot Records, was in to spin the latest from Lawrence Welk, "The Beat Goes On." Hit records seem to be becoming a family affair with this Hollywood father and daughter. Nancy and Frank Sinatra combined to record (no kidding) "Something Stupid." The girls tell us that they think it is the monster of the week. Joe Perry of Decca was in promoting Pete Fountain's single "Thoroughly Modern Millie." Another fast mover over there is "This Is My Song" by Pet Clark on Warner Bros.

HERE AND THERE . . . George Muraoka of Simon Distributing says that he is very pleased to report he is all up to date with his orders for Valley pool tables. His export orders are also coming along quite well. He has a shipment of phonographs going to the Far East, and another going to Europe. A large shipment of games went out to Okinawa last week. . . . We want to wish Leo Simone of Badger Sales a belated Happy Birthday. . . . From Bob Portale of Advance Automatic Sales we get the news that Elke Ray, from Gottlieb, was in town. Ross Sheer of Chicago Coin was also in town for a few days. Bob tells us that he received his first shipment of the Chicago Coin "Beatnik" two player pin game.

MILWAUKEE MENTIONS

Bert Davidson, Wurlitzer's man-on-the-go was a visitor in Cream City last week. While there he dropped in on Harry Jacobs and Russ Townsend, at United, Inc., distribs in Wisconsin and northern Michigan for Wurlitzer phonographs. Harry and Bert took to the road to call on United customers. During their absence Russ Townsend minded the store along with Reid Whipple. . . . While Jerome "Red" Jacomet was in Washington, D.C. for the MOA board of directors meetings Dick Jacomet held down the fort at Red's Novelty Co. . . . Jack and Jim Hastings are on tap at Hastings Distribs during Sam Hasting's stay in the nation's capital for the MOA sits. . . . Nate Victor and his staffers, Walter Koelbl, Don Emery, Walter Glish, George Faust and Carl Betz, at S. L. London Music Co., are doing a yeoman's job keeping deliveries of Seeburg phonos and vending equipment and Williams Electronics amusement games rolling out to Wisconsin operators. Nate paints a rosy picture for the outlook in the coming spring months. . . . Joel Kleiman, of Pioneer Sales & Services, was a very busy guy in the Ambassador West Hotel last weekend during the NAMA Midwestern Regional Meeting and Business Conferences. This gave him a good opportunity to visit with many of his customers and old friends in the vending business. Joel and Sam Cooper are enjoying a banner season to date with Rowe-AMI's "Music Merchant" phonos, Rowe vending machines and Fischer pool tables. As to Joel's prediction for the spring season: "If it continues as well as the winter business we'll have nothing to complain about." . . . All eyes are aimed at Washington, D.C. where MOA's directors are striving to do what they can to neutralize the problems extant with performance rights (copyright) legislation that is pending.

Upper Mid - West Musings

Ben Kragtorp, Tracy, in the cities for a few days visiting relatives and picking up parts and records. . . . John Czerniak, Duluth, in town for the day making the rounds. . . . Also Morris Berger, Duluth, in town for the day doing some buying. . . . Gordon Runnberg is getting to be a weekly visitor in the cities. . . . Mr. & Mrs. Irv. Sandler are on a motor tour to California and then on to Mexico for an extended vacation. Mr. & Mrs. Gene Glennon are on a vacation in the East and visiting friends in Virginia. . . . Mr. & Mrs. Arndt Peterson in town for the day picking up parts and records. . . . Mr. & Mrs. John Trucano are on their way to Washington, D.C., John to attend a M.O.A. meeting and then both will fly to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida for a little vacation. . . . Our deepest sympathy to Lloyd Morgan on the death of his father last week. . . . Kenny Dean, Rushmore Vending Co., convalescing at home after being operated on two weeks ago for a hernia. Should be back at his desk in another week or so. . . . Frank Phillips, in town for the day picking up parts and records. . . . Harry and John Galep in the cities for the day buying parts and records. . . . Mr. & Mrs. Darlow Maxwell home after a nice vacation at San Diego, Cal. . . . Stanley Baeder in town for the day and taking the train back that evening. . . . Doug Smart in the cities for the day as was Al. Eggermint. . . . Fred Fixel, Pembina, in town for a few days.

CHICAGO CHATTER

NAMA's kickoff of the 1967 regional Management Conferences, March 3-4, in Windy City was a rousing success in attendance, attention given to the various sessions and the expert speakers, and in all other functions. The conference schedule then takes this group to New Orleans, Cincinnati, Atlantic City, Charleston, S.C., and finally to Boston. James T. (Jim) McGuire, NAMA's genial president, capped the weekend gathering when he stressed the need, during the luncheon break, for the necessary recruitment of more good, trained personnel in the ever expanding industry. Among the NAMA staffers on hand were executive director Tom Hungerford, Walter Reed, Sid Schapiro, Richard Funk, Gib Tansey, Steve Polcyn, and many more, too numerous to mention here.

Tom Hungerford assures one and all that Chicago's International Amphitheatre is certainly a suitable replacement site for the big annual convention and trade show in late fall for the ill fated McCormick Place. Donovan Hall, he said, certainly offers ample exhibition space, and all other facilities are "more than adequate for our considerable needs" . . . Among the prominent coin machine and vending people we chatted with at the Ambassador West Hotel during the NAMA Midwestern Regional Meeting, Friday and Saturday, March 3-4, were the aforementioned NAMA staffers. . . . Atlas Music's Stan Levin . . . Paul Huebsch, midwestern regional manager for Rowe Mfg Corp. . . . Danny Gould of Vendo Co. . . . Joel Kleiman, Pioneer Sales & Services in Milwaukee. . . . Don R. McDonald, of McDonald Merchandising Co., Ottawa, Ill. . . . Dave St. Pierre and Bob Vihon, of Empire Distributors. . . . Dave Howle, head of the new Bally Vending, Inc., who was on hand to greet so many of his old vending pals. . . . Orma Johnson, of Rock Island, Ill., who departed after the luncheon Saturday for Washington, D. C. to be on hand for the MOA board of directors meetings. Orma is a director of MOA.

Other coinbiz buddies we visited with were: Nate Feinstein and his lovely Eve Feinstein, who just returned from a pleasant winter hiatus in sunny Florida. . . . Rudy Kit . . . Atlas Music's Bob Fabian and Joe Klykun. . . . World Wide Distributors' Irv Ovitz, who heads up the Vending Machine Division, Howie Freer, Frank Gumma, and Jules Millman. . . . And, of course, many, many more. . . . And, it was a very rewarding weekend for all. . . . Another reminder to all that the Illinois Automatic Merchandising Council's annual meeting is scheduled for April 21-22, in the Lake Lawn Lodge, in Delavan, Wisconsin. . . . Also, the Wisconsin Automatic Merchandising Council meets April 8, in Biggar's Motel, Appleton, Wisconsin. Make your reservations now for both sessions.

The gang at Williams Electronics is definitely dashing about keeping eyes peeled on production with the heavy action on Williams "Magic City" and "Magic Town" (add-a-ball) single player flippers, "Arctic Gun," "Altair" puck shuffle alley and "Vegas" big ball bowler. Among the busy bees at Williams are: Prexy Sam Stern, Billy DeSalm, Herb Oettinger and Jack Mittel. . . . There certainly is no lull or letup at D. Gottlieb & Co. with all the action on Gottlieb's "King of Diamonds" single player flipper amusement game. Alvin Gottlieb, Nate Gottlieb and Judd Weinberg herald the fact that Dave Gottlieb and company are celebrating 40 years of service to the coin machine industry in this country and overseas. . . . There is plenty of action in production and shipping at Midway Mfg. Co. due to the fine acceptance of Midway's "Fun Ball" baseball novelty game—the very first such amusement game released to the trade this year, and just prior to the opening of the annual baseball season in this country. Mark "Iggy" Wolverton, Hank Ross and Art Rapacz feel that it is singularly significant that Midway's "Fun Ball" is the 'opening shot' for the always exciting baseball season.

A quick tour through the huge confines of Chicago Dynamic Industries reveals that exciting plans are afoot there for a definitely active amusement games season. Among the new games ready shortly to be introduced to the international trade marts are a baseball game, a new gun game (right on the heels of "Super-Scope," which was easily the best and most widely accepted gun game ChiCoin ever released). During our visit to the plant we chatted with Sam Wolberg, Sam Gensburg, Harry Glick, Avron Gensburg, Mort Secore and Ross Scheer.

HOUSTON HAPPENINGS

Special entertainers for 35th annual Nationally famous Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo were Jimmy Dean, Jim Nabors, Ernie Ford and Eddy Arnold. The Kids Next Door, a band composed of 18 young adults each with an outstanding individual talent, provided the music for every performance. Kids Next Door debuted last November with Perry Como's Thanksgiving Special TV show and have been booked solid ever since. Jimmy Dean really entered into the spirit of the thing when he "bit the dust" following his second performance before a sellout crowd of over 27,000. He was riding around the arena when his horse stumbled while making a sharp turn and Dean was thrown to the turf. He remounted, finished his schedule and rode from arena apparently unhurt but it developed later that he had sustained a badly sprained ankle. Dean commented that he had been thrown before but not before that many people.

. . . Local operator Fred Troy, owner Marc Amusement Co., mighty proud that his daughter Linda Troy, with an average of 3.6 (4.0 is perfect), made Dean's List in her freshman year at University of Houston. Linda has seven subjects too, with 17 hours, which is indeed a sizable load for such a cute little girl. . . . Don Mahoney and Jeanna Clare, radio, TV performers and recording artists with substantial following over Lone Star State past several years, earning some extra dollars by personal appearances at super market chain stores. Promotion aided and abetted with free colored photos of kiddies by Nationally known photographer David (Tony) Moreno. Don and Jeanna with their "Kiddie Troupers" now have their own TV show in color on channel 39. . . . Dropped by at H. W. Daily, Inc. (one stop and wholesale records) for a wee chat with semi-retired Harold (Pappy) Daily and drew a blank. Followed with a stop at H & H Distributing (cigarette vending) in quest of an argument with long time coinman Red Harrington and made another water haul. Got to wondering, since their offices are practically within hollering distance apart, if those gay blades maybe were out making merry together in some neighboring honky tonk or other. . . . Operator E. J. Slanina Sr., owner Sly Distributing Co, still thinks of happenings worth telling that occurred during his trip abroad last October. Trinidad was his main objective but other countries were visited briefly and as he traveled by freighter as well as plane stop overs at many ports of call were enjoyed. . . . 78 year young Al Lemke, retired coinman with some 40 years continuous service in the business, at home and well along toward complete recovery from two major operations several weeks ago.

McGuire Speaks at NAMA Midwest Meet

CHICAGO—Easing the myriad management and administration problems in operating companies was the theme of the National Automatic Merchandising Association's 1967 Midwestern Regional Meeting, Friday and Saturday, March 3-4, in the Ambassador West Hotel in Windy City. The series of meetings (which will be held in other regions on this present tour) are broadly titled NAMA's 1967 Regional Management Conferences.

NAMA's executive staff and guest experts and management consultants will hold forth during the next conference, March 10-11, in the Monteleone Hotel in New Orleans, after which they will proceed to Cincinnati, March 17-18, for the next set in the Terrace Hilton Hotel. Atlantic City is the next destination on the tour, March 31-April 1, where the group will gather in the Claridge.

From Atlantic City the NAMA retinue enplanes to Charleston, N. C. where the meeting will be held in the Charleston Inn, April 7-8. And, finally, the Sharaton-Plaza in Boston is the site of the last two-day session on the agenda, April 14-15, until September 22-23 when the Western Management Conference will be held. There will be no exhibits at this session, and the hotel location will be announced later this year, according to Tom Hungerford, executive director of NAMA.

James T. McGuire, president of NAMA, and a vice president of The Canteen Corporation, was the principal speaker at the Saturday luncheon when he cited the burgeoning need for responsible, adequately trained personnel in the industry. This, he said, was the prime reason for this vital series of business management meetings across the country. The gist of his talk was "You Can't Take Pot Luck," and centered on "people problems" in the vending industry.

McGuire strongly stressed the fact that "service means people—and, service is what we have to offer the consumer public. People," he added, "represent our scarcest commodity—in service and (most important) in management."

McGuire, a very articulate sneaker in the area of the vending business, was roundly applauded by a record breaking turnout at the annual luncheon. He concluded by spelling out the fact that this series of regional conferences will bear excellent results thanks to the very capable panel of experts NAMA was privileged to employ.

The group of experts on personnel direction, and company supervision included: Dr. Benjamin Werne, NAMA's labor relations counsel; R. F. Shaeffer, vice president; Jewell, Schultz & Shaeffer, Inc., management consultants; James Healy, pres., Management & Business Services; Earl Brooks, professor of administra-

Eastern Hosts Automatic, ChiCoin Schools

NORTH BERGEN, N.J.—A new service school program has swung into action at the Bert Betti Eastern Novelty showrooms here. On March 15th, Betti and his staff, Gerry Gordon, John Rafer and Lou Avoglia, will host a service school for Automatic Products. Betti distributes the Automatic line.

The photo below shows a February 15th school on Chicago Coin equipment. Commenting on the class, Betti said, "This was our first school on Chicago Coin equipment and we were pleasantly surprised by the attendance of about sixty operators and their servicemen. This is due, I think, to the great acceptance of Chicago Coin equipment in our area. The factory has supplied us with some very fine equipment and we are very pleased with the sales generated last year. We are looking forward to a great association with Chicago Dynamics."

"Mr. Willie Taylor, chief inspector for Chicago Coin, conducted the class—and from the comments received from the operators, he did one heck of a job! As a result of the school, we are planning to hold it several times a year."

Willie Taylor, chief inspector of the Chicago Coin factory, holds forth at the Eastern Novelty service school. Sixty operators and their servicemen attended the class.

Martinez Up At Wometco

MIAMI—Jose A. Martinez has been promoted to special assistant to the senior vice president of Wometco's vending division.

Martinez will be in charge of office management and accounting controls for the division. Previously he was supervisor of accounting for vending.

New 50¢ Changer

LOS ANGELES—To help solve the half dollar coin shortage Luppe H. Luppen, President Metal Products Engineering Inc., announced his 19-key Coin Master changer will now have a new magazine insert in the half dollar column.

The new insert automatically pays two quarters when the half dollar key is pushed. The insert slips into the half dollar slot the MP 19-key Coin Master changer and can be easily removed if half dollar coins become plentiful again.

'Tac' Elms' 35th Anniversary

that as a youth he worked from 5 in the morning until midnight and had little time for sports. "Tac wants to help make certain kids get a chance to learn and play sports and he does it in so many different ways, it is doubtful anyone can keep track," one official said.

In another area of recognition, the president of the Meal-A-Minute resrestaurant chain, Bill Gruber, named a horse after Elms, "Mister Tac." Tac remembers "the horse was like me, he stood up well in tough conditions." Others liken the horse to Tac, who "was a winner even when all kinds of disadvantages came along."

Shown in the display case are some of the many awards 'Tac' Elms has won for his outstanding civic activities.

Although much of his business success has come from the coin boxes of his Seeburg phonographs, Tac remembers some of the trials of early days of operating. Once, he said, "I almost collected enough linoleum to make a covering for our living room. The coin chutes would accept pieces of linoleum cut to the size of a nickel and for a while all I came home with was a bag of linoleum discs." However, the people at Seeburg soon devised a solution to that problem and things were placid until the appearance of the Texas slug. This, too, was eliminated as a problem and Tac continued to build his business on service and programming.

NAC Midwest Regional Conclave Set for March 13-15

CHICAGO—A program dealing with many aspects of theatre refreshment concessions will be presented by the National Association of Concessionaires at the Mideastern Regional Theatre Owners Convention being held March 13, 14 and 15 at the Sheraton-Columbus Hotel, Columbus, Ohio.

Sponsors of the 3-day regional convention, in which NAC is taking an active part, are: the National Association Theatre Owners of Ohio; Allied Theatre Owners of Western Pennsylvania and the West Virginia Allied Theatres Association.

Julian Lefkowitz, L & L Concession Co., Detroit, Michigan, NAC second vice-president, is chairman and moderator of the NAC program, which will feature talks by NAC director J. C. Evans, Gold Medal Products Co., Cincinnati, Ohio and NAC member Knute Boyle, Theatre Candy Co., Pittsburgh, Penna. A question and answer period will follow the session.

Lefkowitz, in his talk combined with a slide presentation will cover equipment, decor and size in "Yesterday's and Today's Concessions," plus a series of slides depicting a drive-in restaurant on theatre property.

Louis L. Abramson, NAC executive director, Chicago, will also speak at the NAC concession session, which is scheduled for Monday afternoon, March 13.

The value of proper programming was brought home most vividly to him by a customer in a location who had his ear glued to the front of the phonograph. Every time the record finished, Tac tried to open the machine to make the collection but the customer objected and played the same selection again and again. The location owner pointed out that the patron had recently been divorced by his wife and found consolation in a specific record. Tac offered to put free plays on the machine if only the patron would let him make the collection. At that point, Tac realized the value of proper programming for the patron said, "if that music machine could cook, I'd get married again."

The Tac Amusement operation is built on service and programming and is a model of organization and efficiency. Distributors and operators from all over the world visit to see how the firm operates. Tac believes in showing and telling them anything they want to know. "This business has been good to me," he says and "I'm just grateful to help others."

With his ability to get along with all kinds of people, with the knowledge of people and their entertainment needs and with the respect he has earned throughout his state and community, it stands to reason a lot of days in March are going to be like Mardi Gras for John "Tac" Elms, a man who has helped a lot of people who are going to let him know they remember it.
